SUMMARY

Built in 1916, this two and a half-story single family residence exhibits character-defining features of Spanish Colonial Revival residential architecture. The irregular-shaped plan includes a multi-gabled roof exhibiting clay roof tiles. Two double-tiered concrete chimneys are located on the roof. On the front elevation, two recessed off-center entrances have inset porches with arched entrances and a fountain. The main door is a hand carved multi-paned wooden door with flower motif surrounded by tile work. The side elevation of the subject building reads as a side-gabled three-story with enclosed balconies located at the second and third level. The second level balcony features arched openings; the third level balcony has a tiled overhang extending from the roofline supported by wooden pillars. An additional covered porch is located at the rear of the subject building. An outdoor staircase with customized tile flooring leads from the third level to ground floor. The exterior features stucco, painted wood trim, and stone finish. Windows are multi-pane casement, fixed, and double-hung including some stained glass. Secondary buildings include a concrete garage located at the front of the property. Significant interior elements include two Batchelder fireplaces, arched openings, wooden staircases, extensive hand-painted Mexican tiles, wrought iron, light fixtures, and built-in cabinetry.

The proposed Clarence G. Badger historic monument was constructed in 1916 by an unknown architect or builder. The subject building was constructed for Clarence C. Badger (1880-1964), a celebrated early Hollywood film director who directed over eighty films between 1915 and 1941. Badger is credited with discovering famed film actress Clara Bow, starring her in his film "It" in 1927. Badger also directed films starring Gloria Swanson, Will Rogers, Madge Kennedy, Jason Robards, Sr., and Hedda Hopper.

Alterations to the property include c.1929 additions of a bathroom, sleeping room, and porch and bathroom and kitchen remodeling throughout between the 1970s to present.

CRITERIA

The criterion is the Cultural Heritage Ordinance which defines a historical or cultural monument as any site (including significant trees or other plant life located thereon) building or structure of particular historic or cultural significance to the City of Los Angeles, such as historic structures or sites in which the broad cultural, economic, or social history of the nation, State or community is reflected or exemplified, or which are identified with historic personages or with important events in the main currents of national, State or local history or which embody the distinguishing characteristics of an architectural type specimen, inherently valuable for a study of a period style or method of construction, or a notable work of a master builder, designer or architect whose individual genius influenced his age.

FINDINGS

Based on the facts set forth in the summary and application, the Commission determines that the application is complete and that the property is significant enough to warrant further investigation as a potential Historic-Cultural Monument.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE

THE CLARENCE G. BADGER RESIDENCE WAS BUILT IN 1916
NAME OF PROPOSED MONUMENT YEAR BUILT

CLARENCE G. BADGER AND SPANISH COLONIAL REVIVAL ARCHITECTURE WAS IMPORTANT TO THE NAME OF FIRST OR OTHER SIGNIFICANT OWNER

