Case No: ENV – 2015-2026 – EIR (SCH NO 2015101073)

Draft Environmental Impact Report Comments

Encl: Parking, Traffic & Transportation Survey of Egyptian Theatre Patrons

Dear Mr. Huerta:

The non-profit 501 C3 American Cinematheque is the property owner of the 1922 Egyptian Theatre at 6712 Hollywood Boulevard. The portion of Selma, Las Palmas and McCadden that bound the Crossroads Project is behind our business. We are writing in response to the DEIR. This project will have a serious negative impact on Los Angeles, Historic Cultural Monument #584, the Egyptian Theatre. Due to the nature of our site-specific business, we cannot move it to another area of the city.

We feel the intimate knowledge of this area that we have acquired over the course of our long-time presence in Hollywood, coupled with the various presentations on the project that we have attended, we are in a qualified position to comment on some of the issues that will directly impact our ability to conduct business in the area. Additionally we are attaching a survey of audience members on their perception of parking, traffic and safety in the immediate area surrounding the Egyptian Theatre.

This development in its current incarnation is not what this area of Hollywood needs. We have serious concerns about the lack of parking, increased congestion on the side streets of Selma, Las Palmas and McCadden, the increase in alcohol sales (related to the density of intended night life uses) and noise interruption to our business.

To elaborate, these side streets were never meant to cater to 960 temporary and permanent residents on one side of the street, ADDED to the density created by the other development projects on the opposite (north) side of Selma Avenue. This influx in population is enormous when you calculate the overall number of people who will be fighting for space in an already crowded vehicle AND pedestrian zone. Additionally, to the east there is more development in and around the side street, Selma Avenue, which will cause even more congestion.

As referenced above, we urge the city to take into consideration that there is not just the impact of this one development to consider. There are four blocks (3 which are currently already under construction) in this immediate area, that are being developed by other developers – all on this tiny little side street (Selma Avenue) that was originally developed as a street populated with bungalow residences and churches.

CEQA “requires public agencies to deny approval of a project with significant adverse effects when feasible alternatives or feasible mitigation measures can substantially lessen such effects.” As part of the environment Historic Cultural Monuments such as ours have to be considered when a project such as this goes under review. There are alternatives in the EIR that should strongly be considered. It is not in the city’s interest to have one more vacant building on Hollywood Boulevard. The future of the Egyptian Theatre depends on sensible planning.

In high tourist season, there is already a significant pedestrian “traffic jam” on Hollywood Boulevard. With all of these new developments, there will come a time, when one has to wait through a few traffic light cycles to simply WALK across the street at Hollywood and Highland. There could well be a theme park caliber line just to cross the street! Can this area really accommodate this type of density and sustain permanent residents?

PARKING:

Our business needs parking to serve our customers. This development would be an ideal place for affordable community parking like that in Pasadena and Santa Monica. The current one hour parking at the meters is not enough time to dine or attend a movie. The parking lots change their prices depending on events in the area and patrons have said they are paying between $15 and $25 to park. A year ago it was $8-10. This does not promote a healthy environment for commerce, when there is nowhere to park.

The heritage businesses on Hollywood Boulevard, as well as Sunset Boulevard, historically never had parking. But historically, there have been independent parking lots. Until now...

There were three parking lots in the McCadden/Las Palmas intersections of Selma Avenue on January 1, 2017. The lot bordering McCadden Place is now under development. The lot bordering Las Palmas on the west (behind us) is slated to go under development in the near future and the lot on the east side of Las Palmas is likely to be sold for development. Further down Selma at Schrader and Las Palmas, the parking lot near the YMCA also closed this year for undisclosed reasons. Last year we lost the parking lot at Cherokee and Selma, where an apartment building now stands. The parking lot at Hollywood and Highland is not easily accessible due to the current congestion along Highland. Many people avoid it.

None of these developments have allotted significant space for community parking. It is unclear if the Crossroads Project has even calculated enough spaces for their own needs. They seem to be banking on the fact that a large portion of their clientele will not use cars.

The parking lot directly behind us (about to be developed) has been a parking lot since 1929. Contemporary City Planners must take into consideration that when this area was developed, Los Angeles had a very comprehensive street car system with numerous arteries that blanketed the city. We have historic photos of track on the Boulevard in front of our business. Despite the very functional street cars, by at least 1929 an automobile parking lot had opened behind what was, at the time, a 1,700-seat Egyptian Theatre.

The city infamously removed that street car line in the 1950s and this action went on to create perhaps the most die-hard culture of personal automobile owners in the world. While the city can remove a city run transportation line on a whim, the city cannot eradicate a century of car culture in a city of such immense geography, all in a few short years. There has to be a plan to phase out automobile dependence, that first creates a robust underground transportation network.

We are providing you with a survey of our patrons, who voluntarily answered questions about their parking and transportation habits. It was not a surprise to us that the top concerns were inconvenient and/or available parking, the cost of parking and traffic congestion that makes it difficult to get into the area surrounding the Egyptian Theatre.

We have many long-time patrons who are now quite elderly. It saddens us that the Hollywood area has become increasingly unfriendly to elderly and disabled patrons who will stop coming to the theatre, when they can't park behind the theatre and easily enter through the back. We also have employees with mobility issues.

If the city is to greenlight a mega-development, it seems only logical to provide community benefits such as parking. This development is ideally located in an area that can service this section of the Boulevard.

TRAFFIC CONGESTION:

Hollywood area businesses already hear complaints from customers who experience significant delays due to traffic backed up on Highland, Selma and Las Palmas on Hollywood Bowl nights or when there is a movie premiere at the Chinese Theatre or even the Cinerama Dome on Sunset. The traffic patterns are all interconnected for several miles around as this DEIR indicates. Ask anyone who has attempted to get somewhere during the Hollywood Christmas Parade (we now close on this day as it isn't even possible to enter the Egyptian on foot from a reasonable vantage point) how difficult it is. The street closures are frequent, but we as a community roll with it, because it is temporary and it is tradition (premieres, parade). 365 days a year of bottleneck traffic is not tolerable.

The existing traffic on a normal day or night, can make it possible for our employees to wait about ten minutes just to turn left into the surface parking lot that our staff members currently use on Las Palmas. Las Palmas is already being utilized as a major thoroughfare, because Highland is so congested. The developer cites 22 intersections that this project will impact and most of them already have an F rating. It doesn't help that large construction vehicles are also currently clogging up these side streets as they service all the development that is happening simultaneously in the area.

We hear our audience complain about this all the time. The hassle to get into the area and to find parking adds a significant amount of time onto their attempts to visit to the Egyptian. One regular patron even says he leaves home three hours early to reach the Egyptian, so he has time to deal with all of the potential obstacles (traffic, difficult parking), and he doesn't arrive late to a show. A visit to the Egyptian Theatre, especially when we have a filmmaker in person, is such a coveted experience, people make a great effort to get to the theatre. But we fear that not enough people will make such a valiant effort to get there, down the line.

NOISE & VANDALISM:

Blessed Sacrament Church, Crossroads of the World, the Baptist Church, the Scientology building in the former Christy Hotel building on Hollywood Boulevard and the complex of three garden apartment buildings off Selma - have been our neighbors for decades. We could not ask for better neighbors.

We have not been so lucky with the clubs on Las Palmas. These clubs, like the Las Vegas style hotel with 22 liquor licenses (as planned) and 6 live performance permits, will bring in more of an element that isn't good for Hollywood. The people who come into Hollywood for a "good time" are the ones that break bottles in the parking lot, come onto our property to urinate, vandalize our property with graffiti, leave garbage, heckle our patrons and vomit outside their cars (yes, they DO DRIVE TO HOLLYWOOD – we can vouch for that). There are also loud fights in the street on occasion, but everyone knows that there are not enough police officers available in Hollywood, so no one bothers to call 911 over these types of annoyances.

The focus of the "Crossroads Project," hotel, which has been described as Las Vegas style entertainment, will greatly increase alcohol and drug impaired judgement induced vandalism and other crimes. The increased noise from music and "partiers" will be heard through the walls of our theatre, thus interrupting our business, which, obviously depends on the audience being able to hear the soundtrack of the movie. We pity the people who buy or rent in this building. How long will they be able to stand living on the "Vegas Strip in L.A.?"

We have recently been getting increased reports from our patrons about night club goers standing in the street and blocking automobile exits on Las Palmas so that our patrons can't get in or out of the parking lot. The club security isn't managing the crowds in an appropriate manner. This type of activity will only worsen with even larger night clubs drawing a similar demographic of "party animals" into the area. If these venues can hold one thousand people instead of a few hundred, crowd control becomes a much more demanding situation.

Noise from a rooftop bar atop the planned development will clearly carry into our theatre. Especially music with a throbbing bass line. The recent Brazilian Festival Parade that went down McCadden, which is normally a quiet street, could be heard loud and clear in our auditorium during a screening. Ironically, we were showing a silent film.

Our business depends on being able to show a film that our audience can hear.

WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT HOLLYWOOD:

We have observed people who likely haven't set foot in Hollywood in 25 years, conjecture on social media that the area is derelict, blighted, full of prostitutes and drug dealers, not to mention tons of homeless people. This is not true. Prostitution went online 20 years ago. We have not seen a prostitute around here in decades. Because of the churches and the apartment residences, on a night that the clubs aren't going strong, Selma Avenue is a quiet street. We do acknowledge that a homeless encampment like we had never seen in the nearly 20 years since we re-opened the Egyptian Theatre, appeared some time in 2016 as if someone had paid them to suddenly appear. We had never had a homeless encampment on Selma Avenue, ever.

We certainly do miss the Community Redevelopment Agency.

As business owners who have worked in Hollywood for over 30 years, we have seen the failure of mega-developments such as The Galaxy and the Hollywood and Highland Project, which do not serve the needs of residents/locals, are difficult to navigate, not easily accessible to the disabled and elderly and generic in their variety of shopping and dining opportunities (if you are able to find your way inside or get upstairs).

H&H was supposed to be the great hope to bring people into the area, who would allegedly patronize our business. It opened not long after we unveiled our $13 million adaptive re-use of the Egyptian Theatre. It did not deliver.

Ultimately, what brought people into the area to patronize our business was our own hard work. Although there are plenty of tourists who come seeking historic L.A., our clientele is largely local. And when we say local, we cast the net pretty wide. We attract people from as far away as San Bernadino and Riverside, Orange County, Santa Barbara, San Diego and everywhere in between. Many of these patrons need to drive cars to get to the theatre. They need to park them somewhere. It is not practical to take public transportation when you have a two hour drive home and the film ends at midnight.

We offer a unique and authentic experience in perfect alignment with the story of the history of Hollywood, that the Boulevard is trying to tell (despite its many obstacles). We have worked tirelessly to attract an audience to view movies on the big screen. We successfully weathered the mobile media viewing revolution of the past decade and still manage to attract 300 - 600 people a night to watch films as they were originally seen in our landmark theater – a theatre which holds the distinction of being the location of the first Hollywood movie premiere (October 18, 1922) ever! Now we risk losing the audience our heritage business has worked so hard to attract since we re-opened the theatre on December 4, 1998.

This theatre is the longest continuously running movie theatre in Hollywood. We have been on the Boulevard for nearly 95 years. We attract people from out of state or even the country, who fly in for specific film festivals. Our theatre is an icon of Hollywood.

Based on feedback from our audience members and our eyewitness-based knowledge of the realities of what goes on in Hollywood, we know that Hollywood does not need a Las Vegas caliber hotel in a neighborhood bustling with students from five schools. We do not need 30 story skyscrapers that are more than double the height of any other building in the neighborhood – especially, knowing that our theatre (adjacent to the planned towers) incurred significant damage in the 1994 earthquake. In an earthquake, it is conceivable that these towers could fall and damage the 1922 Egyptian Theatre, as well as the equally historically significant Crossroads of the World (also, an Historic Cultural Monument).

What we need in Hollywood is affordable public parking for visitors to Hollywood Boulevard and stable residences that will help this area to become a cohesive neighborhood. When people put down roots, they invest in their community and take pride in it and that makes a world of difference. We want to be the community's local theatre. We want long term residents in the neighborhood, whose children grow up attending programs at the Egyptian Theatre, as the residents do in the neighborhood surrounding our Aero Theatre in Santa Monica. The garden apartments on Selma and Las Palmas are the type of the housing that families can make a home in. The lovely gardens give children a place to play. Perhaps some additional courtyard apartments in a more human scale would be a more appropriate use of the land in this area. Hollywood is severely lacking greenspace.

Although we understand that the city is trying to transition away from the personal automobile as the primary means of transportation in Los Angeles, the concept that a century of car culture will disappear in the next few years, or that people will be able to get everywhere they need to go in a city this large, with existing, inadequate public transportation, is unrealistic. The promise of Harridge Development to buy the city a new bus is not going to mitigate traffic problems.

Thank you for offering us the opportunity to comment on this DEIR. This project needs to be re-thought to appropriately serve the community. It is a great responsibility to develop this sensitive area which is a major thoroughfare to the 101 freeway and into the Valley, but also an area that is growing more residential by the day. There are ways to accomplish two goals: Providing tourists much more of a positive Hollywood experience and giving locals the ability to enjoy Hollywood, a precious heritage site that attracts people from all over the world.

We want to see what happens in Las Vegas stay in Las Vegas. We don't need to duplicate it in Hollywood.

Sincerely,

Barbara Smith

Perhaps some additional courtyard apartments in a more human scale would be a more appropriate use of the land in this area. Hollywood is severely lacking greenspace.

Although we understand that the city is trying to transition away from the personal automobile as the primary means of transportation in Los Angeles, the concept that a century of car culture will disappear in the next few years, or that people will be able to get everywhere they need to go in a city this large, with existing, inadequate public transportation, is unrealistic. The promise of Harridge Development to buy the city a new bus is not going to mitigate traffic problems.

Thank you for offering us the opportunity to comment on this DEIR. This project needs to be re-thought to appropriately serve the community. It is a great responsibility to develop this sensitive area which is a major thoroughfare to the 101 freeway and into the Valley, but also an area that is growing more residential by the day. There are ways to accomplish two goals: Providing tourists much more of a positive Hollywood experience and giving locals the ability to enjoy Hollywood, a precious heritage site that attracts people from all over the world.

We want to see what happens in Las Vegas stay in Las Vegas. We don't need to duplicate it in Hollywood.

Sincerely,

5	* Parking is currently ok for me since I can now park at the Magic Castle (as long as also I dress up to go the Egyptian) - but parking would be a nightmare for me if I didn't have that option.	7/22/2017 3:18 PM
6	Trying to find parking.	7/22/2017 3:13 PM

8	No, I want to attend and watch movies there but coming from Orange County, traffic is a factor.	7/21/2017 10:21 PM
9	Parking's just such a headache. It's the ONLY problem but it's a big one for me.	7/21/2017 11:05 AM
10	I can't stand Hollywood	7/21/2017 10:16 AM
11	Cost in general, your prices are fair	7/21/2017 10:11 AM
12	Sadly, I would also have to say that decreasing theatre conditions are becoming a deterrent. In the last year, I've witnessed projectors breaking down, lights not being operated properly, PA system failures, lackluster concessions (especially given the prices) and increasingly poor restroom conditions.	7/20/2017 4:10 PM
13	Living on the westside, it has to be weekends only. And then it is difficult to schedule due to the amount of time it takes to drive and park to get there.	7/20/2017 2:16 PM
14	Ticket prices are fine for the most part, but $15 a ticket and no double features for the recent 70mm fest kept me away.	7/20/2017 12:15 PM
15	Programming at Egyptian was much better before the Aero.	7/20/2017 11:40 AM

17	General scuzziness of neighborhood	7/20/2017 10:07 AM
18	I live in West Hollywood and find the price of parking in Hollywood to high and walking around doesn't make me feel the most comfortable (and I genuinely visit events in DTLA once or more a month and have a better experience then ever going to Hollywood) Love American Cinematheque and enjoy the Aero Theater very much	7/20/2017 9:43 AM
19	Public transport can be very time consuming. Also don't go out much at night in general.	7/20/2017 9:11 AM
20	No GOOD reasons - I just keep forgetting to check the schedule!	7/20/2017 8:44 AM

22	I just don't see a lot of movies in movie theaters.	7/20/2017 12:54 AM
23	My mom is had difficulty walking and climbing steps. Parking far away compounds the problem.	7/19/2017 11:58 PM

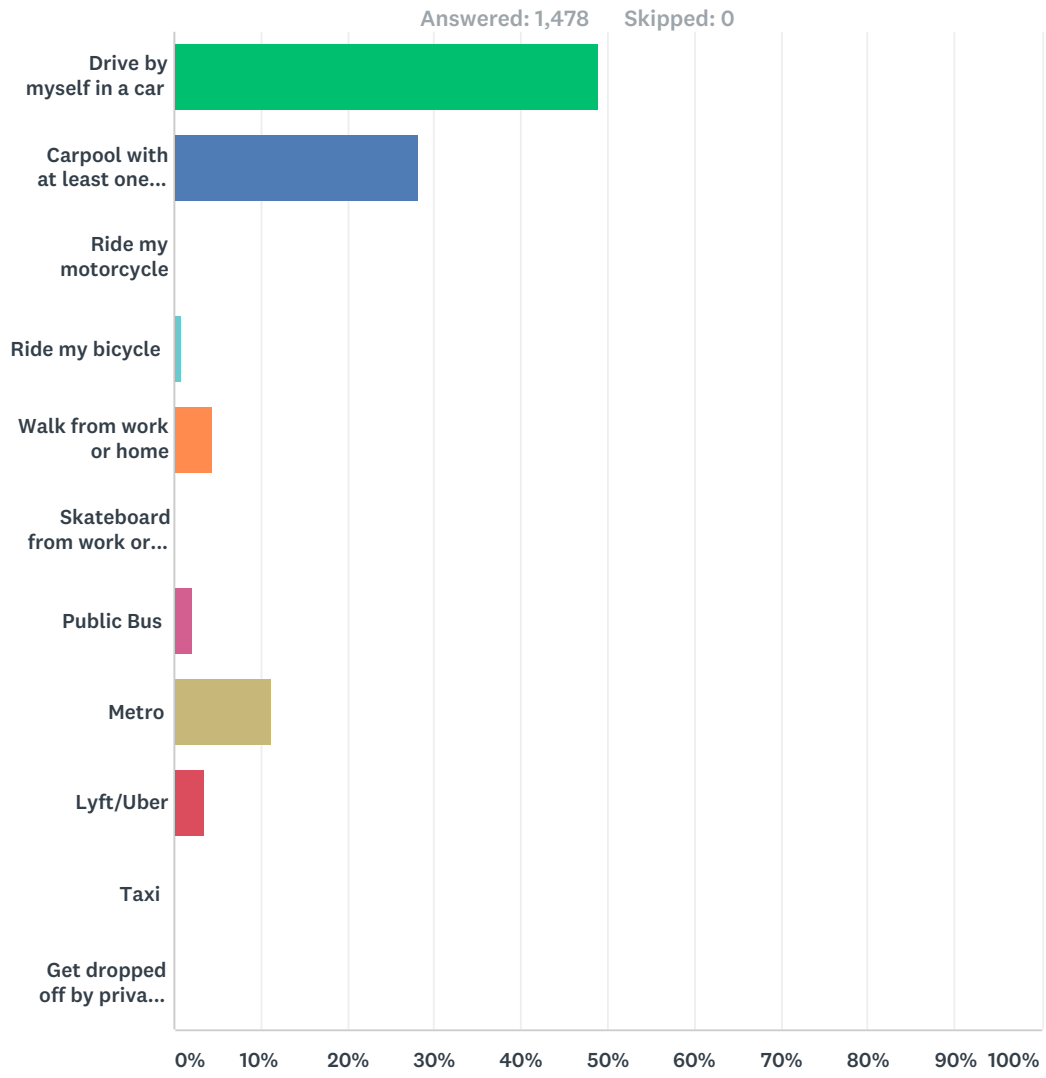

24	Metro now charging 3 bucks to park, this makes the train not a convenience anymore as parking is almost the same as public transportation now.	7/19/2017 9:03 PM
25	No places to eat after a film!	7/19/2017 9:01 PM
26	The Hollywood area is pretty grungy and sometimes I don't feel like being in that environment.	7/19/2017 8:30 PM
27	HOLLYWOOD is an unfortunate pool of filth. I come for the history, even though the City seems to care little for parking for tourists	7/19/2017 8:13 PM
28	iam in between jobs.	7/19/2017 7:35 PM
29	Movies usually start too early during the week for me to make it.	7/19/2017 7:31 PM
30	If movies started at 8 I would see more.	7/19/2017 6:30 PM
31	I live in Venice, so to get to Hollywood in the evening means I leave my house at 2:00 pm	7/19/2017 6:16 PM
32	My wife and I always attend the New Argentine Film Festival. We were afraid and concerned for our safety. There were many homeless people that have sent up camp in front of your parking area (down the street from Miceli's Italian Restaurant) in 2017. This was not there in 2016 and prior years.	7/19/2017 4:44 PM
33	Foot traffic in Hollywood	7/19/2017 4:32 PM
34	Cost of Concessions, Events & Screenings should include complimentary concessions & parking	7/19/2017 4:29 PM
35	No reserved seating, which means I have to arrive earlier than I would like to ensure I get a good seat.	7/19/2017 3:08 PM
36	Some movie programs I have been to in the past had long lines to get in.	7/19/2017 3:05 PM
37	People talking during movies and using their phones.	7/19/2017 2:55 PM
38	More film noir and classic movies.	7/19/2017 2:53 PM
39	I could handle the traffic (as is, NOT if it gets any worse) but combined with cost of parking, no can do. However, even if I could afford the parking, should traffic increase, that would keep me at home.)	7/19/2017 2:53 PM
40	The parking lot behind the Egyptian is NOT for the theater? What?! And no discount for seeing a movie there either. The other nearby parking lot closes too close to the end of a movie sometimes.	7/19/2017 2:49 PM
41	There are many programs that interest me! So frustrating!	7/19/2017 2:49 PM
42	I'm disabled, so I have to use one of the parking lots unless I happen to find street parking. I have to factor the cost of parking into my experience, but I still come to the Egyptian because of the programming. I also have more trouble at this theater because of my disability (it's the seats, mainly), but I will brave them for a good movie. I am very concerned, honestly, that you want to shut down the lots that are there for American Cinémathèque. Unless I can park in the one attached to the theater, there is an issue with the parking cost of the lot across the street - $20 for cinema parking is unconscionable - but, begrudgingly, I will still pay it depending on the program; it seems there are enough people paying the exorbitant price for them to not notice how it gouges movie goers. But, if there was no parking available at all, I would not be able to come. Street parking in the area is nearly impossible, and if I had to walk any farther than one of those lots, I would not be able to go to the Egyptian at all. An Uber each way from my place is $30-40, which is even worse than the most expensive parking, obviously.	7/19/2017 2:48 PM
43	I live in NYC - but BELIEVE in you (wish I could see more)	7/19/2017 2:48 PM
44	Too many other cultural opportunities in LA	7/19/2017 2:30 PM
45	1) I live in San Diego weedays, Alhambra weekends, 2) see new movies for $5 on Sunday (new tickets, even matinee are so expensive otherwise), 3) go mostly to Alhmabra movie theaters, Pasadena for special movies (ex Food Evolution), Burbank AMC so other locations are inconvenient, 4) parking in Hollywood is an issue, 5) I would have to know about a special movie I'd want to see on big screen to go to Egyptian (Lawrence of Arabia, Casablanca, classic type of things).	7/19/2017 2:24 PM
46	I end up taking the bus which is slow with long wait times	7/19/2017 2:20 PM

47	I don't have a car and most of the programs end too late for me to safely take public transportation home to the West San Fernando Valley. If more matinee programs that interest me were offered, perhaps on weekends, I would go a lot more.	7/19/2017 2:18 PM
48	Work time sometimes conflict with showing times.	7/19/2017 1:57 PM
49	Late showtimes. 7:30pm starts with double features on Sun-Thur means coming home pretty late with work the next day.	7/19/2017 1:48 PM
50	Distance, I live about 50 miles from the theater.	7/19/2017 1:23 PM
51	These are things that have kept me from attending until now.	7/19/2017 1:07 PM
52	Movie tickets are priced great. Sadly, parking costs MORE THAN THE MOVIE. Also, a couple of times I have almost missed start of movie going those final few blocks to the theater. The congestion is ABSURD.	7/19/2017 1:01 PM
53	Crowds and personal safety	7/19/2017 12:58 PM
54	busy schedule and service opportunities elsewhere in Hollywood	7/19/2017 12:52 PM
55	I live in Orange County, if I was in LA I would go weekly	7/19/2017 12:39 PM
56	I live on the westside	7/19/2017 12:30 PM
57	Valet parking for clubs use up much of the metered parking. Parking in meters is only an hour and goes until 8PM. Movies start at 7:30, so you have to make sure you park after 7 to insure you do not get a ticket. I am not saying I want movis to start sooner. I want metered parking to end at 7 like it used to.	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
58	I Love Hollywood! However, the constant chatter in my ear (being hassled) by the street guys that sell tourist attractions; ditto for the store sales staff who hang on the street that are at the same level of the tourist organizers is exhausting. I would like to be able to walk from the car or metro station without being hassled, which is different than a friendly smile or polite salutation.	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
59	Also the bad element that Sadie restaurant brings to the parking area on las palmas	7/19/2017 12:17 PM
60	I live far from Hollywood now, so the only time I could attend a screening is on the weekends.	7/19/2017 12:14 PM
61	Translating the desire to see a film after looking at the long-lead calendar into action later is tricky. Too many steps to get tickets in an era where the instant buy is an option in most every other venue.	7/19/2017 12:07 PM
62	I only pay your general admission price for double or triple features. Not single showings. Except for some Epics in 70mm, like BARAKA !	7/19/2017 12:05 PM
63	Repertory screenings at other venues (such as Arclight) offer competition that did not exist when I first started coming to the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 12:00 PM
64	General indecisiveness	7/19/2017 11:59 AM
65	I can't emphasize enough how sad I find it that Hollywood is such a filthy, crime-stained community. There are programs to which I won't invite certain friends because I find that part of town so dangerous and disgusting.	7/19/2017 11:56 AM
66	Life	7/19/2017 11:55 AM
67	Cinematheque mailer always arrives halfway through month so I miss half the showings.	7/19/2017 11:52 AM
68	So many distractions. I used to be a member, but now that I'm retired I don't have the extra money. When I was a member, I was more aware of the movies being shown. But the movies themselves are reasonably priced.	7/19/2017 11:51 AM
69	However I have to leave with at least 2 hours in advance to find parking	7/19/2017 11:48 AM
70	From the start of the Cinematheque at the Egyptian till the mid-00's I came there from Santa Monica several time a month; then came financial problems, but ALSO the bus routes changed to make it much harder to get there, and the street parking restrictions changed to make it impossible to park on the street for long shows.	7/19/2017 11:48 AM
71	lack of programs that interest me enough to drive 40 miles	7/19/2017 11:48 AM
72	Most of your films have a late start, especially Sunday and weekday, and I have to work the next day	7/19/2017 11:45 AM

73	Cost of parking near the "Egyptian" went from 10.00 to 15.00	7/19/2017 11:43 AM
74	I can take the train, but it still takes more than 1 hr	7/19/2017 11:39 AM
75	I see many movies at different venues, all about scheduling	7/19/2017 11:39 AM
76	I live 35 miles away	7/19/2017 11:29 AM
77	I am a long-time resident of Hollywood, and I am also a major cinema fan. The American Cinematique at the Egyptian Theater is a true treasure. I do my best to see films there, every 3-4 months, schedule permitting. The theater admissions are reasonable, especially knowing that those admissions help to keep this landmark showplace and wonderful organization solvent. Now, parking in Hollywood is another story completely. At night, the area is not very safe. It's actually scary. I could park in the neighborhoods, but I chance a mugging or worse. This is a main reason why I don't go to movies in Hollywood often. As for the parking near the Egyptian theater. IF these monstrous buildings go up, then the developers MUST give plenty of free with validation parking to those visiting American Cinematique. Frankly, I am opposed to the development at the current size; however, saving classic Art Deco structures and ease of parking is paramount. I would gladly sign any petition mandating such requirements. I am reside in LA City proper, on the border of West Hollywood, for decades.	7/19/2017 11:28 AM
78	I like Film Noir type movies.	7/19/2017 11:26 AM
79	not worth the traffic and hassle to go there unless its a planned group event	7/19/2017 11:19 AM
80	I also live closer to the Aero.	7/19/2017 11:15 AM
81	Work is definitely the biggest factor or I'd be there all the time, but all the nearby parking is so expensive that makes it tough to go more often than I would as well.	7/19/2017 11:14 AM
82	it's gotten so bad i don't even bother to look at the egyptian schedule.	7/19/2017 11:13 AM
83	Parking for my handicapped van is particularly bad.	7/19/2017 11:09 AM
84	I live in West L.A. near the Westside Pavilion and I know that because of traffic it will reliably take me one full hour to reach the Egyptian and find parking, even though it's not that far away geographically. If there is something playing at the Aero, the Landmark or New Bev which holds comparable appeal on any given night, the Egyptian screening goes to the bottom of the list.	7/19/2017 11:08 AM
85	I will go to theaters closer to me	7/19/2017 11:04 AM
86	I can't tolerate the drive from the west side to Hollywood. I am willing to take the metro; however, the schedule is unpredictable.	7/19/2017 11:00 AM
87	scheduling conflicts	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
88	Finding people to go with.	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
89	I used to go much more often when the meters on Highland were free after 7 p.m. Extending them to 8 p.m. made it less attractive to put up with the traffic and then have to pay parking as well :(7/19/2017 10:50 AM
90	I take the Metro because of the traffic in Hollywood/to & from where I am, inconvenience/cost of parking	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
91	Most programming starts before I can get there from work.	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
92	Given the success of the Film Noir Festival, I wish you would program more film noirs at the Aero Theater. Have a Film Noir night once a month. I know you're having the Duryea night at the Aero Thursday, which is great. But how about programming a Film Noir night once a month at the Aero? People on the Westside love Film Noirs too. Thank you!	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
93	Uncomfortable seating that can be difficult to access with disabilities	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
94	I choose movies depending on what I want to see the most and whether someone involved in the film will be attending.	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
95	Years ago, I would attend the Egyptian weekly. Now I go basically once a year, for Film Noir in April. Almost everything is on TCM now, so there's no need.	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
96	Would take Metro Red Line but can't park economically near its western terminus; Metro rapid bus is not dependable (headways not managed) and SO crowded	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
97	conflicts with other theater programming	7/19/2017 10:27 AM

98	early start times relative to getting off of work	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
99	lack of mass transit options from south bay	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
100	Usually not aware of the programming I'd like to see until it's too late.	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
101	But I combat all the above if the program really grabs me! I've been in the film biz my entire life,, so I've already seen a lot of the films; still, I come when I can	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
102	I have a disabled placard, without the COST of parking would be a big factor	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
103	It's really a time and aggravation versus pleasure of the film. We need parking structures and street cars that fill in the gaps of the metro. LA is behind the curve. We have great entertainment venues but we've built walls of traffic around them.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
104	Hollywood is a dump. It needs to be made into a destination that doesn't feel like the Vegas Strip. It should have more open areas (like the Egyptian) that doesn't smell like pee and have homeless people in costumes attacking you. I love what the Egyptian does I just try to avoid that area for peace of mind.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
105	7:30 start times are difficult for me to get to from work. 8:30 start times open up a world of addt evening possibilities for me.	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
106	More weekend screenings compared to weekday screenings	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
107	I haven't been to Hollywood at all in years because of the traffic	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
108	I wish the Egyptian scheduled more movies during the week. I'm usually only available to see movies on weeknights, but Thursday night is typically the only weeknight that the Egyptian is open, so I'll often end up at the New Beverly instead just because it is open every night.	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
109	I was once followed by a sketchy man to the parking lot (that was very far away). So I try not to attend screenings alone anymore!	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
110	Same films repeated - how many times can I see 2001 + The Godfather. How about some LIFE BOAT by Hitchcock	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
111	I love the programs. Hollywood after 11 pm does make me uncomfortable (and I work there!).	7/19/2017 10:18 AM
112	I love your offerings at the Egyptian and I would love to go. Besides traffic,myMy other problem is evening showtimes. Evening traffic plus trouble staying alert to drive and watch movies = deterrent.	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
113	uncomfortable seating	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
114	I want to get there more often!!!	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
115	No assigned seating...people have to line up hours before for some movies just to be able to sit together with the people they come from. Sometimes with work it gets stressful to leave early to be there ontime just to get a good seat.	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
116	I hate going to Hollywood, and I'm not far (Echo Park). The crowds, the traffic, it's unbearable. Rather watch the movie at home at that point.	7/19/2017 10:08 AM
117	There is so much competing for my attention in LA.	7/19/2017 10:07 AM

19	The reason I don't drive there is, just like the rest of Hollywood, there isn't any place to park, so I take the bus, which crawls on the Blvd . on weekends. I take the bus to work for the same reason, but some mornings it takes 35 or more min to get thru traffic from Western to Highland via Hollywood Blvd. Via Sunset isn't any better.	7/19/2017 11:55 AM

51	I look for meters that are free after 8pm. Parking is too expensive in Hollywood, enough to drive me and friends to other Hollywood/Los Feliz theatres in areas where we can still park on the street or for a minimal price in a lot. Parking behind the Egyptian is now $15.00, more than the price of the movie. That's a non-starter!	7/19/2017 12:26 PM

66	Should be able to click on more Then one box!!!	7/19/2017 11:10 AM
67	I've been going to the Egyptian since 2000 and I have completely given up on finding metered parking in the immediate vicinity. As Hollywood Blvd. has gentrified further East, bringing more tourists, and the city has restricted parking more and more, it's nearly impossible to find an available space that will accommodate the kind of multi-hour parking needed for a trip to the movies. I now head straight to Sunset and park there (it is unrestricted after 7:00 P.M.) and walk to the theatre from there. It's a seven or eight minute walk, but I am no longer wasting time driving around looking for a space nearer the theatre, so it's a better option.	7/19/2017 11:08 AM

15	I live 3 miles from the Egyptian but need 30 + minutes to get through traffic find parking, walk, etc. I can drive 5 - 7 miles, zip into street parking and be at the theatre in far less than 30 minutes.	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
16	75 minutes (60 minutes to drive and 15 to find parking and enter the courtyard); once it took me 2 hours to get there on a Wed. night and my friend took 3 hours that night to get there	7/19/2017 12:13 PM

1	Every day I drive there I must now drive around for parking almost the same amount of time as it took me to get there just to find pushing	7/24/2017 12:07 PM
2	Almost. When the event night fell on the night of another major event. Traffic was backed up through all the freeways and the streets of hollywood and there was hardly any parking available. I left my home 4 hours early and had to run down the street to get there 10 minutes before showtime.	7/23/2017 4:09 PM
3	Sometimes, when work cuts into my travel time, I think about the pain it is to park around there and just don't go.	7/23/2017 2:52 PM
4	I've come close! Especially with the homeless/substance abuser/mentally ill situation....	7/23/2017 12:50 PM
5	I always arrive very early.	7/23/2017 10:40 AM
6	I've never actually turned around and gone home but it's always in the back of my head until I'm finally parked.	7/22/2017 3:18 PM
7	This hasn't happened to me, but I've often decided not to attend a show at the Egyptian because of parking/traffic/commute issues.	7/21/2017 4:14 PM
8	I have come really really close a couple times.	7/21/2017 3:04 PM
9	No, but I came close on my last visit (July 19th, 2017), which is saying something, as I commute into the city from about 80 miles away.	7/20/2017 4:10 PM

10	I've given up looking for a spot, and pulled into a lot, but the prices are now too high.	7/20/2017 4:05 PM
11	I haven't gone home but I would have if I wasn't meeting people for the movie.	7/20/2017 12:43 PM
12	That march a few weeks ago tied up the whole area!	7/20/2017 9:11 AM
13	I honestly can't remember. Maybe. It wouldn't surprise me if I have.	7/20/2017 12:54 AM
14	I will pay to park in a lot if I can't find anything else	7/20/2017 12:38 AM
15	Traffic near the Bowl is sometimes so congested that I turn around.	7/19/2017 11:51 PM
16	If I have to drive an hour or more to see a movie, by hook or by crook, I'll find somewhere to park and make it to the theatre! Going home is not an option.	7/19/2017 9:32 PM
17	This is why I started to take the Metro five years ago.	7/19/2017 9:03 PM
18	I drove on Monday July 17, paid 15 dollars for parking, and could not attend the movie.Theatre full	7/19/2017 8:49 PM
19	I struggle to find parking	7/19/2017 8:33 PM
20	I often leave enough time to factor in options.	7/19/2017 8:23 PM
21	yet....	7/19/2017 8:19 PM
22	Kind of a dumb question. Anyone in LA is going to drive One hour to get here. And there are many options to park, just not al that friendly cash wise.	7/19/2017 8:13 PM
23	I leave home 3 hours before required arrival time, to ensure it does not happen...	7/19/2017 3:23 PM
24	No, because I won't go to the Egyptian Theatre because of the traffic and commute	7/19/2017 3:17 PM
25	No but that's because the last time I was forced to pay for parking, I said that would be my last trip to Hollywood	7/19/2017 2:53 PM
26	It happens sometimes.	7/19/2017 2:49 PM
27	No, but I was upset to go in late	7/19/2017 2:32 PM
28	I've been sorely tempted but persisted and simply ended up walking about 15 minutes to get to the theater from my parking spot.	7/19/2017 2:30 PM
29	not had the chance to see	7/19/2017 2:24 PM
30	I work in Westwood but live in Altadena so I have come there, found parking to be a major hassle and continued on home, yes.	7/19/2017 2:18 PM
31	No, but it is a hassle	7/19/2017 2:16 PM
32	Beuase usually I am meeting friends to see something special	7/19/2017 2:05 PM
33	This has happened to a friend.	7/19/2017 1:34 PM
34	This hasn't happened, but I had that in mind as an option when I came down before.	7/19/2017 1:07 PM
35	My most recent even there (Stop Making Sense) almost had that result. I only continued because I bought the tickets online. I was really irritated that I paid and then almost missed the beginning. Fortunately, the Egyptian is awesome. They started the movie a bit later. I think they knew we were out there STUCK.	7/19/2017 1:01 PM
36	Never happened, although I could see how it could.	7/19/2017 12:58 PM
37	no	7/19/2017 12:52 PM
38	After taking up to an hour to get there in traffic there is no way I'm going to turn around and go home. I usually end up paying for parking somewhere.	7/19/2017 12:28 PM
39	Not frequently bot more than once.	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
40	Never	7/19/2017 12:17 PM
41	I have missed the beginnings of several movies due to difficulty finding parking	7/19/2017 12:14 PM
42	No, but I have driven only to find screenings sold-out. Thus making me wary of going.	7/19/2017 12:11 PM
43	I just go to the movie late and miss some classic previews.	7/19/2017 11:59 AM

44	No... we wouldn't want to forfeit the tickets but we've almost missed the programming due to the bad parking.	7/19/2017 11:56 AM
45	Yes, that's why I quit driving to anywhere in Hollywood.	7/19/2017 11:55 AM
46	if I have tickets I won't turn around	7/19/2017 11:52 AM
47	Never. If I go to the Egyptian it's usually a great event that I will not miss	7/19/2017 11:52 AM
48	We didn't actually turn around but came very close to it	7/19/2017 11:34 AM
49	more than once, less than five	7/19/2017 11:33 AM
50	If I get to Hollywood I'm not going to give up	7/19/2017 11:28 AM
51	Since I know the "secret spots," it's not a problem. For tourists or those not familiar with the area, that would be a problem.	7/19/2017 11:28 AM
52	No, but I've come close when the parking rates at the lots have been hiked to $20 (as happens when events go on)	7/19/2017 11:17 AM
53	I have not gone to the theatre because I didn't feel like dealing with parking or paying 20 dollars or more to park.	7/19/2017 11:17 AM
54	If I must, I'll park underground at Hollywood & Highland Mall.	7/19/2017 11:16 AM
55	I have been tempted!	7/19/2017 11:15 AM
56	I've been frustrated but I'd never miss Egyptian programming	7/19/2017 11:13 AM
57	I have very nearly given up in frustration.	7/19/2017 11:13 AM
58	Though on more than occasion I have considered it.	7/19/2017 11:08 AM
59	I do not come frequently	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
60	Almost! I allow a set amount of time before I give in and go to an expensive paid lot	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
61	I had hard time finding parking, but I would not go back home	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
62	Sometimes the lots have been full during the Film Noir Festival and as a result I have entered the theater after 7:30. On those nights I have been grateful for the sometimes long-winded introductions. Also on those nights I don't have scenes spoiled for me, which sometimes also happens in the aforementioned introductions. "Watch for the scene near the end where...." etc.	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
63	There's usually the H&H parking option but sometimes it'll take so long to accomplish due to pedestrians and traffic, I give up and go home.	7/19/2017 10:32 AM
64	More that the traffic to the theater proves to be a deterrent and I don't arrive or want to deal with it at all. Especially if I'm coming from below Sunset. Too crazy. Like crossing the River Hades. .	7/19/2017 10:32 AM
65	Have almost given up -- and have been late for program, looking for cheaper parking	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
66	too far of a drive to ever turn around and to home	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
67	One time only	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
68	However I have been towed due to very confusing parking restrictions which seem to vary by day, time of year, etc	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
69	If I take the time to drive to the Egyptian, I will stay until I find parking	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
70	Drove around a LONG time and found a park	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
71	I've had issues, definitely, but I've never wanted to waste my ticket/money.	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
72	Life in general - yes	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
73	This always happens to at least one friend when going in a group to see movies or seminars at the Egyptian	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
74	But have thought about it more than once.	7/19/2017 10:10 AM
75	no	7/19/2017 10:09 AM

6	I plan accordingly.	7/22/2017 6:07 PM
7	I try to make it if I can regardless of traffic.	7/21/2017 10:21 PM
8	I should note that it was gridlock Hollywood traffic that made me give up driving to ANYTHING in Hollywood, and take the metro.	7/21/2017 3:05 PM
9	No, but sometimes I'm late or else really mad that the traffic's so awful. 101 and Highland are a mess coming from Chatsworth..	7/20/2017 8:50 PM
10	See my answer for #9. I nearly did this on July 19th, 2017.	7/20/2017 4:10 PM

30	But I don't go to the Egyptian because of the traffic and long commute to get there.	7/19/2017 3:17 PM

32	I also had to go home once because I couldn't find sufficient parking. I also almost never come on Saturday for this reason.	7/19/2017 2:48 PM
33	I brave it out even when there is gridlock and mostly take buses	7/19/2017 2:46 PM
34	Once I just decided to not even try so it was even before turning around	7/19/2017 2:32 PM

58	Turning around leads to more traffic	7/19/2017 11:37 AM
59	Same comment as above	7/19/2017 11:28 AM
60	Yes, this does happen, especially with frequent movie premieres on Hollywood Blvd, and the crowds during the summer. I pretty much avoid new release movies in Hollywood, going to the Grove, or I drive out to Burbank (where I also do shopping while in that area).	7/19/2017 11:28 AM
61	An unfortunate reality of life in LA.	7/19/2017 11:26 AM
62	Actually, when I see a film is interested in is at the Egyptian I tend to just say forget it due to traffic.	7/19/2017 11:20 AM

68	I have experienced that kind of grid-lock while en route to the Egyptian and considered abandoning the outing, but have soldiered on but have sometimes missed the opening minutes of a given film.	7/19/2017 11:08 AM
69	Very close to leaving due to traffic. Try to leave home very early to beat gridlock	7/19/2017 11:06 AM
70	As stated a moment ago I've just recently started taking metro because of the constant heavy traffic and hard to find parking or the high price for parking	7/19/2017 10:59 AM
71	Traffic I get. Parking is the issue	7/19/2017 10:59 AM
72	I think about turning around but I usually do not	7/19/2017 10:55 AM
73	However, depending of the time of day, the gridlock coming up on Highland Ave going North is almost unbearable.	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
74	but I NEVER turn around, after so long it would be a waste NOT to go!	7/19/2017 10:47 AM
75	1x years ago, it took me 1 hour to get from Hollywood Bowl off ramp to Hollywood/Highland, and I vowed never to drive it again.	7/19/2017 10:43 AM

77	N/A	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
78	I've thought about it but I volunteer. During Bowl season traffic is really bad and street parking is almost impossible.	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
79	But there have been times that I was sorely tempted but then I remind myself that the cinematheque Hollywood is the happiest place on earth.	7/19/2017 10:37 AM
80	Largely because was too late for event. But usually I take Metro subway.	7/19/2017 10:35 AM

91	I live here & even I want to turn around	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
92	It was terrible but I waited it out. I'd come too far to turn back.	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
93	Not in the Hollywood area, but on my way there.	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
94	It's been bad, but we've never actually turned back	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
95	If I miss a movie time due to traffic, I won't go home, but I'll leave the Hollywood area and go to the Grove or something.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
96	I've experienced a lot of gridlock, but accommodated for it ahead of time	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
97	This only happends after the movie is over because of Hollywood Bowl Traffic	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
98	(because I live so far so I'm not going to turn around even if I want to kill myself in traffic)	7/19/2017 10:10 AM

2	Yes. Hollywood bowl event clogged up traffic to the highland offramp to hollywood and had trouble finding parking.	7/23/2017 4:09 PM
3	I'm never late haha	7/23/2017 3:08 PM
4	Especially on days where there is an event at the Hollywood Bowl	7/23/2017 11:57 AM
5	Has happened to other people though	7/22/2017 9:30 PM
6	I leave an hour early even though I live 20 mins away, just in case.	7/22/2017 3:46 PM
7	I leave 2 hours before showtime to avoid serious delays. I frequently have needed that extra hour because traffic was bad	7/22/2017 1:04 PM
8	no, if i'm late and don't go	7/21/2017 3:11 PM
9	It's never happened because as soon as I realized that I'd be late, I cut my losses and turned around and went home.	7/20/2017 11:15 PM

10	It's never happened to me yet, but did you notice a spelling mistake in your question?	7/20/2017 10:26 PM
11	I was late due to traffic. Fortunately the film started late.	7/20/2017 6:56 PM
12	I leave early	7/20/2017 6:34 PM
13	Na	7/20/2017 4:06 PM
14	I usually just decide that it isn't worth it to go at all.	7/20/2017 4:05 PM
15	Have not attended in several years, so cannot say.	7/20/2017 2:16 PM
16	No, because we gave up	7/20/2017 9:11 AM
17	I leave so early as to anticipate delays getting in. So it really cuts into my day preparing at least a 90 minuet window to arrive before the start of the program.	7/20/2017 7:51 AM
18	I never go in late	7/20/2017 7:49 AM
19	On weekends...all the time.	7/20/2017 7:25 AM
20	Because I live in the South Bay, I always arrive early early.	7/19/2017 11:12 PM
21	Again, I've only been there a handful of times. If I was late, it's because I didn't plan well.	7/19/2017 9:44 PM
22	By car	7/19/2017 9:00 PM
23	We usually come early for dinner, giving ourselves enough margin for error to make the show.	7/19/2017 8:46 PM
24	Has happened for another nearby venue.	7/19/2017 8:19 PM
25	If I'm late I usually don't go	7/19/2017 7:31 PM
26	Can't remember	7/19/2017 7:17 PM
27	No	7/19/2017 4:44 PM
28	Too much construction in the area taking away all of the good parking spots & meter maids are nazis in the area writing tickets like crazy	7/19/2017 4:29 PM
29	I always plan extra time depending time and day of film.	7/19/2017 3:33 PM
30	because I leave home 3 hours earlier than required arrival	7/19/2017 3:23 PM
31	No, because I don't even try to go to the Egyptian Theatre.	7/19/2017 3:17 PM
32	I leave SO EARLY now that this doesn't happen, but I wish I did not have to do so.	7/19/2017 3:08 PM
33	Never missed a show whether I walked, drove, or took Metro	7/19/2017 3:08 PM
34	I live in the area so know to leave plenty of time for traffic.	7/19/2017 2:55 PM
35	I always leave at least 3 hours before the show/event to buffer for traffic. I eat at Pig & Whistle if I arrive early.	7/19/2017 2:41 PM
36	haven't been to this theatre since the 80s	7/19/2017 2:24 PM
37	Often "right on time" or a few minutes late in that area, wherever I'm going	7/19/2017 2:05 PM
38	I use the OnlyInHollywood.org Traffic Alerts to know the street closures.	7/19/2017 1:28 PM
39	I leave enough time before movie start time	7/19/2017 12:54 PM
40	Uber and Driving my car	7/19/2017 12:28 PM
41	The only reason this has never happened to me is because I have to give myself so much extra time to get there because I live far away.	7/19/2017 12:28 PM
42	I've built in time when I come to the Egyptian to allow for traffic. One friend I was to meet, never made it; she was stuck in gridlock and the film had started. She turned around and went home. I do have friends who will not attempt it after work (during the week). The traffic is gnarly and dense, and they don't want to risk a possibility of not making the movie time.	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
43	As mentioned I took 2 hours one Wed. night to get there and missed the first 10 minutes of the movie. My friend took 3 hours to get there and missed half the movie.	7/19/2017 12:13 PM
44	If I'm going to the Egyptian, I leave home early.	7/19/2017 12:11 PM
45	I usually volunteer so I'm not late for the movie itself, but for the meeting time.	7/19/2017 12:05 PM

46	But I think ahead and try to leave my house early, better early than late	7/19/2017 11:52 AM
47	I check before if there's going to be a special event I don't go	7/19/2017 11:48 AM
48	Yes, this has happened. It's annoying as heck. In order to make a showtime, I have to be in the area at least 30 minutes before the start of the movie (that's a bare minimum).	7/19/2017 11:28 AM
49	I leave early from home just in case.	7/19/2017 11:26 AM
50	n/a	7/19/2017 11:19 AM
51	Car I was driving	7/19/2017 11:17 AM
52	I always plan at least 2.5 hours to drive from Orange County, sadly.	7/19/2017 11:16 AM
53	cycle	7/19/2017 11:10 AM
54	Since I don't want to be late, I give up and leave the area.	7/19/2017 11:09 AM
55	I make sure to always arrive EARLY, "just in case."	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
56	Reason: I do not visit frequently.	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
57	I knew I was running late, I should have accounted better for traffic	7/19/2017 10:45 AM
58	I leave; I won't go to a show late.	7/19/2017 10:44 AM
59	To clarify, the gridlock is a serious problem in that what should be a 45 minute to an hour drive takes much longer, and I have to leave home earlier than I would like, because the horrible traffic in Hollywood, the gridlock, and the difficulty in finding free parking and when I give up on that, the fact that sometimes the lots you have to pay for are full	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
60	N/A	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
61	In my car once I got stuck in Hollywood Bowl traffic and showed up half an hour late for the movie.	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
62	I have been late when I volunteer because of traffic	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
63	Missed tickets at least once, missed Kirk Douglas once	7/19/2017 10:34 AM
64	I will get down to the wire with my arrival time.	7/19/2017 10:32 AM
65	One time only	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
66	But the traffic issues could be on the 5, 170 or Hollywood-Highland area	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
67	Own car and Uber	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
68	i take metro (above ground) and it has affected me, albeit rarely and not by much	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
69	Not "effected," affected!	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
70	Also in Uber	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
71	Not me but it's happened to others	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
72	This happened when I was going to a live theater. The delay was so long I called the theater. They were going to hold the play til we got there, but reaffic was so bad we had to exchange our tickets for the next night.	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
73	The correct word is "affected," by the way.	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
74	I usually allow extra time for traffic and parking which is also why I only go to the Egyptian for shows I can't miss.$1	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
75	This has never happened because we leave so early	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
76	I leave a huge time buffer to deal with traffic and parking.	7/19/2017 10:13 AM
77	Gridlock yes but never last because of it	7/19/2017 10:12 AM