DEVELOPMENT OF LOS ANGELES BECAUSE CLARENCE G. BADGER WAS ONE OF HOLLYWOOD'S MOST CELEBRATED EARLY MOVIE DIRECTORS, SUCCESSFULLY MAKING THE TRANSITION FROM SILENT TO TALKING MOTION PICTURES. BADGER IS CREDITED WITH FIRST DISCOVERING THE ACTRESS, CLARA BOW, WHEN HE DIRECTED HER SIGNATURE MOVIE, "IT" IN 1927. AFTER WORKING
FIRST WITH MACK SENNETT, BADGER FORMED HIS OWN PRODUCTION COMPANY. HE WENT ON TO DIRECT 80 FILMS, WORKING WITH A NUMBER OF THE TOP STARS OF THE DAY, AS NOTED IN THE EARLIER SIGNIFICANCE STATEMENT. BY THE LATE 1930S, HE HAD TIRED OF MUCH OF THE INFIGHTING AND DECADENCE THAT WAS PLAGUING THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE, SO HE MOVED TO SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, WHERE HE MADE TWO MOVIES, INCLUDING HIS LAST FILM, INCLUDING HIS LAST FILM, "THAT CERTAIN SOMETHING", IN 1941. AFTER WHICH HE RETIRED AND LIVED QUIETLY UNTIL HIS DEATH IN 1964. BADGER BOUGHT THE LAND FOR HIS HOME IN THE HILLS IN NOVEMBER OF 1915. THE LOTS WERE A PART OF THE "HOLLYWOOD PARK" DEVELOPMENT, WHICH WAS ONE OF THE FIRST IN THE HILLSIDES ABOVE THE UNINCORPORATED COMMUNITY OF CAHUENGA, NAMED FOR THE PASS THAT GOES THERE BETWEEN SAN FERNANDO VALLEY AND HOLLYWOOD. BADGER CHOSE TO HAVE HIS HOUSE DESIGNED IN THE SPANISH COLONIAL REVIVAL STYLE, WHICH WAS JUST BEGINNING TO COME INTO VOGUE IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. SPANISH COLONIAL REVIVAL IS A NATURAL
PROGRESSION FROM THE EARLIER MISSION REVIVAL STYLE. BOTH HEarken BACK TO THE ROMANCE OF THE EARLY SPANISH
SETTLEMENT OF CALIFORNIA AND THE REST OF THE SOUTHWEST. THIS STYLE REACHED ITS EARLY ZENITH DURING THE 1920S AND 1930S, WHERE IT HAS BEEN USED IN MANY GRAND HOMES BY THE BEST OF THE ERA'S ARCHITECTS. IT ALSO FOUND USE IN THE
MORE MODEST HOMES OF THE WORKING AND MIDDLE CLASS THROUGHOUT THE AREA. THE STYLE BECAME POPULAR AGAIN IN THE LATE 20TH CENTURY AND HAS BEEN USED IN MANY COMMUNITIES AS "NEO SPANISH COLONIAL REVIVAL".

Who's Who on the Screen (1920)

Clarence Badger was born in San Francisco and educated in Boston. His early career included editorial work on the "Youth's Companion" and Pacific Coast newspapers, free-lance work, and then scenario work for Lubin, Universal, and Keystone, where he became a full-fledged director. He joined the Goldwyn Pictures Corporation early in the making of that organization and his pictures have been uniformly successful, from "A Perfect Lady" to his latest production.

FLASHES.

"SCANDALS" PLEASE.

PEACHY GIRLS, LIVE MUSIC,
GOOD COMEDYING.

By Grace Kingsley.

Maude Adams will have to learn to shimmy and Robert Edeson to shake a guilty gaiter if they're going to keep up with what this town likes. A "Mamma's Affair" or a "Clarence" or a "Tea For Three" can come here and die, but not a revue with a lot of undressed chorus girls.

"Scandals of 1919" packed 'em at the Mason last night. And with more or less reason, of which a pipin chorus is the foremost. But the rule of the musical revue nowadays seems to be the more lines of the girls, the fewer of the authors. The only book the Johns care about is the little red book.

"Scandals of 1919" has some capital songs, notably "Three Beautiful Girls" and others, warbled by Duke Rogers. Rogers, in blackface, was the big hit of the show, with his trick guitar and his chubby way of kidding the audience about the rest of the performance.

Blanche Boone is a fetching girl with a ditto voice, and Grace Cameron has some good character business.

The remainder of the cast was adequate.

The high spots are rather like cases. The burlesque on the bedroom drama was capital, the three-mile limit cafe scene struck a popular chord, and the peacock song was effective. The credit sounds like a who's who of Tin Pan Alley; Book and lyrics are by Arthur Jackson and George Whiting, while Richard Whiting, Herbert Spencer and Al Humble furnished the music. George White supplied the staging and Providence gave us the chorus.

That chorus is a whole orchard of posies, with many a quince. And they grabbed 'em out of the kindergarten, too.

The costumes are lovely, and the fact that the house yelled its approval should be sufficient evidence that it liked the show.

The production won't set even the Los Angeles River on fire, but it's warm enough to please most theatergoers, and to furnish a pleasurable glow to everybody.

ROGERS APTLY CAST

IN "OLD HUTCH" FILM.

Any old time Will Rogers's name is hung out in front of the California, that theater is sure to pack 'em in. And "Old Hutch," from Garret Smith's story, rings the gong. For whimsical intensity of plot, as well as for supplying a character full of the unctuous humor and droll humanness, for which Rogers is famous, "Old Hutch" has never been eclipsed, I'm sure.

Mark Twain once had a line concerning lazy southerners, saying that "chills were provided by an all-wise providence to permit lazy people to take exercise without exertion." You know the Mississippi River bum type.

While "Hutch" didn't have any chills except when he thought he might have to work, you get the type he was from Twain's description.

As the lazy man who let his wife take in washing and his kids go half starved, Rogers is entertaining as usual, in his own way, and he does delightfully to the opportunities later offered him when, having discovered a robbers' cache of $10,000 in $1000 notes, which he hides, he decides he must spend the money because he'll be suspected, and so he'll have to go to work to pretend he earned it.

"I wouldn't go to work for much less than $50,000 anyhow," he comments.

In the long run, he loses the cache, but has earned much cash, and when finally a bit of property of feels he's rich, besides which he has his is bought up for $10,000, he becomes a self-respecting citizen.

There are many striking bits of action, and the subtleties are capital. Mary Alden as the drudging wife of Hutch brings to the role her genius for dramatic detail in character roles, in addition to that finest of all senses of comedy which permits the player to reflect the inherent humor of situation by a quiet sort of reaction put over merely through thought and facial expression.

Felicita Bonner has a small part, which, as usual, this very clever young player makes stand out through sympathetic and keenly intelligent handling. Tully Marshall plays another of those gosh-darned miners in his usual masterly fashion. Bryon Munson is boyishly nice as the juvenile lover, and Nick Gogley plays Hiram Joy pleasantly, with Eddie, Jeannette and Yves Trebaot portraying the three children of Hutch acceptably.

Clarence Badger is to be complimented on having staged very effectively a most entertaining story. Carl D. Eilmer's score adds much to the program.

Another of Booth Tarkington's Edgar stories, directed by E. Mason Hopper, is also great fun. I think it's the best of the series so far. It is called "Edgar's Sunday Courtship," and, as usual, it is Edgar's dreams which are the funniest part of the story. Especially amusing are the scenes with the giant, which role is well played by Fred Fagers. Great boy actor that Johnny Jones, reacting sensitively to all calls for both comedy and pathos.

Prolongs and musical features are all up to the high California standard.

Blanche Sweet Abroad.

Blanche Sweet has gone to London. She left New York on September 21, and expects to be away several months.

Miss Sweet is a Hampton star, and it is likely she will make a picture in Europe before coming home.

Hippodrome.

A blackface comedy offering presented by Faig and White, called "Bits of Africology," heads the Hippodrome bill. Their act is easily the hit of the show, although they are closely followed for laughing honors by Murray and Lane in "Hubby's Holiday," a comedy sketch taken from every day life. The complications that arise when hubby has a day off, and tries to help wife clean house, cause laughter.

Elison and Betty have class and cleverness in a song and dance act that pleases. Louis Leo performs in madras, and is thrilling and amusing. The Four Ginger Snaps close the show in a novel song and dance extrav.

Gloria Swanson appears in the feature photoplay "Station Content," an entertaining story of railroad life.

Clara Bow's Discoverer Dies at 84

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Clarence Badger, 84, who directed Hollywood silent films, died Wednesday after living in obscurity in Sydney for more than 25 years, relatives said Saturday.

Badger was credited with discovering Clara Bow. He directed such stars as Will Rogers, Gary Cooper, Wallace Beery and Gloria Swanson.