I would be open to paying for a meter, but the city over time has curtailed the length of a permitted stay at most of the meters PLUS extended their hours of operations so dramatically (all the way to midnight in many places), that it is not feasible to utilize such spaces for movie-going as there will be no way to abide the multiple restrictions without leaving in the theatre in the middle of a screening.	7/19/2017 11:08 AM

680	Before the development started, parking in the area from Vine to Las Palmas was $5 - $7. The lot on Selma at the church until recently was $7.00. Raising parking when an area is becoming the hotspot and attracting good restaurants is downright exploitive of the growth surrounding the area and eventually impacts an area adversely. Friends will come to a movie and then walk for dinner but not during the week due to traffic and parking prices. The area is too congested. After work, it's easier to go to areas where there's a Laemmler or one if the independents for free parking, reasonably priced lots and minimal or what is typical LA gridlock. Beverly Hills has free parking after 6pm or $5.00 lots after 5pm, smart!	7/19/2017 12:26 PM

All the Metro has to do is have a cop stand there to make sure no one hops the turnstyle and they wouldn't need to charge parking. I counted 78 people illegally hop the turnstyle in 35 minutes in North Hollywood last year. To make us pay to park is asinine for them not doing their job.	7/19/2017 9:03 PM

1	Too many cars. Services like Lyft and Uber are a way to reduce parking demand.	7/24/2017 1:36 PM
2	Construction and all the new apartment buildings: none of those people are using public transit, even though they live close to Red Line stations.	7/24/2017 12:24 PM
3	Too much construction! This city is car centric and with too much construction and not enough parking, Hollywood is so congested it's almost unlivable!	7/24/2017 12:21 PM
4	the lights are timed badly. tourist buses and tourists in general cruising rather than driving. traffic is not spread out enough onto adjacent streets. not enough parking lots, people looking for parking slow down traffic so much. And people double parking to drop people off! This upsets me all the time. Limos are the worst at this.	7/24/2017 12:11 PM
5	Hollywood bowl in the summer is to be expected, as are premieres, but recently there's the Franklin water main that burst, and the new construction that has reduced parking, plus now Las Palmas seems to be the new short cut north	7/24/2017 12:07 PM
6	Tourists and Bowl traffic	7/24/2017 11:11 AM
7	Anazing popularity of Highland shopping center, tourists, people trying to get home, people trying to get to school, people trying to get to work, mentally ill people impeding traffic, etc.	7/24/2017 10:52 AM

22	Tourism & vast amount of nightlife options.	7/23/2017 4:39 PM
23	There are too many people and not enough space. One problem is with food traffic; there are a lot of tourists trying to get down the sidewalk and now there are a lot of people setting up shop on the sidewalk taking up space so you can barely get through. We don't need people selling fidget spinners and purses on the sidewalk, we need the space to walk.	7/23/2017 4:21 PM

49	OVERDEVELOPMENT!!!!	7/22/2017 7:29 PM
50	Lack of metro system servicing along 60 FWY or connecting well with neighboring counties. (And probably Donald Trump. I don't know how, but it's probably partly his fault, too.)	7/22/2017 7:26 PM
51	Clubs and tourists. Construction	7/22/2017 6:46 PM
52	lack of good public transit options	7/22/2017 6:07 PM
53	Lots of people in a hurry, even if they have nowhere to go.	7/22/2017 4:02 PM
54	it's no secret: tourists	7/22/2017 3:46 PM
55	Foot traffic, regular traffic	7/22/2017 3:19 PM
56	The fact that our city council has now been bought and paid for by developers. The new construction and density is rapidly turning Los Angeles into a New York style city where we are being packed in like sardines over a wider geographical area. and this is BEFORE any serious workable public transportation options have come into being that can serve all points of the city. If you stop new development, and stop actively inviting others to come here (like the Olympics crowd or the impoverished populations of the Southern Hemisphere), it might start to make a positive difference over time.	7/22/2017 3:18 PM
57	Lack of parking. Too few public transportation options. Busy crosswalks.	7/22/2017 3:17 PM

62	Not enough car pools. Too many wasted trips. Too many businesses which do not organize commuting solutions for employees. Actor auditioning and parking in Hollywood causes many single driver trips that can't be remedied with car-pooling.	7/22/2017 1:04 PM
63	Confluence of freeway & major throughfares, major tourist attractions, proximity & ease of Metro, live theater, bars, restaurants, and "in"spots. Also, length & coordination of traffic signals.	7/22/2017 11:56 AM
64	poorly timed lights, poorly regulated pedestrian behavior, too many people searching for parking	7/22/2017 10:40 AM

71	Too many people,	7/22/2017 2:18 AM
72	It's a large tourist area and the congestion is expected.	7/22/2017 12:30 AM
73	There are just too many vehicles in Los Angeles. I don't think it's a problem specific to the Hollywood area only. Wherever there are too many clubs, restaurants, tourist attractions, etc., you get heavy traffic.	7/22/2017 12:07 AM
74	Is this a serious question?	7/21/2017 10:21 PM

80	Special events in front of the Pantages or Chinese, events at Hollywood Bowl. LA Marathon, street closures.	7/21/2017 5:47 PM
81	Too much development without any study of environmental impact (including traffic and parking). Over development in general with unaffordable apartments that are too expensive to actually impact LA's housing crisis. Also, the development is too concentrated thus affecting traffic and parking. Inadequate bus system to make public transportation an actual alternative.	7/21/2017 5:44 PM
82	Construction/building development in Hollywood and the surrounding area	7/21/2017 4:14 PM

85	Tourists, high concentration of destinations within a few blocks	7/21/2017 3:32 PM
86	Bad drivers, distracted drivers, disoriented drivers from out of town, drivers under the influence, and people just cruising Cars idling in active lanes to pick up or drop off passengers Rubbernecking Street closures Poorly timed stoplights Large amounts of pedestrians impeding cars from making turns onto side streets or entrances	7/21/2017 3:31 PM
87	that traffic signal at hollywood and highland	7/21/2017 3:11 PM

90	lack of reliable, efficient public transportation	7/21/2017 2:24 PM
91	too many people long construction need more left turn signals more free lots	7/21/2017 2:18 PM
92	Too many people.	7/21/2017 1:27 PM

93	Heavy flow of car and pedestrian traffic.	7/21/2017 1:12 PM
94	Too many people in L.A. have negative attitudes towards public transportation. Some refuse to take it, thinking it's only for the poor and uneducated who can't afford to drive. Slow, overcrowded buses won't help change their minds. Lyft and Uber help riders avoid the parking problem, but unfortunately create more traffic congestion.	7/21/2017 12:43 PM
95	Lots of people!	7/21/2017 12:39 PM
96	closed streets/construction	7/21/2017 11:31 AM

100	road construction seems to be the main factor as well as Hollywood Bowl performances & movie premieres	7/21/2017 10:37 AM
101	Too many people driving, and lack of participation in public transportation. Lack of police presence on public transportation to scare off the homeless and the terrifying psychopaths.	7/21/2017 10:16 AM

107	Tourism, driving culture in LA,	7/21/2017 7:32 AM
108	Over development	7/21/2017 7:20 AM
109	Too many people, especially tourists, driving around slowly and also walking around, looking at or distracted by their surroundings and stopping to take photos. The traffic slowdown on Hollywood Blvd. often feels like people are driving along as if they were back home cruising down Main Street, USA. Hollywood Blvd. often feels as though it has become Hollywood Lane.	7/21/2017 6:33 AM
110	Too many people driving in the area. Lots of tourists, etc.	7/21/2017 1:16 AM
111	Bad traffic planning and intersections. Also, bad layout foe pedestrians.	7/20/2017 11:36 PM
112	Too many people, too many cars, and not enough thought or effort on the part of transportation authorities to do anything about it (e.g., timing of lights and other traffic control methods).	7/20/2017 11:15 PM

187	Bad drivers, too many people	7/20/2017 11:17 AM
188	The biggest contributing factor seems to be streets on which you must have a permit to park. These streets (almost always residential) have many, many open parking spaces, but only residents of that street are allowed to park there, even though most of these houses have their own private driveways. The result is that many spaces on the street go un-parked in, forcing people to keep searching for other spots. This constant circling, looking for traffic means way more cars on the road that need to be at any particular time, which then causes a greater volume of traffic. A fast and easy solution to this congestion would be removing these "permit only" restrictions in the Hollywood area.	7/20/2017 11:09 AM

338	Tourism is my best guess.	7/19/2017 6:31 PM
339	It's a city.	7/19/2017 6:30 PM
340	jaywalking, homeless people in street lack of clear signage (first-time visitors not driving efficiently) left turns still allowed too often --- need to make more streets as direct lanes only, no turns	7/19/2017 6:29 PM
341	4 million in LA, also bad drivers and inattentive pedestrians	7/19/2017 6:20 PM
342	Events at Hollywood & Highland and in that area in general.	7/19/2017 6:18 PM
343	too many people	7/19/2017 6:16 PM
344	It's not just in Hollywood. Bad traffic from Santa Monica after 2pm!	7/19/2017 6:13 PM
345	Concentrated area with lots of activities and so many locals and tourists coming to this area and not having easy, obvious places to park, so it takes longer to get to the desired destination. Multi-story above-ground parking structures, like in Santa Monica, would provide visible easy solutions for parking soon after arriving in Hollywood.	7/19/2017 6:12 PM
346	Public transport not convenient enough and/or people unwilling to take it (possibly because, back to the first thing, it's not convenient enough).	7/19/2017 6:11 PM
347	Clearly, it's tourists and too many popular places for them to see in a small area.	7/19/2017 6:09 PM
348	Construction and stupid idiots.	7/19/2017 6:06 PM
349	Too many people+ most don't know how to drive.	7/19/2017 6:03 PM
350	Too many people coming from all over the city of Los Angeles at the same visit the Hollywood area.	7/19/2017 5:59 PM
351	Too many people driving. LA needs a legit subway/rail system.	7/19/2017 5:55 PM
352	Too many people	7/19/2017 5:55 PM
353	Bad Driving	7/19/2017 5:54 PM
354	Overdevelopment	7/19/2017 5:54 PM
355	FAR to many people. The city should take note of how foot & auto traffic was made to move faster at major intersections on The Strip In Las Vegas. About 20 yrs ago they finally stopped the people from crossing the major blvd's., and therefore stopping auto's from making turns when they have a green light. They built overpasses across the blvd's for the foot traffic, thereby making the vehicles move freer. I never understood why they don't do that at Hollywood & Highland.	7/19/2017 5:50 PM
356	New construction	7/19/2017 5:43 PM
357	Construction, constant movie premieres and events,	7/19/2017 5:34 PM
358	humanity	7/19/2017 5:30 PM

359	More fun events and growing population. Street capacity in Hollywood is quaint.	7/19/2017 5:15 PM
360	Development of large apartment and condo buildings plus other retail development.	7/19/2017 5:14 PM
361	Events without traffic officers. Sight seeing buses and tours.	7/19/2017 5:13 PM
362	new construction, more people	7/19/2017 5:12 PM
363	Too many cars and too many people, not enough parking, especially affordable parking	7/19/2017 5:11 PM
364	Construction, too much construction which then leads to over crowding caused by the newly built and overpriced apartments/condos.	7/19/2017 5:05 PM
365	Bad signage and timing with traffic lights.	7/19/2017 5:04 PM
366	The tour buses on Hollywood Blvd. Not being able to turn left without waiting multiple lights to go through. Make all the left turn light lanes with a arrow so cars can get through faster.	7/19/2017 4:56 PM
367	A lot of people unsure of where they are going. Also people unable to drive in traffic situations.	7/19/2017 4:55 PM
368	Building boom of high density sites, more cars and more people.	7/19/2017 4:54 PM
369	At H&H, pedestrians don't obey the crossing lights	7/19/2017 4:48 PM
370	Commuters, lack of easy-to-access parking, confusion at intersections	7/19/2017 4:46 PM
371	Population explosion. Recent study was done. In 1979 there was 1.9 million people living in Los Angeles County. A few months ago, we crack over 4 million people. More light rail and transportation alternatives might ease the congestion. But, public safety is key. If people don't feel safe, they won't come.	7/19/2017 4:44 PM
372	Increased pedestrian traffic slowing down cars making turns at intersections	7/19/2017 4:42 PM
373	In priority order: overdevelopment; too many bars/nightclubs/raves, etc.; pedestrians congesting/inhibiting/slowing/impeding/blocking vehicles; inefficient stoplight synchronization.	7/19/2017 4:40 PM
374	Pedestrians	7/19/2017 4:39 PM
375	People either going out or driving home from work.	7/19/2017 4:36 PM
376	Constant construction (mostly new, giant condo projects that cause road closures/blockages.. eyeroll), road work/closures, tour vans/buses. Tourists who forget how to drive when they're in a different city.	7/19/2017 4:33 PM
377	Tourism	7/19/2017 4:32 PM
378	Too many people and events happening.	7/19/2017 4:30 PM
379	Too much construction taking away a lot of the good parking, too many LAPD cars taking good parking and aggressively pulling people over, Meter Maids are nazis in the area and are writing tickets for anything discouraging people to go to Hollywood area at all, Uber & Lyft drivers blocking traffic to drop people off, Too many people using GPS and not paying attention, Not enough FREE parking in the area causing people to circle around blocks many times over	7/19/2017 4:29 PM
380	Overpopulation, new high density housing projects, car culture, urbanization, low price of gasoline, etc.	7/19/2017 4:28 PM
381	Lack of metered or inexpensive street parking, tourist congestion, road work, occasional/seasonal events like the Bowl or premiers at El Capitan etc	7/19/2017 4:23 PM
382	Too many people. Plus businesses popping up with it becoming less seedy so parking will be more of a premium. This is why I prefer the aero theatre.	7/19/2017 4:21 PM
383	Parking. People trying to get to the freeway. Work traffic.	7/19/2017 4:17 PM
384	The combination of tourist attractions, nightclubs, centralized location that allows drivers to drive through Hollywood on their way to other destinations, theaters.	7/19/2017 4:17 PM
385	Too many people, too many cars	7/19/2017 4:16 PM
386	Very old fashioned way of handling traffic as far as signal sensors and whatnot.	7/19/2017 4:14 PM
387	Construction, overcrowding.	7/19/2017 4:08 PM
388	tourists and tour buses	7/19/2017 4:08 PM

389	Not sure	7/19/2017 4:07 PM
390	Tourists and special events	7/19/2017 4:07 PM
391	Tourism, events, few metro connections	7/19/2017 4:06 PM
392	Lack of public transportation option for long distance travel	7/19/2017 4:05 PM
393	Too many vehicles.	7/19/2017 4:00 PM
394	Circling for parking. There should be better directional signage leading to paid lots, permit parking, and higher meter prices on major streets to encourage turnover.	7/19/2017 3:58 PM
395	Tourists.	7/19/2017 3:58 PM
396	Overdevelopment	7/19/2017 3:56 PM
397	Too many cars. Too many pedestrians not obeying traffic signals.	7/19/2017 3:56 PM
398	Californians like driving their own car. They won't carpool or take public trans	7/19/2017 3:55 PM
399	popular tourist destination... can't change that.	7/19/2017 3:54 PM
400	Poorly designed traffic lights that allow pedestrians to walk at the same time, blocking turning traffic.	7/19/2017 3:49 PM
401	Its a mystery...random	7/19/2017 3:47 PM
402	Since Hollywood Blvd. has received some gentrification, the street is always packed and the parking is very limited.	7/19/2017 3:45 PM
403	There are too many people in this city	7/19/2017 3:44 PM
404	Too many people	7/19/2017 3:37 PM
405	tourists, hollywood bowl	7/19/2017 3:33 PM
406	Southern California every day life	7/19/2017 3:32 PM
407	longer commute times	7/19/2017 3:30 PM
408	Too many vehicles for the available road/parking spaces etc.	7/19/2017 3:30 PM
409	Too many pedestrians not obeying traffic crosswalk time limit. Also... sooooo many cars and buses.	7/19/2017 3:29 PM
411	Construction of new buildings with more occupants. Road closures, etc.	7/19/2017 3:26 PM
412	Cars cause traffic congestion, period.	7/19/2017 3:25 PM
413	Hollywood Bowl!!! Special events on Hollywood Blvd., Tourists, regular LA traffic	7/19/2017 3:25 PM
414	Older Streets/lights are not made for the amount of people that pass through the city.	7/19/2017 3:23 PM
415	Too much construction, too few designated parking places	7/19/2017 3:23 PM
416	1) Lack of grade-separation at intersections (they have them in DT, but none in Hwood or along travel path from South Bay) 2) On-street parking allowed on main arterial roads 3) Chronic traffic-light coordination issue (eg Highland routinely blocked by cars in intersection at Sunset, due to timing of next light to the East) 4) Failure to complete LaCeniga highway project from I-405 up into Hwood 5) Lack of grade-separation (or ANY manner of intersection improvement) at Stocker and LaBrea, Stocker and LaCeniga) 6) Failure to add capacity on I-405 in South Bay	7/19/2017 3:23 PM
417	Tourists, Hollywood events, rush hour	7/19/2017 3:22 PM
418	lack of City planning and traffic light coordination	7/19/2017 3:17 PM
419	Not enough affordable parking	7/19/2017 3:16 PM
420	Too many cars? Tourists? Gangs? Overpopulation?	7/19/2017 3:15 PM
421	Tourism, people don't know to avoid driving through that area unnecessarily.	7/19/2017 3:15 PM
422	Too much new development for greedy developers	7/19/2017 3:11 PM
423	sorry, I am not sure.	7/19/2017 3:08 PM

424	Too many motorcycles & way too many Hollywood Bowl concerts added every year resulting in traffic now forced to take short-cuts & detours thru our local, neighborhood streets which are not equipped for such heavy loads of traffic resulting in excessive noise, horn-blowing , and non-stop traffic jams.	7/19/2017 3:08 PM
425	Big events, increasing density and insufficient public transportation	7/19/2017 3:05 PM
426	Too many cars/people	7/19/2017 3:03 PM
427	Too many damn people.	7/19/2017 3:01 PM
428	Badly timed traffic signals and people crossing street when they shouldn't.	7/19/2017 3:00 PM
429	Too many pedestrians/tourists. (It's a pain to turn left onto Las Palmas. Only one car-- if that-- can turn per light because of the people in the crosswalk.) Also just a lot of cars in general either passing through the area, or circling around looking for parking. Often, cars just stop to wait for a spot, causing back ups.	7/19/2017 2:58 PM
430	Too many cars. Congestion is TERRIBLE. This is why I much Much prefer going to the Aero Theatre.	7/19/2017 2:58 PM
431	Construction, pedestrian crosswalks that don't have lights, too many people	7/19/2017 2:55 PM
432	Tourist industry	7/19/2017 2:55 PM
433	Too many people, not enough parking structures	7/19/2017 2:55 PM
434	?	7/19/2017 2:53 PM
435	Too much new construction of offices and living spaces. To many more people living/working on Hollywood plus street closures for premieres.	7/19/2017 2:53 PM
436	Construction and pedestrian and car traffic.	7/19/2017 2:49 PM
437	narrow streets, no alternatives	7/19/2017 2:49 PM
438	I don't know.	7/19/2017 2:48 PM
439	Tourism, concentration of interesting attractions	7/19/2017 2:48 PM
440	Not enough police or good traffic control (real people) not just lights and signs	7/19/2017 2:48 PM
441	stupid question	7/19/2017 2:46 PM
442	There are many events there and much tourist traffic	7/19/2017 2:46 PM
443	Allowing street performers on the sidewalks that cause pedestrian crowds to spill out on to the streets. Tourists that jaywalk across red lights, blocking traffic, lack of parking. Hollywood should have FREE parking garages like Santa Monica and Beverly Hills, with lots that are fast and easy to get into and out of.	7/19/2017 2:44 PM
444	Increase in population.	7/19/2017 2:41 PM
445	Hollywood is a destination; people from all over the world visit. Because of that, it's always going to be congested.	7/19/2017 2:40 PM
446	People getting on to the 101 from Highland or Cahuenga causes gridlock. Events at the Bowl (which is understandable, but signage for these events can be posted on electronic billboards).	7/19/2017 2:35 PM
447	Too little reliable or accessible public transportation. People are used to driving, and don't consider using public transportation.	7/19/2017 2:35 PM
448	Bar and club activity at night	7/19/2017 2:34 PM
449	tourists, narrow streets,	7/19/2017 2:33 PM
450	All the new building going on. It's Garcetti's support of real estate interests in Hollywood that made me not vote for him.	7/19/2017 2:32 PM
451	Traffic signal timing.	7/19/2017 2:32 PM
452	Tourism, road closures (for premieres), not many affordable parking options	7/19/2017 2:32 PM
453	Overdevelopment, and also the aggressive removal of free and metered street spots, due to the influence of parking lot operators and years of deliberate city policy to remove spots and paint them red.	7/19/2017 2:31 PM

454	Too many people leaving work in the evenings around the same time (showtimes need to be later, i.e. 8pm instead of 7:30).	7/19/2017 2:31 PM
455	More businesses and residences that are appealing to more people. Not very good transit options. LA's car culture.	7/19/2017 2:30 PM
456	No idea	7/19/2017 2:30 PM
457	Not enough parking means people circle blocks. Traffic impossible	7/19/2017 2:29 PM
458	too many people ... too many new apartment buildings going up. poor public transport which encourages people to drive	7/19/2017 2:28 PM
459	Tourists and city wide gridlock.	7/19/2017 2:27 PM
460	construction, road closure, lack of parking	7/19/2017 2:26 PM
461	Hollywood Bowl, pedestrian traffic, ride share services not familiar with the area, tour vans/buses	7/19/2017 2:26 PM
462	maybe inadequate non-valet parking for too many venues has a bump of traffic circling for parking. If affordable easy-to-find parking everywhere, people could drive right into, maybe less traffic.	7/19/2017 2:25 PM
463	Just too many people in an area with so much to do	7/19/2017 2:24 PM
464	I've heard 50% of traffic has to do with people trying to find parking spots. I'm not an expert on what causes congestion so I really don't know. The obvious would be too many people converging on an area that has many events (or passing thru such an area). Power outages, accidents, police issues, detours, road construction are all some of the main factors I can think of off the top of my head.	7/19/2017 2:24 PM
465	Destroying old beautiful apts to put up horrible condos	7/19/2017 2:23 PM
466	Development issues	7/19/2017 2:20 PM
467	Hollywood Bowl, HIGHLAND, clubs, cruisers	7/19/2017 2:20 PM
468	No mystery - too many cars/people in too small a space.	7/19/2017 2:20 PM
469	to many people, cars and lights not sync in a flowing way	7/19/2017 2:19 PM
470	Too much going on at H&H corner	7/19/2017 2:18 PM
471	I don't know.	7/19/2017 2:18 PM
472	Too many cars!	7/19/2017 2:16 PM
473	tourism, construction	7/19/2017 2:15 PM
474	More housing	7/19/2017 2:14 PM
475	Unrestricted growth and lane constriction	7/19/2017 2:14 PM
476	No freeway access, popularity of Hollywood on weekend nights, general L.A. traffic congestion	7/19/2017 2:14 PM
477	Terrible city planning.	7/19/2017 2:13 PM
478	Hollywood and Highland development and tourism esp during the summer	7/19/2017 2:12 PM
479	It's a popular tourist and entertainment destination.	7/19/2017 2:12 PM
480	too many people not enough space for them	7/19/2017 2:12 PM
481	Over development and lack of parking	7/19/2017 2:11 PM
482	Too many people want to be in the same place at the same time.	7/19/2017 2:09 PM
483	to many people, tourists!	7/19/2017 2:09 PM
484	construction, people trying to find decent parking, tourists, etc.	7/19/2017 2:07 PM
485	too many cars and bad drivers.	7/19/2017 2:07 PM
486	High profile location	7/19/2017 2:07 PM
487	In that area specifically, a little difficult to have a grid street layout overlay a hill. Also, Hollywood Bowl events. (I don't need to expound on that, do I? :)	7/19/2017 2:05 PM

488	general LA traffic and tourist traffic in Hollywood	7/19/2017 2:04 PM
489	I have no idea. Congestion is all over LA.	7/19/2017 2:04 PM
490	.	7/19/2017 2:04 PM
491	Hollywood Bowl events	7/19/2017 2:02 PM
492	Construction, Bicycle lanes	7/19/2017 2:01 PM
493	Apartment complexes and outdated public transportation	7/19/2017 2:01 PM
494	Street block, To much bus and bike traffic. Homeless people.	7/19/2017 2:01 PM
495	Premieres, new lights at Ho/Hi, construction, tourists.	7/19/2017 2:00 PM
496	Too many visitors	7/19/2017 1:59 PM
497	too much happening all at the same time	7/19/2017 1:59 PM
498	Passenger Drop offs, traffic light calibration, Tourist attraction congestion, lack of proper signage for visitors to find parking of drop off locations.	7/19/2017 1:57 PM
499	I don't know.	7/19/2017 1:56 PM
500	over-development, no planning for traffic impact	7/19/2017 1:56 PM
501	?	7/19/2017 1:53 PM
502	Too many people	7/19/2017 1:53 PM
503	Outmoded street design, not intended for flow of modern traffic. Also, frequent street closures due to events at Hollywood Highland/Chinese, etc.	7/19/2017 1:52 PM
504	Tour buses. Ban them !!!	7/19/2017 1:48 PM
505	Not enough parking so people drive slowly; drivers block the intersections; too many pedestrians not paying attention to street signs and rules.	7/19/2017 1:48 PM
506	The pedestrian glut at crosswalks and the increase of cars. No left turn only lanes for cars. Should create over street 'bridges for pedestrians - similar to what Vegas has. Allows constant flow of pedestrians and cars. Maybe other factors I'm unaware of is the reason this isn't done.	7/19/2017 1:48 PM
507	over development and lack of parking lots.	7/19/2017 1:45 PM
508	too much development without the necessary parking additions or better public transportation.	7/19/2017 1:44 PM
509	The constant closing of Hollywood Blvd for Walk of Fame ceremonies, film premieres and street concerts is the main culprit. Unobstructed traffic is the exception, not the rule.	7/19/2017 1:44 PM
510	Crowds at Hollywood and Highland, tour buses, etc.	7/19/2017 1:41 PM
511	Un sustainable growth. Lack of a master plan for the area	7/19/2017 1:41 PM
512	Accumulation of events all happening in one night or the busiest nights of the week (i.e. - Friday, Saturday, or possibly even Sunday) when people are free. I also think the stoplights are not as efficient as they could be, resulting in traffic gridlock.	7/19/2017 1:40 PM
513	It is a touristy area in addition to it being LA. there are simply too many people driving in the city and not enough public transportation options. It doesn't help that the county is large and takes forever to get from one place to another via public transit. I prefer taking public transit but I am scared that with the rise of uber and Lyft, there are more cars on the road and less people taking public transportation (which means less funding and less incentives to create new routes.)	7/19/2017 1:40 PM
515	Just a popular place, but congestion hasn't been deciding factor for me, nor been too awful. Parking is way more of an issue.	7/19/2017 1:38 PM
516	Nonsynchronized signals. People not knowing where they are going	7/19/2017 1:37 PM
517	Tourist trap specifically on hollywood blvd and sunset blvd	7/19/2017 1:34 PM
518	Too many tourists	7/19/2017 1:33 PM
519	Too many cars and drivers on phone. Construction	7/19/2017 1:33 PM