He came to Australia in 1936, directed two films and retired.

Relatives said he sought seclusion and "wanted to get away from everything connected with films."

HOLLYWOOD PARK.

P. R. Longley, secretary of the Hollywood Park Company, reports the following sales of lots in that foothill subdivision: To Mrs. C. C. Craig, two lots; H. T. Nowell, one lot; Dr. George H. Kress, seven lots; Johanna Jedofsky, twelve lots; C. G. Badger, six lots; Ella Inglesby, one lot; A. Gadagan, two lots; Daisy P. Rainhard, three lots; W. A. Hopper, two lots; Mrs. C. C. Ludy, three lots, and Miss W. A. Kilborn, one-acre villa site. Mr. Longley states that seventeen homes in all have been completed in the tract during the present year, notably by men and women identified with the motion picture industry in and near Hollywood.

THANKS FOR SMALL FAVORS.

"What We Have to be Thankful For," was the subject of an address delivered before the City Club yesterday by the Rev. James Whitcomb Brouger. The speaker said that all Americans may be especially thankful that in these days of international warfare the United States is at peace with the rest of the world. Most of all, though, he said, we should be thankful for the little blessings of life which go to make up the supreme happiness of mankind.

STORES LEASED.

Strong, Dickinson & McGrath report having leased for a term of five years two storerooms at Nos. 907-9 South Main street, in the Marsh-Strong Building, for the Continental National Bank to the Henderson Motorcycle Sales Company. The total rental consideration is given at $18,000.

WATCHING FOR MAN AND GIRL.

BELIEVED SHE MAY BE USED AS FOIL TO SELL LOTTERY TICKETS.

Believing the middle-aged man supposed to have coerced Esther Erickson, 17 years old, from her home in St. Helena, this State, has headed for this city, the police were asked by wire yesterday afternoon to watch closely for Harry Wallenstein, 40, and Miss Erickson. Harry Erickson, her brother, will arrive here tomorrow to make a personal investigation into the whereabouts of his sister, and according to advance notices, will also be carefully watched lest he take the law into his own hands should he meet with Wallenstein.

Miss Erickson disappeared from her home several days ago. At the same time, Mr. Wallenstein, who lived in the same town, left suddenly. He and Miss Erickson had been friendly for some time, the reports say.

It is believed by the distracted parents that Wallenstein is planning to use the girl as a foil in selling lottery tickets. The police believe a graver charge may develop. The local juvenile bureau will take Miss Erickson in charge should she be discovered here.

Esther Erickson,

A 17-year-old girl, who is sought in Los Angeles. She disappeared from her home in St. Helena, this State, several days ago. She is supposed to be with a middle-aged man, who caused her to run away. Her brother will arrive tomorrow.

PERMIT EXPIRATION/REFUNDS: This permit expires two years after the date of the permit issuance. This permit will also expire if no construction work is performed for a continuous period of 180 days (Sec. 98.0602 LAMC). Claims for refund of fees paid must be filed within one year from the date of expiration for permits granted by LADBS (Sec. 22.12 & 22.13 LAMC). The permittee may be entitled to reimbursement of permit fees if the Department fails to conduct an inspection within 60 days of receiving a request for final inspection (HS 17951).

17. OWNER-BUILDER DECLARATION

I hereby affirm under penalty of perjury that I am exempt from the Contractors' State License Law for the following reason (Section 7031.5, Business and Professions Code: Any city or county which requires a permit to construct, alter, improve, demolish, or repair any structure, prior to its issuance, also requires the applicant for such permit to file a signed statement that he or she is licensed pursuant to the provisions of the Contractors License Law (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code) or that he or she is exempt therefrom and the basis for the alleged exemption. Any violation of Section 7031.5 by any applicant for a permit subjects the applicant to a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500).):

I, as the owner of the property, or my employees with wages as their sole compensation, will do the work, and the structure is not intended or offered for sale (Sec. 7044, Business & Professions Code; The Contractors License Law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves thereon, and who does such work himself or herself or through his or her own employees, provided that such improvements are not intended or offered for sale. If, however, the building or improvement is sold within one year from completion, the owner-builder will have the burden of proving that he or she did not build or improve for the purpose of sale).