520	Public events, film premieres, award shows, etc.	7/19/2017 1:32 PM
521	Too many cars, confusing streets, long lights and pedestrians not obeying traffic laws.	7/19/2017 1:31 PM
522	Population	7/19/2017 1:30 PM
523	Tourists on Hollywood, rush hour, too many businesses and not enough parking.	7/19/2017 1:30 PM

530	Construction. No left turn lanes/lights. Bad drivers.	7/19/2017 1:25 PM
531	Too many cars, constructions, sometimes the closure of Hollywood blvd for events.	7/19/2017 1:23 PM
532	over building of commercial and residential structures; tourists; too few lanes for too much traffic; non-computerized traffic signals	7/19/2017 1:22 PM
533	Tourists/available parking (people circling looking for parking space)	7/19/2017 1:22 PM
534	Not enough convenient and affordable parking structures. Too many valet only locations.	7/19/2017 1:22 PM
535	Unsynchronized lights; sheer volume of traffic.	7/19/2017 1:22 PM
536	Tourism, poorly planned parking and lights	7/19/2017 1:22 PM
537	Too much pedestrian traffic and not enough lights, especially arrows, to keep the cars moving through.	7/19/2017 1:19 PM
538	Rush hour	7/19/2017 1:19 PM
539	TOO MUCH SIMULTANEOUS CONSTRUCTION! LACK OF RELIABLE PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION!	7/19/2017 1:18 PM
540	It's fucking SoCal. What do you expect?	7/19/2017 1:17 PM
541	Popular with tourists	7/19/2017 1:17 PM
542	Construction, bad parking options, tourists.	7/19/2017 1:15 PM

544	Toursits, Hollywood Bowl, getting on the 101 right there.	7/19/2017 1:13 PM
545	Lack of public transportation, lack of parking, lack of planning.	7/19/2017 1:12 PM
546	Over development of the area.	7/19/2017 1:12 PM
547	People are driving into Hollywood because it's unsafe at times (ie. homeless street encampments, people begging, people on drugs). Also, I could drive myself and park at a meter for a couple hours and it will be quicker, safer and cheaper than taking public transportation. There are also way too many people moving to LA and yet housing keeps getting built to keep up with the demand. More people = more drivers on the road. Also, there's less parking because new housing is being built and there aren't enough parking spaces for tenants and their guests and so I'd imagine that some of the traffic congestion has to do with a lack of parking and the ability to find it.	7/19/2017 1:11 PM
548	Too many tourists.	7/19/2017 1:11 PM
549	Long street lights at Hollywood/ Highland intersection	7/19/2017 1:09 PM
550	new developments, eliminating parking spots, bike lanes	7/19/2017 1:09 PM
551	Tourism, Hollywood bowl, the 101 freeway, hollywood/highland	7/19/2017 1:08 PM
552	Hollywood and Highland crosswalk.	7/19/2017 1:08 PM
553	Maybe the way the lights are timed? Too much traffic--and pedestrians holding up people from turning.	7/19/2017 1:07 PM

554	Too many people drive to the area when they could use transit. Tourism vehicles also cause lots of traffic.	7/19/2017 1:05 PM
555	More people want to be there than streets and parking can accommodate. I support new Hollywood developments if they have 2 parking spaces per unit and some formula for guest parking spaces,	7/19/2017 1:04 PM
556	Overbuilding, and not enough parking to meet the demand.	7/19/2017 1:03 PM
557	Too much construction and development. I cannot drive any more without encountering MULTIPLE (5-10) construction projects leading to significant delays, stress, and near accidents due to congestion.	7/19/2017 1:02 PM
558	No easy path to get to from the Westside	7/19/2017 1:02 PM
559	Increased tourism, low gas prices, increased appealing destinations for locals, freeway on and off ramps on the 101 spaced too closely together (need fewer ramps overall), lack of freeway north south arterial to bypass downtown (the 2 was abandoned and never connected to the 101) leading to surface street traffic trying to go north south through Hollywood.	7/19/2017 1:01 PM
560	Legitimate tourism ON the "famous" Hollywood Blvd. People drive slower, don't know where they are, which is okay. Also, because there isn't very much parking, we all use the same streets to get to the parking we DO know about. No one's using side streets. They don't GO anywhere people need to get to.	7/19/2017 1:01 PM
561	Too many people in one location.	7/19/2017 1:00 PM
562	Showtimes occasionally conflict with peak traffic	7/19/2017 1:00 PM
563	Tourism.	7/19/2017 12:58 PM
564	Too many people in a small area. Clog ups by Chinese Theater & Hollywood & Highland. Take people into H&H better	7/19/2017 12:58 PM
565	Lax traffic rule enforcement	7/19/2017 12:57 PM
566	Poor urban planning, overpopulation	7/19/2017 12:57 PM
567	General heavy tourists/population. The Intersectino of Hollywood And Highland has been upgraded to a great crosswalk. But the traffic going north on Highland is greatly congested because of the longer waits for green lights.	7/19/2017 12:57 PM
568	too many people. people PUSHING through yellow/red lights, instead of WAITING thru cycle. people dropping off at curbside and blocking flow of traffic	7/19/2017 12:56 PM
569	Idiots	7/19/2017 12:56 PM
570	Too many cars, vehicles and pedestrians not following rules.	7/19/2017 12:55 PM
571	POORLY PLANNED TRAFFIC SIGNALS, NO TRAFFIC POLICE DIRECTING TRAFFIC LIKE THEY USED TO....	7/19/2017 12:54 PM

575	Tourism, poor parking options	7/19/2017 12:50 PM
576	Too much new housing development, traffic "relaxation" rules and closures that actually make traffic much worse - particularly in West Hollywood.	7/19/2017 12:50 PM
577	too many people, not enough space to drive.	7/19/2017 12:49 PM
578	massive apartment complexes and swarms of tourists, and those double-decker tour buses that drive half the speed limit and take up half the road.	7/19/2017 12:49 PM
579	Not enough reliable and consistent public transportation options	7/19/2017 12:48 PM
580	Construction, Tourism	7/19/2017 12:48 PM
581	So densely populated now. Live shop spaces. Just the general weekend influx as well.	7/19/2017 12:47 PM
582	too many cars and bad drivers	7/19/2017 12:47 PM

583	Too many night clubs. Too much pedestrian traffic. Streets too narrow. Sidewalks uneven for those with balance issues.	7/19/2017 12:43 PM
584	Tourism. Rush hour.	7/19/2017 12:42 PM
585	Not enough public transpo	7/19/2017 12:42 PM
586	tourist buses	7/19/2017 12:40 PM

588	Too many people and too many cars.	7/19/2017 12:39 PM
589	1. It's a tourist-attraction area 2. There isn't enough public transportation, therefore more personal and Uber/Lyft cars	7/19/2017 12:37 PM
590	New construction. I work in Hollywood too & the constant road closures for new construction cause major traffic jams.	7/19/2017 12:36 PM
591	Too many cars stoping to check out the tourist attractions.	7/19/2017 12:35 PM
592	Hollywood events and tourists	7/19/2017 12:33 PM
593	1. shows or events at Kodak or Hollywood Bowl 2. Accident on Barham or 101 3. I drive on Fountain to get to parking - that street is always full of traffic. 4. Everyone uses side streets and avoids Hollywood Bl. That increases traffic 5. Traffic lights are not long enough 6. People drive through red lights or they get stuck in the intersection. 7. People walk in streets or bicycles which makes drivers have to go around them. 8. City [DOT] and LAPD never help with traffic congestion. 9. Hollywood surface streets were designed in the 40's, not for the current volume of traffic to support business needs and help travelers.	7/19/2017 12:33 PM
594	Too many cars. Bad public transportation. Too many new structures being built when we already are overly congested.	7/19/2017 12:32 PM
595	Popularity and an interesting scene!	7/19/2017 12:30 PM
596	Overpopulation. SOCIAL MEDIA.	7/19/2017 12:28 PM
597	Really dumb people. Bad traffic light timing. Awful road closures sometimes.	7/19/2017 12:28 PM
598	Poor signal timing, too much traffic, too many pedestrians, not enough green left turn arrows, inconvenient public transportation alternatives	7/19/2017 12:28 PM
599	Lame cross walk all ways at hollywood and highland and NO Right Turn on Red crap popping up all over!	7/19/2017 12:28 PM
600	Large number of tourists and touristy things to do, crammed into a relatively small geographical area. But Hollywood would not survive without the tourism. Not much you can do. My only recommendation is to build more parking structures and offer free parking so at least the circling the block looking for a free parking space is eliminated.	7/19/2017 12:28 PM
601	Clubs and valet parking in areas meant for public parking.	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
602	Over development Increased tourism	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
603	Tourists, premieres, events like the Latin grammys, no signage about closures/ special events until you're about a block away, lack of parking under $20.	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
604	The development is out of control, with more building lacking in good aesthetic that will not stand the test of time. Two high rises at Yucca and Argyle will create and unbearable situation. There are two freeways, one an exit and one entrance. There are and will be so many hotels in the area. How are cars/Lyft/buses going to traverse this area in order to arrive to the Egyptian?!	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
605	Thoughtless development	7/19/2017 12:24 PM
606	Overdevelopment	7/19/2017 12:23 PM
607	High concentration of people in Hollywood/Highland area	7/19/2017 12:21 PM
608	Lack of cheap/reasonably priced parking, only having 2-hour limit meters, traffic lights timing isn't efficient to accommodate traffic	7/19/2017 12:21 PM
609	Popularity of a lively tourist destination. Not my cup of tea but that's where you're located.	7/19/2017 12:20 PM
610	not enough low-cost parking lots.	7/19/2017 12:20 PM

611	Over development!!!! And too many goddamn people keep moving to LA.	7/19/2017 12:20 PM
612	Congestion of too many tourists, local shoppers and residents.	7/19/2017 12:19 PM
613	too many people/cars!	7/19/2017 12:19 PM
614	People have to drive around and around trying to find parking	7/19/2017 12:18 PM
615	Increased traffic and narrowing transportation arteries.	7/19/2017 12:17 PM
616	Not enough to left hand turn signals and too many cars	7/19/2017 12:17 PM
617	Timed signals. Too many pedestrians. Too many cars	7/19/2017 12:16 PM
618	Too many tourists both in cars and on the sidewalks. Sidewalks become too crowded with vendors and tourists and the intersections are a nightmare when they try to cross	7/19/2017 12:15 PM
619	Business development + increase in neighborhood population.	7/19/2017 12:14 PM
620	Too many cars and parking costs are outrageous which leads to people aimlessly driving around looking for cheaper/free parking, causing more traffic.	7/19/2017 12:14 PM
621	too many people, all the tourists	7/19/2017 12:14 PM
622	pedestrians blocking traffic	7/19/2017 12:13 PM
623	Too much development	7/19/2017 12:13 PM
624	Popularity of the area, construction work, more condos and shops. Maybe the lights could be timed better to help traffic flow.	7/19/2017 12:13 PM
625	Not enough ways to get over the mountain!	7/19/2017 12:13 PM
626	Too many drivers & not enough public transpo.	7/19/2017 12:12 PM
627	Summer tourism No left turn arrows at traffic lights	7/19/2017 12:12 PM
628	Clubs, Hollywood and highland, tourists	7/19/2017 12:11 PM
629	Too many tourists!	7/19/2017 12:11 PM
630	The usual suspects.	7/19/2017 12:11 PM
631	Over development!	7/19/2017 12:10 PM
632	Old freeway needs improvement	7/19/2017 12:10 PM
633	1. Not enough left turning lights. 2. Pedestrians affecting ability to turn (Hollywood should follow Pasadena's lead with pedestrians having their own arrows in all directions - no crossing at all during drivers time to go or turn).	7/19/2017 12:09 PM
634	Depends. Usually it's the nexus of multiple events on high-volume days and when tourists are abundant. The lack of parking opportunities at a cost-effective price at actual venues means more circling for parking meters or entrances to garages that can't keep up with the volume.	7/19/2017 12:07 PM
635	It's always worse when traffic police are working, ironically.	7/19/2017 12:07 PM
636	Inadequate roads, construction, events/premieres, foot traffic from tourists unfamiliar with area, drivers circling a handful of parking spots like vultures. Seems mostly unavoidable.	7/19/2017 12:07 PM
637	TOO MANY PEOPLE!	7/19/2017 12:06 PM
638	Tourists and the Hollywood Bowl events.	7/19/2017 12:05 PM

641	new construction tourist attractions	7/19/2017 12:03 PM
642	over development of high density buildings. do not wish downtown Hollywood to become a west coast manhattan.	7/19/2017 12:02 PM
643	Too many tourists and sleeze balls.	7/19/2017 12:02 PM

644	Sightseeing busses, lack of affordable parking (most private lots are $10+), pedestrians not observing traffic signs and not paying attention, and Hollywood/Highland is a massive tourist and entertainment hub that unfortunately is directly south of one of the busiest 101 Exits in town.	7/19/2017 12:01 PM
645	Weirdly, I think the sidewalk vendors slow street traffic down. There is so much going on on the sidewalk now (not just pedestrian traffic and the occasional performer, like it used to be) that drivers are distracted and slow down.	7/19/2017 12:01 PM
646	Tourist trap aspects of the area. Main in and out of the area is really only Highland, which as a street isn't small but it isn't big enough to accomadate all the cars that it takes. Add in the factor of extra congestion from Franklin avenue and tje Hollywood Bowl if there is an event and chaos ensues	7/19/2017 12:01 PM
647	New residences and businesses are being put up with not enough provision for staff, customers and residents to park. The Hollywood tourist district is unsafe after dark (three fatal assaults on the streets around the Egyptian in the last two years), and so unless something is done about that, people attending evening entertainment there will not want to use public transportation, even if it were more convenient at the other end of their journeys.	7/19/2017 12:01 PM

657	Bowl shows	7/19/2017 11:56 AM
658	Premiere street closures on Hollywood Blvd (TCL/El Capitan). Saturday nights are affected by late-night club-goers seeking available parking. Hollywood Bowl shows affect evening traffic (not so much a cause for being late to a show). That dreaded light on Hollywood and Highland that takes forever only to let 1 or 2 cars get through a green light when it actually changes (sometimes it allows 3, but that's wishful thinking). Filming in Hollywood also tests my patience.	7/19/2017 11:56 AM
659	Poor planning. Pedestrians... some of whom are tourists who don't know where they're going; others are on drugs or having mental issues and they walk out in front of traffic... Not enough lanes.	7/19/2017 11:56 AM
660	We have been a horizontal town that is becoming vertical. Overdevelopment without improving streets. They need to make streets one way to move more cars. Some form of lightrail down Hollywood Blvd. Highland and LaBrea and Hollywood Blvd are a mess at rush hour. Keep building and yet they are the same streets used going back to the 1920s-- makes no sense. Politicians want the property tax dollars and are not looking at the future. Many times I have wanted to drive over to the Egyptian and have dinner at Musso & Franks, but look at the clock and see it's 6:00PM and say, "No way am I sitting in that traffic."	7/19/2017 11:55 AM

742	No idea.	7/19/2017 11:18 AM
743	Lack of parking: it means people are constantly circling looking for spots. Also tourists, of course. And the fact that there are always events going on in the area, which cause shutdowns/detours	7/19/2017 11:18 AM
744	Too many cars at rush hour, no major freeways or roads to route passthrough traffic.	7/19/2017 11:17 AM

752	Too many people driving to the same places at the same time.	7/19/2017 11:16 AM
753	Corrupt oversight by the City, allowing overbuilding without regard for adequate infrastructure support.	7/19/2017 11:16 AM
754	The area is a tourist and entertainment destination, I think it's congestion caused by inadequate street design.	7/19/2017 11:16 AM

771	Tourists and entertainers that try to make or take money from them. Sorry, sad but true	7/19/2017 11:10 AM
772	Streets are open to vehicles. We have so many tourists it makes much more sense to close them off and turn it into a plaza.	7/19/2017 11:09 AM
773	Lack of affordable parking - people looking for cheaper parking slow traffic down.	7/19/2017 11:09 AM
774	Cars circling around looking for parking. Cars stopping in traffic lanes for one reason or another, and sometimes for an extended time.	7/19/2017 11:09 AM
775	Do not know	7/19/2017 11:09 AM
776	Not enough busses, trains, and bike infrastructure.	7/19/2017 11:08 AM
777	No idea	7/19/2017 11:08 AM
778	Too many attractions in one concentrated area.	7/19/2017 11:08 AM
779	The gentrification of Hollywood Blvd in an easterly direction has definitely played a role. Also, every two story building that is torn down in Hollywood is being replaced with a six, eight, ten-- or more!--story building, which invariably delivers more occupants/residents/patrons (as many of these buildings are "multi-use"), and many if not most of these people rely on cars; crowding and traffic thereby intensifies. Unfortunately, there are zero traffic measure mitigations enacted in tandem with this exponential style of redevelopment and so the traffic problems continue to intensify. The roads can only accommodate so much volume and when every building that is razed is replaced with something 4X the size, the corresponding increase in tenancy/occupation translates into a vehicular onslaught that is on the verge of crippling the area.	7/19/2017 11:08 AM
780	It seems to mostly be volume, the amount of people, tourists and tour buses stopping, and also worrying about pedestrians	7/19/2017 11:08 AM
781	It's a huge tourist area, and there are not only TOO MANY cars and lack of clearly delineated areas to park, but also large sight-seeing tour buses which block line or sight for drivers in the area. Any pedestrians are usually looking everywhere but where they're actually walking.	7/19/2017 11:07 AM
782	Too much population density and business density.	7/19/2017 11:06 AM
783	Development/constant construction	7/19/2017 11:06 AM
784	Over development. Many events around the same time and tourism, pedestrian and other means.	7/19/2017 11:06 AM

787	Too much residential development. Construction.	7/19/2017 11:04 AM
788	It is too easy/affordable to drive. Not enough emphasis on public transportation.	7/19/2017 11:04 AM
789	More Construction of Lofts and Offices. Congestion due to cars being delayed pulling into parking lots.	7/19/2017 11:04 AM
790	Not enough Road and affordable parking for the amount of cars.	7/19/2017 11:04 AM
791	Too many people, not enough affordable parking.	7/19/2017 11:03 AM
792	Too many cars in small area, streets not designed to handle so many cars and people.	7/19/2017 11:02 AM
793	Poor city planning. The city's obvious lack of exploration into what impact new development will have in neighborhoods. Tourist combined with locals naturally make for congestion.	7/19/2017 11:02 AM
794	Construction, commuters, special events.	7/19/2017 11:01 AM
795	The main factor appears to be increased density.	7/19/2017 11:01 AM

797	Too many people, bad public transportation	7/19/2017 11:00 AM

799	Tourist, congestion	7/19/2017 11:00 AM
800	tourist tour buses on Hollywood Blvd	7/19/2017 10:59 AM
801	Hollywood Highland Center with all the various activities they have, Hollywood Boulevard in general since it's internationally known, walk of fame, superhero characters on the sidewalk attract a lot of people and slow down of cars, The El Capitan theater, the Pantages, all these theaters are running top shows that are attracting many people to which venue as well as the overall improvement of Hollywood Boulevard over the many years have become once again a really attractive site to see when somebody is visiting Los Angeles. The signals or not time to properly to let a larger flow of traffic move either east or west at any given time especially during the afternoons and evenings. Every corner on Hollywood Boulevard has a lot of tourists crossing the street at any given time in many of these individuals are slow enough that they don't make it across the street in the prescribed time of the signal therefore causing cars to wait until the person crosses and possibly preventing more cars to either make a turn or just move straight through thereby causing additional traffic as the increase in cars grows throughout the day.	7/19/2017 10:59 AM
802	Tourists/tourism	7/19/2017 10:59 AM
803	Tourist stop; Also difficult to see where there is affordable parking	7/19/2017 10:59 AM
804	Too many cars and the lights should be timed so that when you go the speed limit, you can get through many at the same time. Another factor is pedestrians crossing the street. A lot of people cross even when the light for them to cross has changed for them.	7/19/2017 10:59 AM
805	People in LA know traffic. Parking the car is the problem.	7/19/2017 10:59 AM

830	OMG, where to begin...	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
831	Don't know	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
832	Too many humans. There needs to be more arrows at traffic lights. So many people are using the cross walks only a car or two can turn left or right per light.	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
833	The popular attractions are all clustered in a 3-5 square mile radius of Hollywood and Highland; which includes but is not limited to Chinese Theater, El Capitan, Hollywood Bowl, Egyptian Theater, Fonda Theater, all of the other clubs; shops; eateries, etc. Couple that with the close proximity to the 101, which is the gateway to and from the Valley & DTLA, and you have a situation where Hollywood is the beating heart, with not enough arteries and capillaries to support the blood flow.	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
834	Rush hour, new building developments.	7/19/2017 10:52 AM

839	signal timing	7/19/2017 10:51 AM
840	Too many buildings in too little space. Lack of planning for traffic consequences.	7/19/2017 10:51 AM
841	Build up of businesses and Lofts are exceeding street abilities to handle traffic and parking properly.	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
842	special events, too much traffic, not enough traffic control. Hollywood Bowl events.	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
843	Too many people driving to a town that was never designed for it -- many are drawn by the "nightlife" that did not exist years ago when Hwd. Blvd. basically shut down in the evening. Those who promote Hollywood wanted nightclubs to proliferate.	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
844	1. General population increase in the City of Los Angeles, West Hollywood, etc. with lack of infrastructure to decongest roads. 2. Excessive overbuilding of large apartment complexes. 3. Not well regulated construction areas. 4. Traffic violations perhaps not enforced enough to keep traffic flowing (illigal turns, illigal stopping/parking in - especially in Anti-gridlock zones during rush hour)	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
845	Lack of discipline	7/19/2017 10:50 AM

856	I don't know.	7/19/2017 10:47 AM
857	Construction	7/19/2017 10:46 AM
858	Too many cars, and too many parking lots that encourage more driving.	7/19/2017 10:46 AM
859	There are millions of people in the greater Los Angeles area and the Hollywood area has been and continues to be a very popular part of Los Angeles County.	7/19/2017 10:45 AM

860	Overdevolent, destruction of public parking lots, too much construction, too many hotels/apartments opening, not enough cheap/free parking, no Dash buses at night or on Sundays.	7/19/2017 10:45 AM
861	Too much pedestrian traffic combined with vehicular traffic. Hollywood Blvd should be closed to vehicle traffic in front of Hollywood/Highland to prevent cars from trying to use the street as a through-way. Let the entire space be used for pedestrians. This would also smooth the awkward intersection at Orange Dr. by reducing the amount of directions traffic can move.	7/19/2017 10:45 AM
862	Nothing untoward, just a lot of people driving.	7/19/2017 10:45 AM
863	Tourism	7/19/2017 10:44 AM

866	Too much parking	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
867	Too much new construction and too many buildings that are too large for the area that don't have their own parking.	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
868	Unfamiliar drivers, left turns onto side streets, jaywalking, stoned cyclists who aren't actually trying to go anywhere, rubbernecking, people slowing to a creep while looking for metered parking	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
869	Special events, construction, parking meters are for too short of a time. If you're lucky to find a 2-hr meter, it will expire before the movie is over so you have to leave to refeed it or risk a ticket	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
870	Poor management of pedestrian traffic, lack of parking (causing people to circle and make poor driving decisions, also double-parking by delivery trucks and other issues), tour busses	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
871	Lookie Lou's who are just driving, not planning to stop. You need another lane, with no parking on Hollywood Blvd. You need public parking lots like Santa Monica has. You need campaign to get more people on Metro.	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
872	?	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
873	Humans and money.	7/19/2017 10:42 AM
874	Too many cars	7/19/2017 10:42 AM
875	Multiple factors. Too many single drivers, ill-timed traffic signals, distracted pedestrians. People are lazy and drive everywhere. Congested areas not designed for heavy traffic.	7/19/2017 10:42 AM
876	Too many damn people on foot and in cars.	7/19/2017 10:42 AM
877	restrictive parking meters	7/19/2017 10:41 AM

883	too many people	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
884	Road closures	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
885	In Hollywood: tourism traffic as opposed to destination traffic, inattentive pedestrians and a sense of impatient entitlement by younger motorists; regionally: lack of convenient carpool routing and hassle-free interactions with safe public transport beyond a nuclear area.	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
886	rush hour, street closing,	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
887	Not enough convenient public transportation at the start of the route. I need to walk one mile to the metro station.	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
888	Too many cars, no incentive/perceived as unsafe to take Metro	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
889	construction, other movie premiers on Hollywood Blvd., closing Hollywood Blvd for events	7/19/2017 10:39 AM

890	Cruising, nightclubs	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
891	Tourists and bad planning	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
892	Terrible public transport (I would love to take the metro, but the bus to the metro only runs once every hour, and doesn't come back after 11 PM) + constant closing of Hland/Orange block of Hollywood Blvd + pedestrians crossing against the light or without regard for traffic. Many times I have seen pedestrians (usually tourists) wander into the street paying no attention, blocking traffic, sometimes even stopping in the street preventing an entire light cycle of cars from turning left or right. This happens at least once every time I drive in this area, usually 3 or 4 times. It takes me 15 minutes to get from my house to The Egyptian Theater, but including congestion of the area and parking and walking, it takes me upwards of an hour to get in the building.	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
893	Over development.	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
894	Tourists, homeless, no police directing traffic	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
895	Idiotic over-building, tourists who take two or three days to cross the street, poor traffic light coordination, tourists who drive two miles an hour, total lack of police and traffic control to hurry up the tourists and keep traffic moving. There are many free parking lots in Santa Monica, why aren't there any in Hollywood? The powers that be in Hollywood exhibit very little concern for those visiting their community, let alone those who live there.	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
896	Too many people. Plus the intersection of Hollywood and Highland sucks	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
897	Too many tourists, visitors and not enough parking spaces.	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
898	tour busses and the red crossing in front of el capitan. long turn line at highland. general rubbernecking	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
899	Population density + tourists exceed the transportation infrastructure capacity. We need a double-decker freeway or underground tunnels to alleviate the flow of traffic.	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
900	Constant premieres, construction, difficulty making left turns	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
901	The Hollywood Bowl, big premieres at the Chinese, lots of tourists/pedestrians, nightclub traffic.	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
902	More apartment building and construction. The traffic at Hollywood/Highland is worse since they changed the crosswalks.	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
903	Too many cars?	7/19/2017 10:37 AM
904	Overpopulation. Not enough plagues like the old days to purge and keep the human population in check.	7/19/2017 10:37 AM
905	Hollywood and Highland Mall, clubs, Hollywood Bowl	7/19/2017 10:37 AM
906	Tourism, too few left turn lights, people getting stuck in the middle of the crossings after light changes	7/19/2017 10:37 AM

908	Tourists	7/19/2017 10:36 AM
909	Not enough affordable parking. Businesses that do not have designated parking. Pedestrian traffic/crosswalks need their own stoplight regulation. Often cars cannot turn due to pedestrians.	7/19/2017 10:36 AM
910	Too many visitors all the time	7/19/2017 10:36 AM
911	Too much construction DURING weekday and evenings. Many more people moving to the area.	7/19/2017 10:36 AM
912	Too popular	7/19/2017 10:35 AM
913	Jay walkers, speeding causing accident	7/19/2017 10:35 AM
914	Too many people, construction, people who do not know how to drive	7/19/2017 10:35 AM
915	If you sell more cars, and buy more cars, there will be more cars on the roads! Obvious. Also, that big apartments complexes going in everywhere in already dense areas, where everyone has a car and they drive, so more cars on the road. Plus all the Uber and Lyft traffic, I imagine.	7/19/2017 10:35 AM
916	Increased housing, Hollywood Blvd closures (which are excessive)	7/19/2017 10:34 AM

917	Heavy tourist area, lack of use of the Metro trains and buses.	7/19/2017 10:34 AM
918	Tourists flooding the streets, all the shows and events put on in the area, and back up from the freeways during rush hour	7/19/2017 10:34 AM
919	It's just LA man	7/19/2017 10:34 AM
920	Lack of quality public transportation (effective, faster routes; cleaner facilities; better schedules); lack of safety and structure for cyclists and pedestrians. Overall: alternatives to one car per person.	7/19/2017 10:33 AM
921	Too many people.	7/19/2017 10:32 AM
922	It's just a popular place...lots of pedestrians and lots of drivers who do not know where they are going...lots of drivers looking for parking that isn't there...	7/19/2017 10:32 AM
923	Too many idiots driving SUVs, pickup trucks and cars when they should be walking, taking public transit or bicycling!	7/19/2017 10:32 AM
924	The car culture of L.A. to cruise Hollywood. It's the mindset of the people who come to the area.	7/19/2017 10:32 AM
925	Tourism, narrow streets, attitude of drivers,	7/19/2017 10:32 AM
926	Cruising, lookie-loos, tourists unaware of their destination, Uber and Lyft drivers looking for riders.	7/19/2017 10:32 AM

928	Crowds, tourists, population, road construction, walk of fame premieres	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
929	Lack of Affordable Parking	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
930	Too many cars, street works	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
931	Nobody wants to get out of their car, they are too snooty to take public transportation	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
932	Too many individuals using a car on their own rather than carpool. Introduce bus lanes to make buses a more attractive option	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
933	Too much development, and still not great access to the Metro Red Line trains from much of LA area.	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
934	Overcrowding and overdevelopment leading to not enough parking/too high parking. Everyone is fighting over the 6.00 Parkin game because nobody wants the $15.00 parking	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
935	not enough people take public transit	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
936	Construction. Everyone else looking for parking	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
937	Tour buses. Cruising.	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
938	Too many cars.	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
939	Constant events at the chinese theater, lack of affordable parking, street closures, one way traffic, tourists, the timing of each stoplight	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
940	Poor signal timing and not enough traffic officers to enforce anti-gridlock. Need more scramble signals to deal with pedestrians. Lack of clear parking alternatives on perimeter. Transit too crowded.	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
941	Ridiculous and too frequent closures esp Hollywood westbound from highland for premieres or other non essential events. Oscars ok, and that messes up the whole area for 10 days, so once a year is the limit. Need more Human traffic officers to direct flow as things change. The automatic signals are not adequate for traffic control as gridlock or slow downs occur, and their timing just makes it worse. Those big intersections need Human traffic officers every day m-f. And 24 hours from Friday to Monday Minimum!	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
942	Tourism	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
943	California car culture in general and a subway system that is not helpful to people who, by financial necessity, live well outside the reach of the subway	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
944	Tourists, jaywalking, construction, premieres, work commute at rush hour	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
945	over development	7/19/2017 10:30 AM

946	Closures, Urban development	7/19/2017 10:29 AM
947	CONSTRUCTION!	7/19/2017 10:29 AM
948	When street parking was replaced with tow-away restrictions, it contributed to people driving around looking for parking. In addition, the parking lots jacked their prices up ridiculously. This is a mess added to the resurgence of Hollywood and the increase in size of the population living there.	7/19/2017 10:29 AM
949	Tourists	7/19/2017 10:29 AM
950	Movie premiere events, Hollywood Bowl concerts, tourists.	7/19/2017 10:29 AM

956	traffic will never be fixed in Los Angeles	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
957	Pedestrians. Need more signals like at Hollywood & Highland that have Pedestrian Crossing Only (with diagonal crossing). It would be SAFER for everyone, and make traffic flow better.	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
958	Too many mixed use developments going up.	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
959	Rush hour, dinner rush, later night life like bars and clubs	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
960	Inconsistent closing of Hollywood Blvd. It should just be made into a walkway and close it off for good between Highland and Orange!	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
961	Over population	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
962	Small streets, too many cars, lots of pedestrian traffic, the Hollywood Bowl events, accidents.	7/19/2017 10:27 AM

964	Bike lanes clog roads	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
965	to many people and bad roads	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
966	This is a big touristic area, so a lot of people, including tourists who are looking around, or not sure where they are going. A lot of pedestrians that make it difficult to turn at the intersection.	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
967	Everyone searching for a spot that isn't paid parking. Tourism.	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
968	Cars in turn lanes unable to move because of pedestrians	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
969	Too many vehicles! Not enough space for vehicles and people.	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
970	Road work? Too many cars in LA. (Carpool everybody!) I would take public transit, but the transients around the Egyptian have made it so unpleasant.	7/19/2017 10:26 AM

977	tourism, gawkers, Saturday nights out.	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
978	Traffic lights. Need more left-turn only lights. Too many tour buses. Not enough parking.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
979	Overdevelopment. Too many new residential buildings constructed without sufficient parking.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM

980	Anti gridlock zones- very confusing, too many parking signs so drivers block traffic trying to read them. Too many pedestrians who are tourists and not watching what they are doing. Closures for premieres, etc	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
981	Tourism, bars, & restaurants on Hollywood Blvd. commuters driving to east side.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
982	Lack of a forward looking integrated, seamless transportation system that is composed of light rail, monorails, buses, taxis, ride sharing, bicycles, pedestrian and even skateboards and scooters friendly. With adequate parking, safety, roads and sidewalks that are maintained, traffic lights that are timed. We haven't taken a holistic approach to transportation. The entertainment venues are important stakeholders who can be advocates for their patrons and also benefit from a transportation transformation.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
983	Overpopulation? Ha	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
984	Traffic lights not being coordinated as a system to include a "green wave" for major roads. Too many single drivers.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
985	intentional and engineered overpopulation	7/19/2017 10:25 AM

991	Tourism, construction.	7/19/2017 10:24 AM
992	No turn lanes; traffic is blocked when people want to make left turns. Pedestrian traffic is constant, making it hard to turn right.	7/19/2017 10:23 AM

1003	Too many people and cars, not enough parking, too expensive	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
1004	Hollywood & Highland. But traffic is bad all over. You just have to plan and not go last minute.	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
1005	It's not just Hollywood, it's the whole Westside, and LA in general. Traffic's increased dramatically in pas years due to new construction.	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
1006	More people living and working in the area.	7/19/2017 10:22 AM

1016	There are just too many people. And too many of those people on their phones and/or not sensitive to things going on around them	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
1017	Constant construction that never ends and freeway proximity	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
1018	Uber and Lyft drivers, buses, people not carpooling, no viable/safe/desirable public transport options.	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
1019	Premieres, tourists	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
1020	I think the roads just can't handle the amount of traffic in the area. Tourist traffic (i.e. people who don't have a good idea of where they are going, where to park, etc.) is also a contributing factor. Closures on Hollywood Blvd. for movie premieres are also a factor occasionally, but that's just part of living in Hollywood!	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
1021	People driving and sightseeing at the same time. People crossing streets even though they aren't supposed to.	7/19/2017 10:21 AM

1028	Tourists, premieres..	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
1029	Unrestrained, constant development Very poor traffic signal timing (not enough green left turn arrows for instance) METRO service is not very good / safe, so many people drive	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
1030	Too many cars	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
1031	Special events / premieres, street closures, tourists	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
1032	Side streets with no lights, so pedestrians keep walking across and cars can't turn onto the street, so then the main street that they're on doesn't move.	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
1033	Los Angeles in general!	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
1034	regular density	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
1035	Lack of large public parking structures! So much space is wasted in Hollywood on single level parking that is overpriced.	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
1036	Tourists crossing against lights, not enough parking, bad traffic lights	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
1037	Tourists	7/19/2017 10:19 AM

1039	More cars, buses, people, construction, less available parking	7/19/2017 10:19 AM

1054	Tourists, nightspots, development, events, L.A. car culture, people on their phones while driving, accidents	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
1055	Tourism, lack of space	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
1056	Hollywood Bowl, Hollywood premieres down the street, rush hour	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
1057	Building large apartment complexes / increased tourism.	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
1058	Tourism, obviously. Which is fine. We need it and we want it. But flow of traffic TO and AROUND Hollywood Boulevard needs to be streamlined. It needs to be easier / safer for residents and locals.	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
1059	Don't come to the area enough to say.	7/19/2017 10:16 AM

1067	Way too much development! Not just construction blocking everything, but too many people in too small of a space. Tourists will stop coming if it's no fun to be here, and it's getting that way, for sure.	7/19/2017 10:15 AM

1135	Tourists, tour buses, regular traffic	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
1136	I do think there is overdevelopment and not a well thought out plan for how to handle that congestion. I used to live in Hollywood about five years ago and could also see how bad the streets were getting. I walked and took public transportation a lot but I used to think twice about taking my car on the weekends just to even get out of the Hollywood area. It doesn't feel well thought out to me, how to handle the traffic for all the new retail/restaurants plus housing. The best thing would be to have strong public transportation.	7/19/2017 10:11 AM

1	This probably doesn't apply to me, I live a few blocks from the Egyptian and walk over.	7/24/2017 1:30 PM
2	Any help with making parking affordable and accessible would be greatly appreciated! I love the Egyptian and would go more than I do if I could, it is very difficult to afford parking after paying for a ticket as well.	7/24/2017 12:08 PM
3	Love the theatre, but I usually scrap the idea of going to screenings on weeknights because of the nightmare of having to a) commute during rush hour and b) find parking during rush hour	7/24/2017 11:11 AM
4	Metro has made things much easier; I take an MTA bus to Highland & Sunset from work, then the Red Line and the Expo Line home. Parking at the Aero is a much bigger barrier for me.	7/24/2017 10:52 AM
5	Been coming to the Egyptian since the Cinematheque first restored the place. Great theater, great programs. Used to be able to park cheaply in the neighborhood, even finding some free spaces on surrounding streets. The parking situation has gotten ridiculous around the theater in recent years, and traffic in Hollywood has increased, as well as traffic on the 101. One other factor, too, that the survey didn't seem to mention: walking from the Metro station at Hollywood and Highland is sometimes bogged down by big events and movie premieres at those venues ("TCL" Chinese Theater and El Capitan).	7/24/2017 10:18 AM
6	Often I see a show i am interested in but then I see the date and know that there is another event in the neighborhood that will cause the region to be packed with cars and crowded sidewalks so I then choose to not see the movie.	7/24/2017 7:10 AM
7	Most of my friends who also visit the theater, have complained about parking. It's a shame when someone can't visit such a fantastic theater for the sole reason of parking being too impossible. The same goes for the cinefamily. No good parking will make the theater suffer further	7/24/2017 12:48 AM
8	When the Egyptian used to validate parking for Hollywood & Highland a few years ago, with a resulting parking cost of $2, that was an ideal arrangement. Ever since that arrangement ended, parking has been both more expensive and stressful. On weeknights, I try to grab a metered spot if available, since the meters only go until 8pm; on weekends, I often park in the lot behind the theatre, though it does eat at me to pay almost double for parking what I am paying for my movie ticket as a member, though I've started doing so for safety reasons. (I used to park on the other side of La Brea where there are no meters and do the long walk to the theatre, but stopped doing so after multiple news reports of random stabbings on Hollywood Blvd made me leery about walking that long route back to my car late at night after your double features end.) This makes me far more likely to choose a show at the Aero Theatre in Santa Monica if you're running a title at both locations.	7/23/2017 11:05 PM
9	It used to be very easy for me to visit the theater. Despite living very close in Los Feliz, it is now a bit of a hassle to go there. I dislike Hollywood actually and don't like to visit there often. The Egyptian is one of the only reasons I will visit Hollywood at all.	7/23/2017 10:30 PM
10	I love the Egyptian, but the one hour or more drive, plus the $12-$20 for parking, on top of the movie ticket price means that I'll by the Blu-Ray to a movie if it's available rather than go to the Egyptian. It's just too much, now. I used to to 10-12 times a year. Now, I only go once or twice.	7/23/2017 7:00 PM
11	Much of our drive is on surface streets, and the congestion is ridiculous nearly every day we have attended a program at the Egyptian (about 8 times in the past 4 years). Besides Hollywood and Highland Center, we have tried the surface lots north and south of Hollywood Blvd. In all cases, parking is pretty expensive for a 2-to-3-hour movie.	7/23/2017 6:58 PM
12	I would love to be able to park at the Egyptian, either in a garage or a lot that the theatre validates. I am a loyal American Cinematheque customer but the commute is by far the most stressful part of the experience.	7/23/2017 4:43 PM
14	There should be posted free theater parking for ticket holders. Preferrably a multi leveled parking garage and possibly a rear entrance.	7/23/2017 4:09 PM

15	nope	7/23/2017 2:57 PM
16	n/a	7/23/2017 2:52 PM
17	I would attend Egyptian Theatre events more often if parking costs were reasonable. Validations for parking lots in the area provided by the Egyptian would be helpful.	7/23/2017 1:00 PM
18	The homeless/Substance abuse/mentally ill on the streets has gotten out of control....and the city is not dealing with this in a comprehensive manner....	7/23/2017 12:50 PM
19	There should be more accessible parking for the customers of the Egyptian	7/23/2017 12:22 PM
20	It sucks	7/23/2017 11:58 AM
21	Lack of disabled parking is a travesty! Disabled people love the movies, but can't walk from Hollywood and Highland because the sidewalks are overcrowded and dangerous. My son (who is disabled) has been pushed and shoved and fallen too many times. So now we drive. Driving isn't my first choice, but it's the only safe choice for my son.	7/23/2017 11:57 AM
22	Its really awful, I wish the Egyptian was anywhere but Hollywood.	7/23/2017 11:36 AM
23	Since the films only show at night and I live in Orange County, I only get up there for Saturday shows. Usually have to drive. The one time I took the train up to the subway, I had to go to a hotel to spend the night as I couldn't get back to OC.	7/23/2017 11:04 AM
24	I always try to arrive very early so parking isn't an issue...I just wish there were better food options in walking distance of the theater.	7/23/2017 10:40 AM
25	As great as the theater is, it saddens me when a movie I've been dying to see on the big screen is announced to be playing at the Egyptian because it is such an enormous pain to drive and park there (I'm coming from WeHo). Most of the time, no matter how much I would love to watch the movie, I decide that the hassle is not worth it. If I absolutely must go, I have to leave work early, which isn't ideal. I would much rather drive the extra 20 min to the Aero for the ease of parking and lack of traffic.	7/23/2017 10:27 AM
26	Parking soon will cost more than a movie ticket. That's when I lose interest and stay home.	7/23/2017 10:18 AM
27	The biggest inconvenience is that in most cases, the parking costs more than the ticket to the actual movie or event.	7/23/2017 8:14 AM
28	Wish there was convenient transportation from Union Station to Hollywood, esp after movie times. (Trains to the Inland Empire stop by 11 pm)	7/23/2017 8:05 AM
29	Let's hope no more buildings are added to the area!	7/23/2017 1:07 AM
30	Your parking lot behind the theater is a ridiculous high fee! We're already paying to attend the show...No guests attending your movie should be asked to pay $15! It should be $8-$10 maximum for only guests with validation. Everyone else $15	7/22/2017 9:35 PM
31	It is frustrating because given the ticket, food and drinks plus if you park in a lot. You're looking at 30-40 bucks. If Egyptian had a lot of their own I would come more often.	7/22/2017 9:30 PM
32	I would visit more often, but the drive and cost of parking (and lack of interesting screenings) is prohibitive.	7/22/2017 8:03 PM
33	Public transportation to/from the Egyptian from the South Bay area of LA is complex and incompatible with screening start and end times.	7/22/2017 8:02 PM
34	Parking is horrible close to amazing theater	7/22/2017 7:53 PM
35	I love Hollywood, I love the Egyptian Theater, but the attempt to turn Hollywood Boulevard into Times Square is MISGUIDED it is RUINING HOLLYWOOD	7/22/2017 7:29 PM
36	It would be nice if they validated for parking behind the theatre.	7/22/2017 7:04 PM
37	I go to the Aero more often than the Egyptian. The programming is wonderful for both theaters, but parking at the Aero is free and it's closer to where I live.	7/22/2017 4:02 PM
38	should offer free valet parking or validated parking in a parking structure nearby	7/22/2017 3:46 PM
39	Would be great to get validated parking for Egyptian or some sort of lot.	7/22/2017 3:19 PM

40	The city council has really screwed us. Traffic was always bad, but it has become acutely worse in the past 2 years or so. I very much appreciate you trying to find new solutions, but am doubtful that any are to be had at this point. But there is no question that traffic, commute times, and parking costs have prevented me from attending the Egyptian more than I otherwise would.	7/22/2017 3:18 PM
41	Public parking around Hollywood is getting to be a serious problem. Not enough lots, so the ones left can charge exorbitant prices. Sometimes the parking is more than the movie!	7/22/2017 3:17 PM
43	One problem about public transportation in Hollywood is that when its late at night riding the bus or waiting for a train make you feel vulnerable to crime. Hollywood really need to crack down hard on crime if it wants to preserve its economy. I hear of too many instances of car windows being smashed and personal items stolen in Hollywood.	7/22/2017 1:04 PM
44	Almost 20 years ago, it took me less than 10 minutes to drive from my Hollywood hills home to the Egyptian, park, purchase a ticket, and be inside the theater. I now have to allow about 30 minutes or more to do the same. I doubt if that can change very much because the Hollywood of 20 years ago (no Metro, no Hollywood & Highland, less street parades, protests, festivals & premiers) is not that of the Hollywood of today. And that's not necessarily a bad thing. It's just harder to access it all.	7/22/2017 11:56 AM
45	the challenges with parking have greatly reduced (almost eliminated) my desire to visit the Egyptian	7/22/2017 10:40 AM
46	It's the single biggest reason we try NOT to go to the Egyptian unless we really have to. We prefer the Aero because it's much easier (and way less stressful) to drive to. While parking is not the easiest, if we time it right, we usually end up finding a spot.	7/22/2017 10:20 AM
47	I feel like the Egyptian should have it's own parking lot, even if they charged for it. At least then we would know the money is going to the theatre.	7/22/2017 12:30 AM
48	It's an effort to get there but always worth the journey. It's Hollywood, after all. If it were closer, I'd go more often.	7/22/2017 12:12 AM
49	I don't mind parking at Hollywood and Highland to go to the Egyptian Theatre; what bothers me, however, is some of the "permanent" crowd that has established "residence" on the corner of Hollywood and Highland. Some of these people look very shady and, especially in the late hours after a movie, I don't feel very comfortable to have to walk past them.	7/22/2017 12:07 AM
50	Parking is definitely an issue. Is there a guide?	7/21/2017 10:21 PM
51	I wish the lots near by were cheaper. then I wouldn't have to park so far away.	7/21/2017 10:08 PM
52	Having to pay money for parking plus the cost of movie tickets and traffic will some time deter me from going	7/21/2017 10:07 PM
53	offer discount or free parking for members! like outfest they had free parking at DGA/Harmony all the time, for the general public	7/21/2017 7:28 PM
54	I take either the Red Line or the 222 bus. More people need to take transit in LA.	7/21/2017 5:47 PM
55	Uber/Lyft are just as expensive or more expensive than parking. Please communicate to the city that over development is hurting business and quality of life in LA. There are many business areas I won't go to anymore because of traffic and lack of parking. This is not good for the city, despite how many unaffordable housing units they build.	7/21/2017 5:44 PM
56	Seems like options are shrinking and costs are going up	7/21/2017 4:42 PM
57	I would go to the Egyptian much more frequently if parking/traffic were not an issue. I prefer the Aero for that exact reason. However, parking and traffic wouldn't deter me from going to the Egyptian if there's programming I genuinely want to see.	7/21/2017 4:14 PM
58	If there was reasonably priced, accessible parking near the theater- I'd absolutely come to more stuff. I used to live nearby and would walk over all the time when I was bored or just marginally interested in a movie. Now I live in Pico Robertson and I only come anymore when something really special catches my eye. The drive would be worth it if I could park close to the theater for no more than like $5	7/21/2017 3:34 PM

59	Easy parking (a dedicated lot) would entice me to come to screenings far more often. Would make getting to shows on time less stressful (especially during Beyond Fest when many shows are sold out).	7/21/2017 3:32 PM
60	It should be free or discounted with validation	7/21/2017 3:31 PM
61	I walk there! www.pamelahill.net https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aw1cBe2zzNY	7/21/2017 2:18 PM
62	Parking has been getting steadily worse and is going to continue to do so with all the high-rise construction. I came for a free screening the other day, and between traffic, the distance of the drive, and the cost of parking, I'm going to have to reconsider doing that in the future.	7/21/2017 1:12 PM
63	Will most likely try to use the Metro more often	7/21/2017 1:08 PM
64	If a more consistent solution could be made available that would be nice	7/21/2017 12:39 PM
65	n/a	7/21/2017 11:31 AM
66	I used to be able to find street parking or reasonably priced lot parking. Both are harder and harder to find, which is making me less and less willing to go to the Egyptian or anywhere else in Hollywood. I would take public transportation but it doesn't take me anywhere near where I live. Hollywood used to be too gross and unsafe to go to regularly. Now it's too crowded and unsafe.	7/21/2017 11:19 AM
67	Love the theatre!	7/21/2017 11:05 AM
68	It seems bad but I've always found a spot	7/21/2017 10:48 AM
69	I am , I guess, one of the lucky ones who has a companion that we use the Handi Placard for metered parking otherwise I do indeed know places around where no fee required. I never use parking as a reason not to go to the Egyptian. With the AERO it's just too far from Sunland. I've never been to that theatre but I understand parking isn't quite the issue it is in Hollywood.	7/21/2017 10:37 AM
70	Complaining about and lobbying against development and density for the sake of more convenient parking is incredibly selfish. If I get priced out of the city due to lack affordable housing (HINT: I don't make 150k a year, and can only afford to rent.), I won't be around to patronize the Egyptian anyway.	7/21/2017 10:16 AM
71	Please validate for Hollywood & Highland parking	7/21/2017 10:11 AM
72	I only go to late screenings and typically on Sundays because otherwise I can't refill the meter in time	7/21/2017 10:11 AM
73	Stop building high rises on all the parking lots.	7/21/2017 10:01 AM

75	Appalling traffic, appalling prices to park.	7/21/2017 7:20 AM
76	It's definitely discouraging to pay for a Cinematheque when so many enticing programs take place at a location that's WAY too much trouble to get to.	7/20/2017 11:15 PM
77	I wish it was more reasonably priced, sometimes it cost more than the ticket for the movie when it comes to parking.	7/20/2017 10:29 PM
78	There's no solution. The theater is in the middle of Hollywood but god forbid you leave that historic location for another.	7/20/2017 10:26 PM
79	Pleeease, if there's any hope of making it better, let's do it. I want to attend more screenings. I also really want to volunteer at the Egyptian, but the limited/costly parking and sketchy neighborhood late night are scaring me off.	7/20/2017 10:22 PM
80	Need more city-operated parking structures with reasonable rates, and perhaps a free shuttle bus on Hollywood Blvd.	7/20/2017 9:54 PM
81	It's funny that I haven't thought about why I don't go to the theater more often, but transportation and parking are definitely the major reasons.	7/20/2017 8:50 PM
82	My main complaint is the cost of parking in a nearby lot. I think you should be able to park for less than $10.	7/20/2017 8:34 PM
83	Get a parking structure or at least some type of validated parking obviously.	7/20/2017 7:58 PM
84	not sure of all the options officially from the Egyptian	7/20/2017 7:54 PM