I, as the owner of the property, am exclusively contracting with licensed contractors to construct the project (Sec. 7044, Business & Professions Code; The Contractors License Law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves thereon, and who contracts for such projects with a contractor(s) licensed pursuant to the Contractors License Law.)

18. WORKERS' COMPENSATION DECLARATION

I hereby affirm, under penalty of perjury, one of the following declarations:

I have and will maintain a certificate of consent to self insure for workers' compensation, as provided for by Section 3700 of the Labor Code, for the performance of the work for which this permit is issued.

I have and will maintain workers' compensation insurance, as required by Section 3700 of the Labor Code, for the performance of the work for which this permit is issued. My workers' compensation insurance carrier and policy number are:

Carrier: _____ Policy Number: _____

I certify that in the performance of the work for which this permit is issued, I shall not employ any person in any manner so as to become subject to the workers' compensation laws of California, and agree that if I should become subject to the workers' compensation provisions of Section 3700 of the Labor Code, I shall forthwith comply with those provisions.

WARNING: FAILURE TO SECURE WORKERS' COMPENSATION COVERAGE IS UNLAWFUL, AND SHALL SUBJECT AN EMPLOYER TO CRIMINAL PENALTIES AND CIVIL FINES UP TO ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS ($100,000), IN ADDITION TO THE COST OF COMPENSATION, DAMAGES AS PROVIDED FOR IN SECTION 3706 OF THE LABOR CODE, INTEREST, AND ATTORNEY'S FEES.

19. ASBESTOS REMOVAL DECLARATION / LEAD HAZARD WARNING

I certify that notification of asbestos removal is either not applicable or was sent to the AQMD or EPA as per section 19827.5 of the Health and Safety Code. Due to the possible presence of lead-based paint, lead safe work practices are required on all repairs in pre-1979 buildings that disturb paint. Failure to do so could create lead hazards that violate California Health and Safety Code Section 17920.10 and Section 105256 and may be subject to a $1000 fine or criminal prosecution. For more information call LA County's Department of Health Services at (800)524-5323. In order to locate a Lead Certified Professional and obtain additional information, call California DHS at (800)597-5323 or go to the DHS Website at <http://www.dhs.ca.gov/childlead/html/GENclst.html>.

20. FINAL DECLARATION

I certify that I have read this application INCLUDING THE ABOVE DECLARATIONS and state that the above information INCLUDING THE ABOVE DECLARATIONS is correct. I agree to comply with all city and county ordinances and state laws relating to building construction, and hereby authorize representatives of this city to enter upon the above-mentioned property for inspection purposes. I realize that this permit is an application for inspection and that it does not approve or authorize the work specified herein, and it does not authorize or permit any violation or failure to comply with any applicable law. Furthermore, neither the City of Los Angeles nor any board, department officer, or employee thereof, make any warranty, nor shall be responsible for the performance or results of any work described herein, nor the condition of the property nor the soil upon which such work is performed. I further affirm under penalty of perjury, that the proposed work will not destroy or unreasonably interfere with any access or utility easement belonging to others and located on my property, but in the event such work does destroy or unreasonably interfere with such easement, a substitute easement(s) satisfactory to the holder(s) of the easement will be provided (Sec. 91.0106.4.3.4 LAMC).

By signing below, I certify that:

- (1) I accept all the declarations above namely the Owner-Builder Declaration, Workers' Compensation Declaration, Asbestos Removal Declaration / Lead Hazard Warning and Final Declaration; and
- (2) This permit is being obtained with the consent of the legal owner of the property.