85	Metro Red line doesn't run late -- but Egyptian movies do!! How can we take subway/Metro when it's past midnight??	7/20/2017 7:06 PM

90	Because I can't come as often as I like I am willing to shell out the money for a parking lot, but I feel bad for people who can't afford to do the same. I'm sure it affects attendance at the Egyptian	7/20/2017 5:09 PM

94	Would love (in a ideal, utopian world) for the Egyptian to get its own lot and offer validated (gratis) parking for patrons.	7/20/2017 4:41 PM
95	It appears it's going to get worse.	7/20/2017 4:36 PM
96	I might consider valet parking if it were at the theatre, but only maybe.	7/20/2017 4:35 PM
97	I usually park in the same lot on Selma (to the left of the church), but on July 19th, I was told by the lot attendant that they would be closing at 11. He said he could stretch it to 11:30, but as I was seeing a double feature, I did not think this would allow me enough time (and I ended up being right, as we got out just before midnight). There's another lot further away that I have used dozens of times for other venues through the years. It is typically free of charge in the middle of the week but was now charging $15. So I drove to yet another nearby lot but left when I found out they were charging $20, which I find to be highway robbery. Thankfully, there were two spots left in the $10 lot on the corner of Schrader and Selma. The attendant told me the lot was open all night, which was also an enticement.	7/20/2017 4:10 PM

99	The price of the parking lots are now more than the movie tickets.	7/20/2017 4:05 PM
100	I used to drive from Orange County to the Egyptian all of the time from 1999-2012. But the traffic on the freeway then getting onto Hollywood Blvd. simply became too much. It's always been crowded on the street, but the new developments in Hollywood have made it a nightmare to navigate.	7/20/2017 4:00 PM
101	Parking has never been the issue for me, re: me going to a movie at the Egyptian. Sometimes it's a pain in the ass, but worse case scenario I can usually nab a spot in hollywood and highland	7/20/2017 3:54 PM
102	please add a parking lot for Egyptian theater	7/20/2017 3:53 PM
103	The parking lot closest to the theatre shouldn't charge as much or sometimes more than the theatre ticket. It is really inconvenient. Egyptian should have a discounted parking rate for ticket holders at lots closest to the theatre.	7/20/2017 3:45 PM
104	Validation for Hollywood and Highland parking would be really great if plausible.	7/20/2017 3:44 PM
105	H&H used to have reasonable rates for locals so you could see a film and have time to dine.	7/20/2017 3:26 PM
106	Hollywood & Highland is awful, I really hate going there.	7/20/2017 3:18 PM
107	None	7/20/2017 3:07 PM
108	Parking in the area is extremely expensive. The traffic is heavy but to be expected most days, but the cost of parking is really my biggest hesitation in attending shows at the Egyptian.	7/20/2017 2:52 PM
109	It costs a lot of money.	7/20/2017 2:33 PM
110	Walking is the way to go. Now that metro expo goes to Santa Monica, I look at whats at the Aero as well!	7/20/2017 2:28 PM

111	Sadly, we rarely go anymore due to traffic. And the time involved getting there. It is more of a hassle, and we are always worried about being to late to get a decent seat, etc.	7/20/2017 2:16 PM
112	usually see films at the Aero in SM, closer to home. needs to be a really special screening to go all the way to the Egyptian	7/20/2017 1:51 PM
113	I'm glad I live three miles away as I can sometimes take the DASH bus to Argyle and Hollywood (from Los Feliz) then walk the rest of the way. But the DASH is often late and doesn't run past 7pm or so so I have to either Uber or take the subway home. I try not to drive as it's so expensive to park but as a woman, I don't feel safe taking the subway or buses later at night if I'm alone.	7/20/2017 1:44 PM
114	There are less and less places to park! Many of the lots are now residential buildings.	7/20/2017 1:42 PM
115	Parking behind the theater is ridiculously priced.	7/20/2017 1:04 PM

118	It's hard to find decent metered parking, each street has different meters with different times and you have to factor in if you're seeing a single or double feature and will you be able to feed the meter and get back in time for the movie. There's also so many homeless people with tents set up on the sidewalk and as a single female I feel very uncomfortable walking by these tent cities.	7/20/2017 12:43 PM
119	I would come more if I could drive and park for free. Walking is not easy	7/20/2017 12:42 PM
120	I think that parking is way too expensive in Hollywood.	7/20/2017 12:23 PM
121	If parking and traffic flow were more convenient I would attend more screenings.	7/20/2017 12:22 PM
122	I used to live far away (north sfv), but I would come out often for screenings that interested me. I live much closer now (ktown) so I've been going more often. I've had trouble driving through Hollywood but that's usually more related to leaving when the streets are congested with Uber/Lyft blocking half the road and other events that get out at that time.	7/20/2017 12:19 PM

124	It definitely affects my decision to visit. I live in Culver City and on weekdays it can take up to 90 minutes to get to the Egyptian. Weekends are generally better. I miss the days of validated parking at Hollywood and Highland, but parking behind the theater means I don't have to walk along Hollywood Blvd. which is a plus.	7/20/2017 12:15 PM

128	You guys are great! Getting the Egyptian is fine for me cause I live in Echo Park. It's getting to the AERO that's hard.	7/20/2017 11:58 AM
129	It's just life but it's just getting hard to move any we're in LA every one has car even the young ones. It's just hard	7/20/2017 11:41 AM
130	I miss the joy of an easy 15 minute commute and handy parking, and would go MUCH more often if that ease returned.	7/20/2017 11:40 AM
131	Parking in Hollywood SUCKS	7/20/2017 11:21 AM
132	I end up going to the Aero way more often just due to the easier parking.	7/20/2017 11:14 AM
133	Metro rail lines do not run often enough during late night hours. After 9 pm, there is often a 20 minute wait between arrival times.	7/20/2017 11:08 AM
134	Parking next door to the theater that would take a validation from the theater.	7/20/2017 11:03 AM
135	Don't feel comfortable walking back to Hollywood and Highland too much after midnight.	7/20/2017 10:55 AM
136	Please make the parking behind the theater cheaper. It sucks to pay almost more than a movie ticket to park there.	7/20/2017 10:49 AM
137	For the evening shows it's outrageous how hard it is to find affordable parking. I'm paying more for parking than my movie ticket	7/20/2017 10:39 AM

138	I wish there were bike racks closer to the actual theater in the courtyard. I've locked to the big gates a couple times before. Seems like there would be room for a nice bike rack to the left of the ticket windows.	7/20/2017 10:39 AM
139	Parking is awful, it's the biggest factor that prevents me from going to more movies there.	7/20/2017 10:30 AM
140	I hate driving and parking in Hollywood because of the congestion, so that's why I take Metro	7/20/2017 10:24 AM
141	It would be awesome if there was free or reduced parking rates for the Egyptian. Perhaps you guys could make a deal so that people going to the theatre park for less in the lot behind you. It's so easy to find parking for the aero a huge part of why me and my friends prefer it to the Egyptian even though technically the Egyptian is bigger has a better sound system and is more historic. Still love the Egyptian the parking issue could definitely make things more difficult at times	7/20/2017 10:19 AM
142	The price is a deterrent. But since I come from OC, and not finding parking ends any trip before it begins.	7/20/2017 10:09 AM
143	I live in East Hollywood and the Egyptian is fairly close . . . but I sometimes would still rather go to the Aero simply because it's a more pleasant, less congested neighborhood and the parking is easy.	7/20/2017 10:07 AM

148	Too many meters and parking restrictions make it difficult to park nearby, homes need more parking as well. Not sure how to address the issue.	7/20/2017 9:08 AM
149	If I could easily park in Hollywood and not pay a ton of money, I'd go way more often. As it stands, it's too much of a hassle and I can't afford it.	7/20/2017 9:06 AM

157	Ticketing and info personnel need to be in place at least 2 - 3 hours before the event. I have arrived early and found no one to offer advice or sell tickets. At least I could get the info I needed and then take advantage of the Pig and Whistle or other restaurants in the area. That would encourage me to make an evening of being in Hollywood.	7/20/2017 7:51 AM
158	There are so many public transit options to the Hollywood area. We don't need more infrastructure space devoted to cars or parking, we need fewer people to drive their cars to Hollywood.	7/20/2017 7:44 AM
159	Parking is harder in Hollywood because of all the construction.	7/20/2017 7:31 AM
160	The Egyptian and The Cinematheque are cultural jewels! Patrons deserve affordable parking options. Parking should not cost more than the movie ticket and popcorn!	7/20/2017 7:25 AM
161	Parking for theatre goes should be free	7/20/2017 6:45 AM
162	Improvements need to be made to public transportation network. For example, Santa Monica needs more late night and weekend cross town buses, from North to South.	7/20/2017 6:40 AM

163	It's very handy to have the surface lot behind the Egyptian. If we lose that lot, it will be much harder to visit the area.	7/20/2017 6:30 AM
164	I no long live in Los Angeles, but when I did, I took the 180 bus, when I lived in Eagle Rock, or the Metro Red line, when I lived in DTLA on Olive Street. When I visit Los Angeles, I lodge in Little Tokyo and use the Red Line for Hollywood.	7/20/2017 5:27 AM
165	It would be great if there was a lot that had validation with film stamp from Egyptian , so you only pay a few dollars with film validation , as they do at Hollywood & Highland.	7/20/2017 2:26 AM
166	The Egyptian is my favorite theater. I wish I could attend more screenings. Years ago, the Egyptian offered validated parking at the Hollywood & Highland garage. When that was discontinued I started parking at metered spots on Sunset & Las Palmas. The early screenings on weekends are difficult due to the 2 hour limit on metered parking. I'm very concerned that the Crossroads Hollywood Project is going to eliminate the possibility of street parking in the area due to construction and increased density. I can't afford to attend screenings very often if I'm forced to pay $10 or more for parking.	7/20/2017 1:34 AM
167	I am lucky enough to live/work nearby the theater, I really cannot imagine how it must be for other people. Additionally, I do not go to the Aero theater much because of its near-total lack of parking.	7/20/2017 1:07 AM
168	I live at about Franklin and Fuller. I'd rather drive than walk, and I'd be willing to pay a premium to park. If I were the Emperor of Hollywood, here's what I'd build: a parking structure similar to the one at Arclight Hollywood, but at least seven stories high, stretching from the area behind the Egyptian & Arena Theater of Arts to Selma, and from McCadden to Las Palmas. Entrances on all three streets. Well-staffed with attendants at all exits, maintenance, and security. Well-lit. Prominent security cameras, four elevators. Open from 8:00am to 3:00am. $5 for 3 hours of parking, and $1 for each extra half hour with a maximum charge of $20. Free popcorn. I think that covers it. What do I win?	7/20/2017 12:54 AM

185	too many malodorous people sitting near me on the metro	7/19/2017 10:14 PM

186	The traffic and parking makes driving inconvenient. We live near the Red Line which is nice, but when the movies get out late at night, I don't feel very safe walking back to the station and waiting at the platform.	7/19/2017 9:57 PM
187	I would go more if I didn't have to pay so much for parking after having to pay for the movie tickets, driving thru all the congestion and walking to and from the parking lots late at night. It doesn't always feel safe.	7/19/2017 9:56 PM
188	I would like to use the light rail system to get to and from the Egyptian, but last time I checked the trains stopped running before the program would end. The lot directly behind the Egyptian will sometimes charge $20 to park (Friday/Saturday nights?), which makes me move to another lot. If the cost of parking continues to go up I will have to seriously rethink attending the Egyptian Theatre.	7/19/2017 9:55 PM
189	A deal with a nearby parking lot and/or Hollywood & Highland would be nice. I live a couple miles south and the 212/312 bus would be very convenient for me, but I would be worried to take it there for an evening show and have to take it back at 10pm. No one lives around me to take it with me either, so I just end up finding street parking or parking at the mall for whatever exorbitant Hollywood rate they charge.	7/19/2017 9:44 PM
190	It is ridiculously expensive to park, and there is not enough of it.	7/19/2017 9:34 PM
191	Unless it is raining, Hollywood & Highland parking is convenient enough. But it would be great if the Egyptian Theatre could validate for H&H like the El Capitan does. That would help soften some of the blow so that we could attend the Egyptian more often.	7/19/2017 9:32 PM
192	wayyy too much development	7/19/2017 9:27 PM
193	Theatre should publicise Metro & bus connections more.	7/19/2017 9:15 PM
194	I take the Metro Rail from time to time, but parking there just went to being paid (at the North Hollywood Station). That has been something that has been deterring me from using that system.	7/19/2017 9:14 PM
195	With so many venues competing for parking, its become even worse than it used to be. And unsafe. Selma was a decent street to drive down, but now it's backed up by valet down the street past La Brea.	7/19/2017 9:13 PM
196	Please help organize South Bay, OC & West Side film club car pools so we can sign up to meet and car pool! You guys rock!	7/19/2017 9:01 PM
197	Have your own private lot that doesn't charge extra just to park to then pay to see a flick. Paying twice for one thing is the reason why I haven't come here as frequently as before. At New Bev, the regulars know where to park for free locally in the neighborhoods; that would be cool too.	7/19/2017 9:00 PM
198	I love what you guys do, and I truly would attend more if parking were easier. I usually don't go because I'm getting off work trying to catch a show at a certain time which means I'm getting there moments before showtime and I don't ever have cash on me (nor time to go to an ATM), which is required for the lots close to the theatre. Thus, I normally park at Hollywood/Highland. Please consider allowing credit cards to pay for parking.	7/19/2017 8:51 PM
199	Parking too expensive	7/19/2017 8:49 PM
200	I wish there is validated parking away from the congested major streets like Hollywood Blvd. I don't like going to the Egyptian on weekend evenings because Hollywood Bl is way too crowded with cars, pedestrians and vendors.	7/19/2017 8:30 PM
201	Why don't you try having screenings in other places besides Hollywood?	7/19/2017 8:30 PM

220	I wish I could see more of the programs that run at the Egyptian running at the Aero ;)	7/19/2017 6:16 PM
221	Easier, affordable parking would make Egyptian attendance super-wonderful, but the programs are worth any typical LA traffic hassle.	7/19/2017 6:12 PM
222	I love the Egyptian - but I hate the parking. I would probably attend 2-3 times a month (depending on film schedule, of course), but paying $10 in a lot or perhaps less on a sketchy Hollywood does not appeal to me. I am often worried about my car's safety while I am at the theater. It's a shame the lot behind the theater isn't free or more affordable. It's a true shame because the Egyptian is a great venue with wonderful films. I pretty much never go anymore.	7/19/2017 6:09 PM

238	Hollywood Blvd should follow the Third Street Promenade model: close Hollywood to cars entirely between LaBrea and Vine. This would make the entire visitor/tourist zone around the Chinese/El Cap/Egyptian/Pantages/Pacific theatres pleasant and vibrant - the world-class destination it could and should be.	7/19/2017 4:42 PM
239	Ask about pedestrians (walking to the Theatre) being congested/inhibited/slowed/impeded/blocked by vendors, (child) strollers, homeless people, Scientologists and others.	7/19/2017 4:40 PM
240	Parking is really the ONLY obstacle I have to going to the Egyptian more often. If that free shuttle from West Hollywood to Hollywood & Highland ran at more than rush hours, I would totally use that.	7/19/2017 4:39 PM
241	It is a bit of a nuisance.	7/19/2017 4:36 PM
242	I wiish the Egyptian were not in Hollywood--I love everything else about it.	7/19/2017 4:32 PM
243	Parking near the Egyptian has gotten worse in recent years mainly due to construction in the area taking away available metered spots & loading zones. Parking should be free or validated free for patrons. Meter Maids should stop writing bogus tickets	7/19/2017 4:29 PM
244	I drove and parked on my first visit. Lack of secure parking lots and expensive rates. Now I take the Metro Red exclusively. It's a MAJOR incentive for visiting and I find it cheap, fast and convenient. The only snag is I take the Blue Line home and need to be at 7th/Metro at 1am for the last train. In other words, double features (especially with longer running times) can be tricky. But Metro is still awesome, make sure you thank them for bringing you customers! :)	7/19/2017 4:28 PM
245	I'd love to take Metro but generally events get out too late for me to walk home from Metro.	7/19/2017 4:23 PM
246	I wish Metro Line 96's hours were extended so that I wouldn't be forced to take a cab from Union Station home as one of my only means of completing my transportation home from the Egyptian Theater.	7/19/2017 4:17 PM
248	It is risky to have shared parking nearest the theater because often this results in looking for another place to park last minute on account of unexpected special events at nearby venues, which may fill up the lot or cause a dramatic increase in parking price, and people may be late to the theater because of this.	7/19/2017 4:14 PM
249	Meters need to be longer time limits.	7/19/2017 4:08 PM
250	I've wondered if a small part of blessed sacrament parking lot, accessed from the part they rent out, could be rented for volunteers. Would not even need monitoring and church might rent to AC for tickets they could raffle off or use for staff.	7/19/2017 4:07 PM

257	I love the Egyptian Theatre and look forward to your movies. It's my second favorite theater in the world (I love the Arclight too).	7/19/2017 3:45 PM
258	Street Parking tickets are expensive and the parking is complicated. Off street parking is expensive.	7/19/2017 3:37 PM
259	I would come more if parking was $5- or less. I never know in advance what the cost will be so that is also a hinderance as to it being worth it.	7/19/2017 3:33 PM

261	I don't think additional parking lots or widening our roads is the best answer to the congestion. I would hope improving the infrastructure of and increasing the funding for public transportation was pursued.	7/19/2017 3:30 PM
262	Parking is so expensive... Folks going to the theatre should get validation. On the weekends, I just don't go because the price goes up on weekends or for special events. Don't appreciate the gouging.	7/19/2017 3:29 PM
263	I absolutely love to see movies at the Egyptian. But when you factor in parking cost and extra time, it becomes cost prohibitive compared to going to another theater that validates for parking. For that reason, I only come there to special screenings. If parking were cheaper or included, and nearby, I'd come much more often.	7/19/2017 3:26 PM
264	Never enough parking in Hollywood.	7/19/2017 3:25 PM
265	It's a big bother.	7/19/2017 3:25 PM
266	My biggest concern is that when I go alone, there are times I don't feel very safe, particularly when a movie lets out late at night. I don't go as often as I'd like because it's hard to find someone to go with so I am not walking alone. I generally Park at H&H because if alone, I can say with crowds. But the back street lots are a little too isolated.	7/19/2017 3:23 PM
267	Nearby parking presently provided by low efficiency (but maximum profit for owner) surface-lot (single level) parking. Need to bite bullet and build a few large multi-story parking garages. (Compare how easy, AND LESS EXPENSIVE, it is to park at Arclight Hwood parking structure, than at the flat lots near Egyptian. We are bwing ripped-off by the owners of the lot. AND in some ways abused by AMCIN (since we have to PAY cash from our own pocket in order to then volunteer our time to AMCIN).	7/19/2017 3:23 PM
268	I would go more often to the Egyptian if parking were free or up to $5. I have literally decided against seeing movies there because of cost and/or added time for parking.	7/19/2017 3:22 PM
269	Overall it is just a big pain to get anywhere in Hollywood.	7/19/2017 3:16 PM
270	Bless you trying to figure this out. And Bless you for the AERO Theater which is 6 miles from me.	7/19/2017 3:15 PM
272	Can the Egyptian arrange for validation programs with places like Hollywood & Highland? Or other lots? What can be done to REDUCE the number of permit parking spots in the surrounding area? Can you begin assigned seat ticketing? This is a major factor for overall commitment of time - and unlike traffic, this one is totally in your control.	7/19/2017 3:08 PM
273	We need more parking garages, not apt. buildings. Some newly-constructed apt. buildings are, in some cases, only 50% filled a year later.	7/19/2017 3:08 PM
274	The worst thing that ever happened to the Hollywood area is the complex at Highland and Hollywood Blvd. At this point Hollywood Blvd is nothing more than a seedy tourist trap.	7/19/2017 3:05 PM
275	Parking at the church lot is inconsistent and sometimes either isn't available or isn't open late enough.	7/19/2017 3:03 PM
276	Nothing	7/19/2017 3:01 PM
277	There is too much new construction in Hollywood and should be restricted.	7/19/2017 3:00 PM
278	The parking meters being 2-hours max is a pain. That's not enough time to get into the theatre and watch a movie if the movie starts late. If the meter runs til 8 and you get there at 6, then cool, but meters running til midnight on some nights is terrible. They're basically useless to Egyptian patrons.	7/19/2017 2:58 PM
279	Don't feel safe walking to my car at night after a show, praring price is high when I park at other lots, Congestion Gridlock, and distance I live in Palms-west LA, and it can take sometime 1 1/2 hours. I just give up, as much as I want to see your shows.	7/19/2017 2:58 PM
280	That's life in SoCal	7/19/2017 2:55 PM
281	I'm good....	7/19/2017 2:53 PM

282	I used to love going to the Egyptian and would usually park on Highland or other streets, at meters that were free after 6 or 7pm. That is no longer the case. Meters in some areas go until 11 or midnight on weekends and most don't offer long enough time frames to volunteer and/or attend events, anyway.	7/19/2017 2:53 PM
283	I would be more willing to fight the traffic and other delays if I was sure I could find nearby parking at a reasonable rate.	7/19/2017 2:49 PM
284	Hollywood is not welcoming!	7/19/2017 2:49 PM
285	I live in West LA (Sawtelle), so getting to Hollywood in the evenings is an awful experience. It takes more than an hour to drive there from my house. I would love to take Metro if there were a more direct train from West LA to Hollywood. There are plenty of entertainment options closer to me (including the Aero), so the only reason I go to Hollywood now is for a very special event (e.g., a concert at the Hollywood Bowl, or a show at the Pantages).	7/19/2017 2:40 PM
286	More public parking structures please! Overall, the Hollywood & Highland underground parking works, but it can get congested with events like film premieres, AFI Festival, Dolby Theatre shows. If you can build another underground structure like that just behind the Egyptian (or across from the back lot) it would be great. Flat parking lots are a total waste of space...go underground!	7/19/2017 2:35 PM
287	I would like to try taking public transportation to the Egyptian. I don't know what to say. I've lived here a long time, and I've seen a huge uptick in traffic lately.	7/19/2017 2:35 PM
288	I go to the Aero more even though I like the programs at the Egyptian better just because I can get there easier and park easier	7/19/2017 2:32 PM
289	I grudgingly accept that I must pay for parking, but feel that makes it a rich man's game that discriminates against those with fewer resources.	7/19/2017 2:32 PM
290	I either uber, if I know I will be leaving late and don't want to walk around Hollywood after 12am, or I have secret spots on Sunset or south of Sunset. I HATE paying for parking, so I try to avoid it as much as possible, but sometime it's unavoidable.	7/19/2017 2:32 PM
291	Egyptian Theatre needs reasonably price parking	7/19/2017 2:31 PM
292	If there were a validation option for discounted parking for Egyptian theater patrons, I would use it.	7/19/2017 2:31 PM
293	n/a	7/19/2017 2:31 PM
294	it's a shame that politicians do not think about congestion and quality of life when approving gentrification of neighbourhoods. in the past ten years the traffic situation in Hollywood has become intolerable	7/19/2017 2:28 PM
295	Just hope the same or similar programming comes to the Aero.	7/19/2017 2:27 PM
296	Parking is so bad now that meters are expensive and don't allow for enough time to see a movie. The lots are more expensive than ever. I love The Egyptian but parking is the #1 hassle of going there. This is an issue many friends have also complained about, that's why I'm filling out this survey.	7/19/2017 2:26 PM
297	Why on Earth would one drive when there is a Metro Station so nearby? Park somewhere other than the busy Hollywood area and take the subway.	7/19/2017 2:25 PM
298	Taking public doesnt work for me. It's only about 15 mins drive to the theater. So to go to Universal Redline lot, pay to park there, pay for tick and then Wait for train, and maybe have delays waiting for train in late evening returning means not interested in the red line at all. It's just too easy to drive. But then, damn, the parking! For Egyptian, they need a reliable $2 parking option in the area through validation or whatever. Match Arflight experience, will make decision to go there super easy.	7/19/2017 2:25 PM

300	I can't recall what prompted me to sign up for notifications to the Egyptian. Maybe I was going to see The Cure in Orange (and had to cancel). I may have seen that you sometimes have classic movies and I'm interested to see some of these for the first time, and if so, even better on the big screen. Since I always drive to a location in Hollywood it's always parking that I have to contend with. I don't see movies in Hollywood ever (cos I have more convenient locations, closer, with good Sunday $5 matinee deals, free parking, with ample restaurant options in nearby vicinity). I do go to shows at the Pantages and Hollywood Palladium maybe 1-3X per year and for those I find a parking lot nearby and pay $10-$25. Always try to find street parking first especially if weekend and there is no metering, or after metering hours on weekdays to pay zero. If go to a Hollywood Bowl concert I prefer to use the Park and Ride shuttle option (which I take from Pasadena, $7 per person... just last week I took my dad and a friend to HBowl from the Long Beach area via shuttle). Otherwise I park at Hollywood Bowl for what is likely $20-30. But it sounds like you're not concerned so much about other places, just the Egyptian. So if you're sending email notifications on upcoming movies make sure to have a sentence or link that directs to your webpage with parking and transportation options. If you have a special parking area and can guarantee a parking spot (for general sedans) and include that with a movie ticket that could be an option you can sell. That would make it a convenient one stop shop to facilitate the process. But I caution about the pricing. It's already generally very expensive to see a movie so if the ticket prices is high AND the parking price is high I don't think I'd even bother to buy. If I really wanted to see the movie then I'd get the ticket at the box office (likely to avoid a service fee online) and take my chances with finding parking that day. But it all is really too much to deal with. You have to take away all these barriers considering you have traffic alone to deal with. The more green lights the better it is. Hope you can get something out of that feedback	7/19/2017 2:24 PM
301	I love the Egyptian!!!! Love it!	7/19/2017 2:23 PM
302	Seems like a lot of your more interesting tributes, especially where filmmakers show up, happen at the Aero these days. Too far for me to travel there.	7/19/2017 2:20 PM
303	This survey does not allow you to choose "other" as an answer. It requires a check in a box. What good is the info if you cant put the real answer?	7/19/2017 2:20 PM
304	I seldom make it to events, as I live too far away; the 2+ hour round trip is usually daunting enough to override the desire to go. If I lived closer I would definitely go more often.	7/19/2017 2:20 PM
305	I usual attend screenings at the aero but parking is bad there as well	7/19/2017 2:19 PM
306	Thanks for putting on great stuff--truly appreciate it and wish I could come more often	7/19/2017 2:18 PM
307	If there were more matinees of programs of interest to me scheduled, perhaps on the weekend, so I could safely get home by walking and using public transportation, I would go to the Egyptian a lot more.	7/19/2017 2:18 PM
308	Good Luck solving this problem. Andy by the way , the parking around the Aero isn't that great either. I have missed the beginning of a movie due to inability to find a place to park. That being said, it is much worse around the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 2:16 PM
309	Love the Egyptian! Really miss the parking validation we used to have for Hollywood and Highland	7/19/2017 2:14 PM
310	Poop.	7/19/2017 2:13 PM

313	I love the Egyptian so much, but now that parking has been raised and streets require a permit, i feel like i have to limit what i want to watch. I have an option to take the metro but that takes prior detailed scheduling to make sure i get there on time and sometimes movies run too late for me to get home same as i came. I really hope the parking situation gets cleared up because from all the other people i talk to who come to the Egyptian, we all agree parking is awful :(7/19/2017 2:07 PM
314	I have not had a car for 3.5 years, but prior to that, driving to the Egyptian (I live in Santa Monica) and then dealing with parking was a factor in whether I'd attend a screening. Now that I take Metro rail, even though it is time consuming, it is much easier and I see more shows at the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 2:07 PM
316	Terrible, I stopped going because I can't afford the 3 hr back and forth commute	7/19/2017 2:04 PM

317	Egyptian Theater should have a parking area for attendees that is no more than $10. Trying to find reasonable cost for parking is not easy.	7/19/2017 2:04 PM
318	Try not to go there because of the traffic. Hope that the film will play at the Aero which is closer to me. Usually won't go if it isn't. I truly like the films at the Egyptian in the Aero screen.	7/19/2017 2:01 PM
319	More animation	7/19/2017 2:01 PM
320	Love the Egyptian...been going there since the 70's	7/19/2017 1:59 PM
321	I don't park around the Egyptian Theatre, but discounted parking validations would be nice if not already implemented.	7/19/2017 1:57 PM
322	parking has become very expensive during peak hours, some lots are very cramped, sometimes sketchy	7/19/2017 1:56 PM
323	NA	7/19/2017 1:53 PM
324	I love to the Egyptian but it difficult to get to there if it wasn't t metro. I would t ho	7/19/2017 1:53 PM
325	I sure wish the city would stop reducing the amount of allowed street parking, particularly along Selma behind the theatre. In the years since I've been coming to the theatre, the number of legal spaces behind theatre has reduced significantly, most recently this year, when the city painted red curbs over formerly metered spots on south side of Selma on block immediately east of Highland.	7/19/2017 1:52 PM
326	I come less now because they are taking away more and more parking around the theater	7/19/2017 1:50 PM
327	None	7/19/2017 1:48 PM
328	I haven't encountered major issues with parking or public transportation in regards to the Egyptian. For me, it's a given to not drive down in that area and to use the Redline. As mentioned previously - main thing preventing me from going to more showings is the start times. 5:30 - 6pm start times for double features would be great. Though not asked in this survey - I would go to more Aero showings if the parking was better (and the start times). But parking at the Aero has prevented me from attending shows there. I've been there twice and unless there's a secret parking garage, i always had to find a place in residential areas and dealing with deciphering the parking signs. And not Metro Line friendly location - at least from what I could tell. Will not take the bus.	7/19/2017 1:48 PM
329	it is very difficult to get there for 7:30 shows at night; it usually takes about 90 minutes from WLA, so I don't come as often as I would like. Fewer parking lots and more expensive ones makes it even worse. Hollywood Highland is a far walk and way too congested as well.	7/19/2017 1:45 PM
330	I have lived in large and densely populated cities that have dealt much better with these problems. It's time for LA to catch up.	7/19/2017 1:44 PM
331	As long as the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce cares more about Walk of Fame ceremonies, movie premieres and awards shows, I don't see how you're going to improve the parking and traffic problems on Hollywood Blvd.	7/19/2017 1:44 PM
332	I wish the American Cinematheque could have its own parking structures for an inexpensive flat rate. The Aero Theatre has an abundance of parking meters close by. So I use them, but the Egyptian Theatre parking locations are more difficult to find since they're usually occupied and the free ones are too far from the theater.	7/19/2017 1:40 PM
333	I feel really unsafe walking from the theatre to the metro stop at night time. I often had to decide not to go to a program due to how late it was as I would be alone, walking by myself. Parking and driving in Hollywood is hell so I prefer not to do it.	7/19/2017 1:40 PM
334	I find it odd that Hollywood doesn't have any multi-level garages at that end of the blvd and generally has terrible parking overall, given that it's such a tourist destination.	7/19/2017 1:38 PM
335	Somewhere that validates for the egyptian would be ideal. or include parking with a certain (higher) tier of membership> Friday night is definitely the hardest night to attend a movie at the egyptian given the club/bar scene as well as the street signs and meters limiting 2 hour parking that go until midnight. Also, the parking lots sometimes are more expensive on Fridays. Obviously its exciting to have programming and something to do on a friday night but its almost HOSTILE coming towards hollywood blvd then. -Cutter White	7/19/2017 1:34 PM
336	Traffic is so crazy lately that it's daunting I'm not going there on weekends EVER	7/19/2017 1:33 PM

337	I love the Egyptian and would be there much more often but it is just such a pain getting down there and I never really feel safe parking my car or walking to/from the train station.	7/19/2017 1:31 PM
338	No thank you	7/19/2017 1:30 PM
339	I understand it's a popular area but the parking fees are ridiculously high.	7/19/2017 1:30 PM
340	As a pilot project, the City might consider a pedestrian walkway without cars on Hollywood Blvd near Highland Ave. during certain days and time of day. This should be studied.	7/19/2017 1:29 PM
341	The Egyptian is SUPER convenient to the Red Line. I believe encouraging using that and Uber/Lyft is the way to go.	7/19/2017 1:28 PM
342	Please keep cheap parking options available in this area.	7/19/2017 1:27 PM
343	It's not your fault public transportation is bad. Parking is bad in Hollywood. Not much that can be done.	7/19/2017 1:25 PM
344	very upset when lot behind the theater was closed for new construction	7/19/2017 1:22 PM
345	It's such a hassle, that I must really really want to see the program. And plan for it in advance.	7/19/2017 1:22 PM
346	Hollywood is one of if not the very worst in the city when it comes to traffic and parking. I seriously hesitate to go anymore for that reason.	7/19/2017 1:22 PM
347	Please get designated space for your customers. It would make a world of difference	7/19/2017 1:22 PM
348	Parking cost more than I spend for the show!!!!!!	7/19/2017 1:20 PM
349	The parking cost is the reason I don't go more often.	7/19/2017 1:19 PM
350	$3.00 parking (with validation) was once available from the lot across the street on Hollywood Blvd, but not anymore.	7/19/2017 1:19 PM
351	Love the theatre and the programming!	7/19/2017 1:18 PM
352	N/A	7/19/2017 1:17 PM
353	nothing to add	7/19/2017 1:17 PM
354	I wish the Egyptian had a dedicated parking lot, either for free, or for a reasonable rate.	7/19/2017 1:15 PM
355	Parking in Hollywood is always bad. Im lucky that I walk to the theater or else Im sure it would be a huge pain point for me.	7/19/2017 1:13 PM
356	Nothing to add.	7/19/2017 1:12 PM
357	I wish there were more available and affordable parking options in Hollywood in general. I would be at the Egyptian a lot more if parking were available, free or more affordable. I have to pay for parking in order to volunteer.	7/19/2017 1:11 PM
358	Can be chaotic and overpriced. We try to avoid the more expensive ones.	7/19/2017 1:11 PM
359	Valet parking would be very convenient.	7/19/2017 1:09 PM
360	I live in North Hollywood, so luckily the option to take the metro is readily available to me. The majority of time I will choose to do that just to avoid paying for parking. It would be nice if the Egyptian implemented some type of parking validation for the nearest lot.	7/19/2017 1:08 PM
361	I wish the theatre had its own lot. But for now, I will see how things go and hope it won't be a problem for me.	7/19/2017 1:07 PM
362	Being near the subway is the only reason I visit the Egyptian! I think it is very convenient.	7/19/2017 1:05 PM
363	I love going out to see movies in theaters, but I have mostly stopped coming to the Egyptian because of traffic and parking. And I have never ventured to Santa Monica to the Aero because of LA traffic.	7/19/2017 1:04 PM
364	I would definitely attend more screenings if it wasn't so unpleasant to commute to the theater -- and I only live 2-3 miles away!	7/19/2017 1:02 PM
365	I appreciate that the Egyptian Theatre offers programs in the middle of the week, when traffic is easier to deal with. Meanwhile, for DECADES, Santa Monica has always had those huge parking garages near the beach where it's easy to find parking. Pasadena's Civic Auditorium has great side garages, too. I wish Hollywood would usurp a building somewhere and turn it into a major parking opportunity.	7/19/2017 1:01 PM

366	At worst, i arrive right as the show starts, but I've never had to miss the show	7/19/2017 1:00 PM
367	Glad this is coming up for discussion. The first time i visited the egyptian earlier this year, it was the first thing i noticed.	7/19/2017 12:58 PM
368	if you had a lot with validation that would be great.	7/19/2017 12:57 PM
369	The lot behind the theater was obscene in cost--the last time I checked. Too bad the Hollywood and Highland lot couldn't be used for the Egyptian for a modest cost/with validation.	7/19/2017 12:57 PM
370	if you can improve the traffic it will be a MIRACLE !	7/19/2017 12:56 PM
371	I would be at the theater much more often if I didn't have to pay almost as much for parking as I do for the movie itself. It's ridiculous.	7/19/2017 12:56 PM
372	Even though parking is a hassle, getting to enjoy the amazing American Cinémathèque at the Egyptian makes it all worth it! :-)	7/19/2017 12:52 PM
373	Parking sucks everywhere	7/19/2017 12:50 PM
374	No one can get through West Hollywood between 3pm and 9pm. They've turned the whole town into an insurmountable obstacle.	7/19/2017 12:50 PM
375	I avoid Hollywood when I can... too many tourists too little parking.	7/19/2017 12:49 PM
376	I appreciate the effort to make it easier to get to the Egyptian Theatre and that you're addressing traffic and parking concerns.	7/19/2017 12:48 PM

383	I love walking to the Egyptian. But if I'm late I usually won't attend because I don't want to pay for parking.	7/19/2017 12:36 PM
384	even tjo I can a dn do walk to the theater, (I am less than 1/2 mile away) I have friends who have experience with parking and traffic in Hollywood, from closed streets due to events, high parking prices on the weekends and just traffic on and near Hollywood Blvd.	7/19/2017 12:35 PM
385	It's impossible to find street parking nowadays in that area.	7/19/2017 12:35 PM
386	I'd like to come to the theater more often, but the traffic and parking situation often make me choose not to attend a screening that I'd otherwise like to see.	7/19/2017 12:34 PM
387	Would be great if the Egyptian had their own parking lot that they would then validate and cover most (if not all) of parking fees if you attend the theater.	7/19/2017 12:33 PM
388	I don't mind parking. I park in a secure building. What bothers me: 1. The amount of people on sidewalks loitering. I've run into many drunks and people coming/going to night spots. It's a bit of a hassle as they drive and it creates chaos. 2. Cinemateque starts movie late [7:45-8:00] which means I have to stay later [past ten]. Later at night, I see more groups of aggressive teenagers/party goers. It elevates a risk in my thinking. 3. Cinemateque programing has less and less movies I'm interested in. It's been over a year since I've been there. I used to go at least every three months. Or, if they do have a screening, it's something that only members are privy to, or the Aero is screening [which is too far for me] 4. Too many homeless people. Unfortunately, they do loiter in the parking structure. One time, there were several teens who were smoking marijuana camped out by my car. 5. Panhandlers are aggressive. If I see a movie and get some food, I've been approached for my food and or money. 6. the outlying neighborhoods appear to be declining in quality [trash on streets/furniture on sidewalks], in addition to seeing people urinating on sidewalks or buildings. The smell of urine is pretty common around Cherokee.	7/19/2017 12:33 PM
389	I think back the day parking was validated for $2. Not sure if that is still happening. I know the theater is non profit, so that would be an expense. I love the theater and the location is iconic. I don't really have any solutions.	7/19/2017 12:32 PM

391	No right turn on red sighns poping all over town are the worst.	7/19/2017 12:28 PM
392	It's Hollywood. You expect it to be crowded and the parking to suck, it's just part of the atmosphere hahaha.	7/19/2017 12:28 PM
393	Coming from West Valley makes using public transport just about impossible. Imwish you had matinee screenings so using public transport might work out (it doesn't feel secure at night).	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
394	Would love it if The Egyptian could offer the same validation for $2 for 4 hours like the TCL and Kimmel do.	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
395	I truly think Hollywood and LA in general needs to start thinking about smart urban planning instead of only looking at development for the sake of development void of planning that takes the community into consideration. DTLA arts district is heading to one big mall and the development that is slated is mind boggling. Hollywood, please learn from DTLA what not to do and learn from Abbott Kinney, Silverlake and Los Feliz that remains a neighborhood destination. Abbott Kinney has sustained without metered parking. Put ordinances in place that will protect what is left of the beautiful old buildings. Don't allow new glaring neon lights to overtake streets off Hollywood Blvd, like the controversies that are ping ponging in DTLA. It's fine now but this is an area of mindfulness that one should keep an eye on. Please find solutions to the traffic gridlock and address the escalating parking prices. I love Hollywood and have lived here over 20 years. Make it easy to move around rather than the hassle. How many hotels in an eight-block radius does the region need. Transportation concerns are visibly left unaddressed. Thanks for this survey!	7/19/2017 12:26 PM
396	You used ot have an arrangement with Highland/Hollywood parking. Can you do that again?	7/19/2017 12:25 PM
397	Build a relationship with that parking lot behind the theater and make sure they're nice and I'll park there every time.	7/19/2017 12:23 PM
398	Parking is stupid expensive! It deterres me from doing anything in Hollywood-not just going to the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 12:21 PM
399	The only way parking and traffic are going to get better is if/when the area falls again into disrepair. And you don't want that to happen. Not sure what the issue is other than pulling into the Hollywood and Highland complex. It might take 20 minutes to turn right onto Highland off Hollywood but you take that into account. Unless you folks buy your own dedicated parking lot there's little you can do to alleviate the situation...	7/19/2017 12:20 PM
400	I would suggest coordinating with a large lot for discounted parking. Didn't you used to do this?	7/19/2017 12:20 PM
401	I only go to the Egyptian 1 in every 5 times I want to. Traffic and parking has become more of a hassle than im willing to deal with anymore, even if I really want to see the film. I LOVE the Egyptian, and when I lived in HW I would just walk there all the time. Once I moved to Burbank, I realized that I could spend the same amount of time it took to drive over the hill, just driving around looking for parking or fighting my way through the fray. The traffic/parking make a 15 minute drive turn into a 45 minute episode of Mad Max-- I just don't have the energy for that. And don't get me started on the Aero, I haven't been there in years. Driving to Santa Monica from Burbank now is like traveling to Waterworld.	7/19/2017 12:20 PM
402	I love the Egyptian Theatre but the hassle of gridlock and imbecile pedestrians has led me to switch to Regal LA Live.	7/19/2017 12:19 PM
403	love the theater and programming. hate to commute and parking costs!	7/19/2017 12:19 PM
404	Please don't let developers take away our already scarce parking lots to build their useless luxury high-rises. I know they are trying to get planning permission to do this. Hollywood is being systematically destroyed by this. STOP!	7/19/2017 12:18 PM
405	I would be at the Egyptian more often if traffic was less problematic.	7/19/2017 12:17 PM
406	It would be nice to have lower cost parking	7/19/2017 12:17 PM
407	You should build an underground parking lot	7/19/2017 12:16 PM
408	I'd come out to the theater a lot more often if it wasn't such a hassle. The main problem is the parking. There should be free public lots like in Burbank. Burbank has built multiple fee public parking structures to encourage people to come shop/dine and it works	7/19/2017 12:15 PM
409	Close to metro stop. Easier than parking. Easier than going to the aero.	7/19/2017 12:13 PM

410	Could there be a better arrangement with The Egyptian and nearby parking lots to get a discount on parking with the proof of purchase of a movie ticket?	7/19/2017 12:13 PM
411	If there was a parking deck like the arlight that a spot was pretty much a given and it would cost about 3 bucks, I would probably go more often.	7/19/2017 12:13 PM
412	Any arrangement with a nearby lot for at least discounted parking when attending the Egyptian Theatre would be golden. I typically print my tickets and also have a membership card that could be shown to the attendant.	7/19/2017 12:12 PM
413	I used to park in the lot in the back until they raised their price to $15. It really is inconvenient not to have a consistent/reliable place to park.	7/19/2017 12:11 PM
414	It's "OK" for what it is!	7/19/2017 12:11 PM
415	It's traffic -- way more than ticket prices -- that deters me from attending both the Egyptian and the Aero -- and other theaters as well (e.g. Royal, Nuart, Laemmle Santa Monica).	7/19/2017 12:11 PM
416	More parking/less development	7/19/2017 12:10 PM
417	Thanks for your concern	7/19/2017 12:10 PM
418	N/A	7/19/2017 12:09 PM
419	I drive from Long Beach to pick up a friend mid-Wilshire and then to the theater. If any easy and time-effective public transit option existed, we'd try it. If the theater had more restaurants or attractions within the same space or walkable, it'd increase the likelihood of parking once and then sticking around for multiple options. Right now, it's mostly get in, get out, and gauge the parki options before heading to the theater.	7/19/2017 12:07 PM
420	Lately Hollywood seems a bit safer, so that would make me more comfortable with a short walk.	7/19/2017 12:07 PM
421	I love, LOVE the American Cinematheque programming. The Aero is too far for me to go unless it's a really important film to me or great Q&A. Parking there is also inconvenient, but not that bad. The Egyptian is even worse in some ways. It's closer, but parking is a cruel joke, especially on weekends or when lots know they can jack up the price to $20 or more (AFI Fest, etc). Parking is the biggest obstacle between me and great films at The Egyptian (only 10 min from me in NoHo). I don't know what the solution is, but I'm really happy that the American Cinematheque shares my concern and is looking into remedies. Thank you!	7/19/2017 12:07 PM
422	Honestly, walking is quicker than bus	7/19/2017 12:06 PM
423	You can't really use metered spots because most around the theatre are limited to 2 hours. They need to give you more time.	7/19/2017 12:05 PM
424	it's just getting worse by the month. I hope you survive ! I'd hate to have to ...wait, no, I won't go to the Aero. Last time I went, it was worse than being a rookie in an Olympic Event getting back and forth in the evening	7/19/2017 12:05 PM
425	1. Put uniformed and highly visible security agents on the HWD streets, around Metro stations and, especially on the subway platforms and on the trains. 2. Consider some Hollywood EXPRESS trains from Union Station and other key stations. 3. Allow reduced parking fees for theatre-goers between certain hours. 4. Do whatever is necessary to help encourage people to attend & preserve a Hollywood institution: the Egyptian Theatre!	7/19/2017 12:05 PM
426	the parking signs are tricky. I had a big fine for one evening & another the sign seemed ok, but I asked the meter maid & she said I couldn't park there so I left & skipped the program	7/19/2017 12:03 PM
427	thank you for raising this very important issue!	7/19/2017 12:02 PM
428	The theater is in a great spot for busses and rail to drop off close by, but much of Metro and busses are not easily accessible from patrons' points of origin.	7/19/2017 12:01 PM
429	Generally speaking, it is super convenient to get to from downtown. I am annoyed sometimes when programs are delayed by the organizers because "traffic is bad". Would prefer things to start on time, as the later it gets, the less comfortable I am riding the train home in the evening. So even though traffic doesn't effect me directly, it does effect me!	7/19/2017 12:01 PM
430	I love the theater so much and i wish this weren't an issue but it truly is. Maybe the solution is partnering with some lots maybe below the theater towards sunset and having a shuttle?	7/19/2017 12:01 PM

431	Parking is a problem, but the uptick in violent crime (and to a lesser extent, aggressive panhandlers) in the area immediately surrounding the Egyptian is IMHO a greater risk to future audience numbers holding up than difficulty parking. If people want to see the movie on the big screen with a big audience badly enough, they'll grit their teeth and figure out how to get there. But if they're afraid of becoming a violent crime victim in the process, they'll stay at home and see it on Netflix.	7/19/2017 12:01 PM
432	Cost is prohibitive	7/19/2017 12:01 PM
433	I wish the theater had a dedicated lot, even if it cost extra. I wish the theater still validated H&H parking.	7/19/2017 12:00 PM
434	If the Cinematheque has not considered it, perhaps AC can negotiate preferred rate parking in the development being built just south of the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 12:00 PM

440	Parking in Hollywood is terrible but the Egyptian is not even at the slightest fault. My only suggestion would be to avoid driving on Hollywood. Metered parking on Sunset is inexpensive after 7pm (I think). I don't know exactly, but in the general area of Orange Dr. south of Sunset, there is some residential/unmetered spaces. It requires a bit of looking, patience, and walking. Sadly, a much higher difficulty for the handicapped, but I suppose placards and designated spots should be looked for.	7/19/2017 11:56 AM
441	I love the Egyptian and its programming. I just despise Hollywood and the surrounding area. L.A. should be ashamed of itself for the current state of an area so key to tourism. THIS is what people from around the world see when they visit the entertainment capital... dirt, filth, traffic, rage, drugs, crime... lck.	7/19/2017 11:56 AM
442	Parking at the theater is not the problem, it's getting there. I happen to know the side streets and shortcuts and it's still an issue. Pressure needs to be turned up on the city to create one way streets, so traffic can move. People make left turns across traffic creates a nightmare. Every major city has figured this out but Los Angeles. Trucks should not be making deliveries during rush hour.	7/19/2017 11:55 AM
443	It clearly needs to get better. I moved from Houston about a year ago, and learned (the hard way) that you have to pay to park everywhere. Parking should be free if I've already paid for an event I'm going to. Quite annoying!	7/19/2017 11:55 AM

449	I've been thinking of switching to the train because parking fees double my movie ticket cost.	7/19/2017 11:49 AM
450	I live walking distance to the Aero theatre, so it is more likely that I will attend an event at the Aero than the Egyptian. On weekdays, with driving and parking, it takes close to two hours. It also is unfortunate that we have to pay for parking. I wish there was validation.	7/19/2017 11:49 AM
451	Drunk/drugged driving is a major issue in Hollywood - I have witnessed some pretty disgusting behavior after leaving the Egyptian If I wasn't with my husband I would feel less safe. We have taken Metro, but the walk between the train and the theatre can also be a little crazy	7/19/2017 11:49 AM
452	Safety is very important and don't see any patrolling	7/19/2017 11:48 AM
453	Nothing to add	7/19/2017 11:48 AM

454	Hollywood Blvd desperately needs to get rid of street parking and develop public parking structures that are city owned, much like Westwood or Culver City	7/19/2017 11:47 AM
455	nothing	7/19/2017 11:46 AM
456	I wish some of the shows started at 8:00pm - my work gets out at 7:30pm which makes getting to the 7:00pm shows a hassle to arrange in advance, and when there's traffic it can be disheartening when I have to give up midway through my trip after already leaving work early.	7/19/2017 11:45 AM
457	Validation for the hollywood & highland structure	7/19/2017 11:45 AM
458	Parking and transportation are always taken into consideration when deciding if I want to attend a screening.	7/19/2017 11:45 AM
459	The Egyptian is centrally located with good public transit options for most of central LA. Hopefully LA will build more rail lines to make it easier to get to Hollywood, since many people are unfamiliar with the bus system.	7/19/2017 11:44 AM
460	The programs are generally very good at the Egyptian. However, parking a car or even a motorcycle is a major headache. Prices in parking lots nearby have gone from $10.00 to $15.00 with no accommodation in price for members.	7/19/2017 11:43 AM
461	A headache!	7/19/2017 11:42 AM
462	I wish the Egyptian had its own lot under the theater or nearby - parking in lots in Hollywood is excessively expensive. Perhaps they could give out discount codes for ride sharing with each ticket purchase or for membership?	7/19/2017 11:42 AM

471	The last thing we need is less parking	7/19/2017 11:37 AM
472	It is very easy to get to the theater via public transit, although I know the lack of parking is an inconvenience to some	7/19/2017 11:35 AM
473	I noticed the price of parking went up 50% (from$10 to $15)	7/19/2017 11:34 AM
474	It's bad all over. Anything you can do to lobby city council would be appreciated.	7/19/2017 11:34 AM
475	This is a very difficult situation to tackle because the train has already left the station. The City of LA and all the cities within Southern California have allowed overpriced developments to take over every available lot creating this huge imbalance of congestion and the standard cost of living that's out of control right now. I don't know how to fix this problem and supporting a place like the Egyptian Theatre has become harder which is unfortunate because it's a vital part of the Hollywood community and essential that it stays around for all generations, but it seems like there are other agendas out there crushing all of us each day.	7/19/2017 11:33 AM
476	The cost and difficulty of finding parking prevents me from attending MANY events in Hollywood. I (and my money) just stay home.	7/19/2017 11:33 AM
477	meters should allow parkers to stay long enough to patronize the Egyptian or wherever else they are going. insufficient available time means no parking available at all.	7/19/2017 11:33 AM
478	My Cinematheque membership goes back to the Raleigh Studio days, and from memory I have never driven a car to a screening. I don't expect everyone to follow suit to this extent, but those who insist a car is a necessity aren't trying very hard to find an alternative. And given the obvious larger issues involved, they should not be (further) subsidized or otherwise enabled to keep doing what they're doing.	7/19/2017 11:32 AM
479	none	7/19/2017 11:31 AM

480	Build a five-story parking lot	7/19/2017 11:31 AM
481	I love the Egyptian theater better than the Aero, but the Aero is such an easier theater to get to and park. There's numerous times where I pass on films at the Egyptian because it will end up costing me essentially $22 with parking included to see them there, as opposed to $12 or so at the Aero. I recognize that this isn't the Egyptian's fault, but I WISH they would still validate for Hollywood and Highland the way the Chinese and El Capitan do, it would make a world of difference (and might just convince me to spend more at the concession stand as a result. ;)	7/19/2017 11:30 AM
482	If the parking fee behind the theater increases I will probably look for alternate parking. Parking in a fairly secure location plays a role. Coming to the Egyptian to see classic movies is my priority. It's always a great experience I never want to end so I'll put up with increased costs as long as I can.	7/19/2017 11:29 AM
483	Subway has been a benefit and a curse for Hollywood. I am born and raised in Hollywood (Franklin & Cahuenga) and Hollywood is a beautiful anachronism. It was built at an earlier time, and doesn't scale well with the explosive population growth that LA has had in the past 30 years. The neighborhood's nightlife has made it rush hour at all hours - I remember the anti-cruising laws enacted in the late 80s/early 90's to free up traffic. Having said that, the Egyptian Theater has to be in Hollywood - it's one of the only things that ties the neighborhood's past to its present.	7/19/2017 11:28 AM
484	As I've mentioned, the American Cinematique is a cinema treasure. Any new developments in the area need to take into account the importance of parking for its patrons. I would like to see all Art Deco and Historical sites untouched, and any developments should be a "reasonable size" ex. Arclight complex at Cinerama Dome. NOT 30 STORY buildings!! That's crazy. Also, at night, I can't stress enough how dangerous and sketchy the neighborhood has become. So much so that I have reduced my visits to the area, especially after sundown. This is a major issue for me, and those others who know full well the parking situations in the area. I am willing to sign any necessary petitions to curb this development and/or insure that patrons visiting American Cinematique are not price-gouged for parking; rather given reasonable parking rates (ex. The Grove), especially if new parking garages are constructed. Don't ruin the movie-going experience, which includes reasonable and close parking, for loyal patrons of this fine establishment.	7/19/2017 11:28 AM
485	I'm not averse to parking a few blocks away and walking when I park at Hollywood & Highland. There was one time though that I got stuck in a serious traffic jam trying to get out of that garage. Took 30-45 minutes. That was truly awful and I'm always worried that will happen again. If it started to be a consistent thing, then I would probably not come to the Egyptian much and instead hit the Aero.	7/19/2017 11:26 AM

489	I remember in the past (about 28 or 29 years ago) parking right behind the Egyptian Theatre, and I believe it may have been for Free! How times change! I went to see a movie there, of course. I THINK it was free!	7/19/2017 11:24 AM
490	Ok	7/19/2017 11:23 AM
491	There are multiple problems when it comes to parking or public transportation. I just hope there are enough smart people who have dealt with these problems before that can apply their knowledge to the area around the Egyptian Theatre.	7/19/2017 11:21 AM
492	It's certainly difficult but not impossible to find a free, unmetered spot if you're willing to walk 2-3 blocks to the theatre or able to wait until after 7 p.m. on weekdays	7/19/2017 11:21 AM
493	Traffic getting out of Santa Monica and to Hollywood is terrible. Traffic in Hollywood also very bad...I would love to use the Egyptian more, but the hassle is just too much.	7/19/2017 11:20 AM
494	I know it's probably not economically feasible for the Cinematheque any more, but I came to screenings at the Egyptian (my favorite theater in L.A., BTW) more often when you used to offer validation at Hollywood & Highland. I didn't have to worry about circling about parking, the thought of which is enough to keep me from attending a lot of screenings.	7/19/2017 11:18 AM
495	Egyptian should push taking Metro more aggressively in their newsletters, etc.	7/19/2017 11:17 AM

496	Parking has grown more restrictive in Hollywood, and Parking patrol just awnts to ticket you. Meters should be less restrictive & it would cut down on traffic from people driving around to try to find a parking space.	7/19/2017 11:17 AM
497	Nada	7/19/2017 11:17 AM
498	I would go much more often if there was a reasonable parking lot that I knew I could get a spot in. It's too expensive to spend 20 dollars or more for parking on top of theater tickets. I love going to the theater and your programming but the parking issue is huge for me. It has gotten considerably harder to park just in the past few years, and the price of the area parking lots are ridiculous.	7/19/2017 11:17 AM
499	When I drive home with no traffic, it's less than a one hour drive. Usually when I drive to the Egyptian, it's at about double that because of the traffic, and sometimes can be 2.5 hours. I love the programs they have and would go more if it were more accessible from Orange County.	7/19/2017 11:16 AM
500	The expense of parking behind the theater, as I used to do, bothers me. HWD/Highland is too far to walk and too much to deal with. I wish that the theater would validate at least a portion of parking fees at a lot that is no more than 1-2 blocks away.	7/19/2017 11:16 AM
501	It's just too expensive to park. I would rather go to The Aero, as parking is easier and traffic is less.	7/19/2017 11:16 AM
502	Parking in nearby lots went from $10 to $15, a 50% increase! WTF?	7/19/2017 11:16 AM
503	Of course, I always try to park for free, I know the neighborhood pretty Well and sometimes I achieve this.	7/19/2017 11:16 AM
504	I've used a surface parking lot - seldom, mainly because they are full and expensive. Public transportation is out of the question-either too expensive, not close to home, or it would take a half day to get there.	7/19/2017 11:15 AM
505	It used to be great when Egyptian validated Hollywood & Highland parking lot but I understand if the contract expired. I would go to more Egyptian shows because they're really decently priced (usually $11) but if you factor in parking it means a ticket to a show there actually costs $26.	7/19/2017 11:15 AM
506	I don't know why, but Hollywood has gotten crazy. More and more meters in the area run until late in the evening, so they are unavailable for a movie. I usually have to park at Sunset or below to find a place. It would be nice if there were validated (or discounted) parking. I usually now just go to the Aero which is closer to my home. On a weekend, I almost refuse to go to Hollywood/Egyptian.	7/19/2017 11:15 AM
507	I miss the days of validation. It would be a huge boost if Egyptian could partner with another lot that would validate.	7/19/2017 11:14 AM
508	I do encourage the discouragement of parking, except when trying to park.	7/19/2017 11:13 AM
509	fix it.	7/19/2017 11:13 AM
510	I have never bailed on an event I had tickets to, but I've definitely been selective on what weeknight shows I attend. I will often pick the Aero over the Egyptian because of traffic/parking.	7/19/2017 11:13 AM
511	Frankly haven't been to the venue in ages greatly to do with inconvenience. I can ride my bike into Hollywood faster than driving and finding parking, yet I don't always wish to bike ride home at a late hour and weather dependent. Finding safe-feeling bike racks are also an issue; always feels better to have merchant inner sanctum racks than streetside racks. I don't care to add parking to the price for the evening when I live so close (Wilshire & Highland); feels strange to pay for parking in one's own neighborhood. I try to find a balance between riding my bike and driving. I will day ride my bike into Hollywood but have found I am challenged for night rides. Also attire is a consideration if dining beforehand. Lyft has become a necessary alternative adding to ticket price and part of the decision of whether to go or not. I am more likely to add the cost for the convenience of Lyft when I am meeting friends and going out for the evening to a club or restaurant versus adding it to the cost of a movie ticket	7/19/2017 11:13 AM

513	I was disappointed that the parking lot directly behind the Egyptian was closed and is being developed for what I assume is another residential property. That should have been turned into a large multi story parking garage. The smaller parking lot adjacent to the theater is often over priced but the closest parking lot available.	7/19/2017 11:11 AM

516	A big reason for cycling to Hollywood is to avoid traffic and parking fees, though the security of one's bike is somewhat of an issue...	7/19/2017 11:10 AM
517	There should be free parking for all locals within 25 miles. Greed has hurt Hollywood and all it's businesses. especially places like theaters	7/19/2017 11:10 AM
518	Because it is so hard to drive/park here I am all for public transportation to ease gridlock.	7/19/2017 11:09 AM
519	Parking and traffic are mainly the reasons why I don't go to more events at that theater.	7/19/2017 11:09 AM
520	Sucks	7/19/2017 11:09 AM
521	Yes, I am "guilty" of driving to the Egyptian in non-carpool fashion. And even though it can be a stressful and unpleasant one hour schlep from West L.A., it would take me even longer to travel there were I to cobble together some alternate routing utilizing public transportation. There is no convenient means by subway or bus that would provide a better alternative at present.	7/19/2017 11:08 AM
522	It would be ideal if the Egyptian had their own dedicated parking lot, if they did I would absolutely come to more screenings without worrying about not finding a parking spot when I get there	7/19/2017 11:08 AM
523	According to Google Maps, my home is only 11 miles from the Egyptian, but it often takes as much as an hour to get there by car, and almost 2 by public transit. This makes it very hard to plan a night out and my husband loses patience with the delays and lack of parking.	7/19/2017 11:07 AM
524	It's odd that it always looks like work is being done, but I haven't seen a single positive for people actually coming to the area for entertainment. Maybe because it's mostly condos and hotels and that won't positively impact anyone driving into town.	7/19/2017 11:06 AM
525	We need more spaces closer to the theatre. More on street meter time would help. The current amount allowed is usually not sufficient. Thank you	7/19/2017 11:06 AM

535	If you don't get there early the Las Palmas lot fills up and then you have to drive around looking for a spot on the street, often blocks away. You need a lot more parking, paid or not. The entire traffic situation in Hollywood is awful	7/19/2017 11:01 AM
536	Egyptian should do 4 hour validation at Hollywood and Highland or another close lot?	7/19/2017 11:00 AM
537	Note for anyone taking public transportation: Weaving through pedestrian traffic on Hollywood from the Metro station requires advance lead time (and patience) just to walk that short distance as well.	7/19/2017 10:59 AM

538	I hope in the future there is more public transportation just in the Hollywood area itself. Has there been any discussions about the metro system also being above ground traveling the length of Hollywood Boulevard? Maybe recreating the classic trolley/red car that would have various stops along Hollywood Boulevard add to the feel of a bygone era as well as being functional? Like everything else, I'm it all boils down to the almighty dollar... Just thought I'd stick in my two cents since it's not a dollar.	7/19/2017 10:59 AM
539	If Egyptian had validation for parking at one of the lots -- it would save lives and sanity	7/19/2017 10:59 AM
540	We love the programming and people at the Egyptian and would go every night if we could. When we first got to LA a few years ago, we were going to the Egyptian and found a metered spot, but misread a small sign and were towed. The tow cost us $375.00. Since then we always park at the lot on Las Palmas, but that extra $10 makes the decision to see films there more of a "do you really really want to go" situation. Still, we do go at least twice a month. Thank you for the great films and looking forward to the Jean-Pierre Melville screenings.	7/19/2017 10:58 AM
541	There should be a lot for members, or a deal with one of the lots around	7/19/2017 10:58 AM
542	I would drive if it were convenient, but I'd rather walk 20-30min from home than look for Parking.	7/19/2017 10:58 AM
543	It would be nice if more affordable parking lots were built.	7/19/2017 10:58 AM
544	Accessible and nearby parking lots is one of the key reasons I consider the Egyptian to be the most desirable repertory cinema in all of L.A. - as long as the cost is not out of control, I will continue to be a patron of your theater.	7/19/2017 10:56 AM
545	You have wonderful programs there - it is just impossible to get there from the westside	7/19/2017 10:56 AM
546	It's really awful. I usually go to the aero even though it's a bigger distance from my location because street parking is so ample.	7/19/2017 10:56 AM
547	Thanks for asking! Best wishes to all of us!	7/19/2017 10:55 AM
548	Maybe having shuttle buses around the city like the buses for he Hollywood Bowl. I do that a lot.	7/19/2017 10:54 AM
549	I have been going to the theatre for a long time, and have always been discouraged by the $10 parking behind the theatre (and that some meters around have a two hour limit even at night). Now that the two lots behind on Las Palmas charge $15, it really is ridiculous. Hollywood isn't the best place to walk around late at night, but those lots cost twice as much as the member tickets I buy. Maybe something can be worked out because at the Aero, I never pay for parking, so I am more motivated to go there.	7/19/2017 10:54 AM
550	It would be awesome if the Egyptian had its own parking structure that offered discounts to members.	7/19/2017 10:54 AM
551	I choose not to go to Egyptan in the evening as it is just too much of a hassle due to trfaffic, delays and cost of parking. A very reasonably priced $8 movie ends up costing me another $20-25 to park turning into an expensive evening. I go to the Aero all the time instead.	7/19/2017 10:54 AM
552	The let behind the Egyptian is way too expensive. Why have they gone up in price? And other parking lots are disappearing. I don't want to walk all the way from Hollywood and Highland.	7/19/2017 10:54 AM
553	The parking lot that is now an apartment complex was the lot I used most frequently, I think it was $5 or $8, and that cost on top of the ticket price + refreshments wasn't bad. But now the parking lot prices are $10 - $15 and any price above $10 for parking makes going to the Egyptian not worth it. I love the theater and like a lot of the movies chosen for screenings.	7/19/2017 10:53 AM
554	Although I have nearly always been able to find a street spot, I wish there was a good lot nearby that could partner with the Egyptian for a discount other than Hollywood & Highland, which is cumbersome to navigate.	7/19/2017 10:53 AM
555	I wish more parking was available.	7/19/2017 10:53 AM
556	I love going to the Egyptian theater but I hate having to pay an extra 15 dollars in parking	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
557	I intensely dislike the many unlicensed "entertainers" that cause horrible congestion on the sidewalks near the metro. and the various businesses that feel free to take up sidewalk space along the boulevard.	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
558	I wish there was a parking lot for the Egyptian that was a nominal fee	7/19/2017 10:52 AM

559	I used to park at Hollywood & Highland, but then they stopped accepting validation AND it was a total PITA to use their structure, frequently making me late. Then, I used to use the lots near the Egyptian, but they, too, stopped validating and seriously jacked up their prices. Now, I just park way the hell far away when I drive.	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
560	I live in Santa Monica. Metro goes to downtown. There is no convenient way via metro to get to Hollywood directly	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
561	I'm so glad you're performing this survey, because the parking and traffic needs to be addressed at some point. I think if there were more incentive for me to take public transportation, whether it's cleaner or more secure Metro, a Metro line from West LA to Hollywood, or (with regards to parking) a network of "satellite" lots and free shuttles to&from them situated around/outside of Hollywood area...I think traffic would be lighter.	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
562	Parking is usually available somewhere, but the cost is prohibitive. Not easily accessible from the new train line.	7/19/2017 10:52 AM
563	I would love to go more often but there is no where to park and I don't want to be late driving in circles. So I will take an uber but it is really expensive because I live in the valley so I don't come often. The aero theater has much better parking so I drive there all the time.	7/19/2017 10:51 AM
564	The fact is, the greedy developers, who do not live or work in the area, so don't care about anything but lining their pockets, get away with overbuilding.	7/19/2017 10:51 AM
565	Parking near Egyptian is getting so bad, it will cause me to miss many movies in the future.	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
566	Lack of reasonably-priced parking, which used to be available, has surely hurt the Egyptian. I would go probably 2X a month if the meters were still free after 7 and not 8. And you no longer validate for Hollywood-Highland parking (which I dislike anyway!) which may have discouraged others from attending as often.	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
567	Generally, traffic congestion and high parking rates make me think twice about attending a movie/event at the Egyptian Theatre.	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
568	More availability with lesser cost	7/19/2017 10:50 AM
569	I wish that The Egyptian would validate parking. If they did I would go more often	7/19/2017 10:49 AM
570	I lived in Hollywood for 27 years but because traffic has become such a problem there, I generally avoid doing anything recreational in the area.	7/19/2017 10:48 AM
571	NA	7/19/2017 10:48 AM
572	It's outrageous that there is no metered parking after 6pm on Hollywood Boulevard.	7/19/2017 10:48 AM
573	If there were more I would attend more often	7/19/2017 10:48 AM
574	Love the Egyptian and would definitely go more if traffic and parking were easier and cheaper.	7/19/2017 10:47 AM
575	Love seeing films at The Egyptian but admit that the #1 reason I don't do it more often is the traffic/parking situatuion	7/19/2017 10:47 AM
576	Hollywood is what it is. The Egyptian is a destination, so all travel is well worth the trip.	7/19/2017 10:47 AM
577	Parking lot off of Cherokee is great.	7/19/2017 10:47 AM
578	None	7/19/2017 10:46 AM
579	I take the Gold Line to the Red Line when I attend The Egyptian. It is by far the most convenient and stress-free mode of transportation when I travel to Hollywood.	7/19/2017 10:46 AM
580	Hollywood is being destroyed by overdevelopment and vanishing parking. Longtime residents and customers leaving in droves. Landmarks gone. Egyptian needs its own parking lot.	7/19/2017 10:45 AM
581	Best way to go is by public transit, ??	7/19/2017 10:45 AM
582	If I drive to Hollywood Blvd I usually park down by Sunset.	7/19/2017 10:44 AM
583	I just don't go to the Egyptian (only the Aero) because of traffic and parking and parking prices.	7/19/2017 10:44 AM
584	The traffic department of Los Angeles has removed many, many, many, many potential parking spaces along the curbs in Hollywood. They painted previous parking spots as red zones. It seems to me they actually want to reduce parking in Hollywood. It's completely irritating and makes me want to avoid coming to Hollywood and avoid seeing movies in Hollywood.	7/19/2017 10:44 AM

585	The traffic congestion, inconvenient and costly parking have greatly reduced my trips to the Egyptian. Bring back $2 validated parking at Hollywood/Highland	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
586	I'm worried that as more and more free parking spaces disappear, it will become impossible for me to get to the theater on time or at all. It used to be that I could arrive 10 minutes before the show, park for free, and make it to my seat. This made it much more convenient. The city should install many FREE parking structure throughout Hollywood to replace all the free and easy street parking that used to exist.	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
587	It's ridiculous that la city changed to he meters to run until midnight on weekends but they only have a 1 to 2 hour window of use. People don't drive into hollywood on weekend nights for just 1-2 hours.	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
588	Just thinking about driving into the area and trying to find parking makes me often look longingly at the Egyptian's schedule, knowing it's just not worth the hassle, even though I'd love to go.	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
589	friends I have on West side will not go to Hollywood: no easy Metro, traffic, to difficult to park, have to allow too much extra time to get to Hollywood, safety	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
590	N/A	7/19/2017 10:43 AM
591	It's a nightmare. I love the Egyptian but the increase in traffic & congestion in Hollywood often keeps me from visiting.	7/19/2017 10:42 AM
592	I am grateful to live nearby (approx 35 min walk), otherwise I'm not sure I'd attend as often. But traffic/parking are the problems of most urban theaters. People are no longer willing to suffer for their art. Love you guys!	7/19/2017 10:42 AM
593	It's only going to get worse with construction and new condos.	7/19/2017 10:42 AM
594	I am glad you are doing this survey because I find myself going to the Egyptian less and less only because of parking. I love the theater but the parking is so terrible that it deters me. I try to go to the Aero instead.	7/19/2017 10:41 AM
595	N/a	7/19/2017 10:41 AM
596	The high price of parking is a deciding factor on deciding to attend a particular show. Is it worth it, the hassle and cost of parking, the traffic all in addition to cost of the show often is why I skip going	7/19/2017 10:41 AM
597	Love it!	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
598	We usually end up driving or uber/lyft because other options are not cost effective enough to compensate for the added time of planning a trip with public transit	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
599	Sorry to hear that the close-by lots are becoming apartments and such; don't know where I will park in the future!	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
600	The little lot behind the Egyptian is great in an emergency (or if a physically challenged member of the oarty needs to walk a shorter distance) and might be reserved for that...or at least a portion of it, if a premium rate could be worked out with the lot operator. Hollywood and Highland is a fine option with validation as long as it is not raining or if there is not a premiere or other event going on in the block west of Highland. It would be great if there were an additional structure somewhere east of Highland which was equally well illuminated, trafficked and patrolled.	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
601	I would use public transportation more if it was easier for me to get to it from my house and/or if the busses ran more frequently and late at night.	7/19/2017 10:40 AM
602	there is never any mention of where to park in Egyptian ads, would be nice if there were recommendations as to where to park and state the cost of those parking lots. This will help us make an informed decision where to park.	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
603	I LOVE the Cinematheque and the Egyptian (have been attending since before you moved in to the Egyptian), but am coming to the theater less and less due to traffic, and the shortage & high cost of parking; Over the past year I have begun skipping most Friday & Saturday screenings, since that is when parking cost is highest. If parking cost continues to rise I will likely stop coming entirely. Sorry guys - sincerely hope you can find an "angel" who can help you aquire a lot; Maybe you can earn enough from tourists in daytime and club-goers at night that film-goers attending from 6 or 7pm can get a decent rate.	7/19/2017 10:39 AM

604	I live close enough that if I can't park for free it has to be a very special screening or it is not worth it, as it is really too far to walk there and then have to walk back too. I recently saw ET in 70mm there. I was excited, as I had worked with the Cinematographer Allen Daviau. I had to run to make it as I didn't want to pay for parking and then the print was scratched and in poor shape. It was a very disappointing experience. This will make me think twice about going there again, and I usually love it.	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
605	Make parking more affordable and public transit more accessible!	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
606	This will never be a mass transit torn. It's too hot in the summer, for starters. This is LA. Not. NY.	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
607	IMPROVE IT!	7/19/2017 10:39 AM
608	We used to be members of the American Cinematheque but have since lapsed. We would like to join again, but the programs that were available when we were members did not pique our interest.	7/19/2017 10:38 AM

610	Na	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
611	When the American Cinematheque hosts a screening, I'd say I'm roughly 5x more likely to go if it is at the Aero than if it's at the Egyptian. This is almost entirely due to traffic and parking issues, particularly the cost of parking.	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
612	It would be nice to get a discount at the parking lots if you show your Egyptian stub.	7/19/2017 10:38 AM
613	They should have their own dedicated parking lot (Free), and/or validation for surrounding parking lots in the area.	7/19/2017 10:37 AM
614	You need to ask about when people travel to the Egyptian. The weekend matinees are not bad at all. But evenings are another matter in terms of traffic, crowds and parking.	7/19/2017 10:37 AM
615	I really wish the Egyptian would validate for the Hollywood highland center parking	7/19/2017 10:37 AM
616	I frequent Aero predominantly because of ease !!!!!	7/19/2017 10:37 AM
617	Parking has definitely gotten tougher the last few years. But if the Egyptian is showing a film I really want to see, I usually manage to get there. It just involves more bitchin' and moanin'.	7/19/2017 10:37 AM
618	I never drive to the boulevard in Hollywood. Metro is always easier and often faster. Only downside is the trains don't run as frequently later in the evening. If they ran consistently, it would be perfect.	7/19/2017 10:36 AM
619	Easy if you know what's up	7/19/2017 10:36 AM
620	I would greatly increase the frequency of my attendance if free or discounted parking for Egyptian Theatre patrons were available.	7/19/2017 10:36 AM
621	Offer validated parking, even if it's just a few dollars off.	7/19/2017 10:36 AM
622	It's very congested.	7/19/2017 10:36 AM
623	Now that the light rail system is available on the Westside of Los Angeles, it is an incentive to get out to Hollywood more. However street crime in Hollywood has also increased so it might make some people leary about using that option.	7/19/2017 10:36 AM
624	Needs a garage type parking	7/19/2017 10:35 AM
625	not good	7/19/2017 10:35 AM
626	None	7/19/2017 10:35 AM
627	You guys offer GREAT movies. Request for real butter for popcorn, and less salty! And real cream for coffee. Thanks. Keep up great work, thank you.	7/19/2017 10:35 AM
628	The lack of parking is inconvenient, but I find that it is possible to build the time needed to look for parking into my plans. At times, when running late, I have been forced to pay for parking at a lot, but I prefer not to do this. The Metro stop at Hollywood/Highland is very conveniently located, but I try not to take it if I am riding alone late at night. During the day I have had no problems with it.	7/19/2017 10:34 AM
629	The situation is miserable. But I am glad you are trying to do something about it.	7/19/2017 10:34 AM

630	If it were possible to pay $5 or less when visiting the Egyptian, I would likely be there every week, the way I do with the New Beverly and Aero. But because it costs $15 to park nearby, I really have to pick and choose what I really think is worth seeing. Combined parking and movie ticket costs makes the Egyptian just about the most expensive place to see a movie in town. Which is a shame because I adore the theater and programming so much. I would love to be able to afford to come more often	7/19/2017 10:34 AM
631	The Egyptian could use a designated parking area, at least for members of the cinematheque. Also, the whole city could benefit from more incentive for electric vehicles - I had a Chevy Volt before and had NOWHERE to charge it, especially not on the streets.	7/19/2017 10:33 AM
632	I generally walk, it doesn't always feel safe. Parking deal was good when it was at H&H, but that ended.	7/19/2017 10:32 AM
633	I always end up paying more (maybe double) for parking than I paid for my Cinematheque ticket. That does not seem right. I live too far away for public transportation to be doable.	7/19/2017 10:32 AM
634	We need to eradicate our stinking car culture and get out of those pollution spewing prosthetic devices. Replace parking lots with parks and trees. Create separated and safe bike lanes and improve the public transit system so that LA can someday be a true word class city. Cap the 101 freeway in Hollywood with a park. Let those selfish crappers stew in the tunnel below it.	7/19/2017 10:32 AM

640	I like to drink when I go out, so I don't want to drive and end up getting into problems	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
641	Often decide not to go to the Egyptian, although would like to see a film that is showing, because traffic in Hollywood and parking are too much of a hassle and take too much time.	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
642	I chose to live downtown partly because there is great public transit to the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
643	It's not even so much that I think the neighborhood is really unsafe, but it is unpleasant to walk around. I can't imagine it is possible, but it would be great if the Cinematheque had its own lot.	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
644	I am amazed that anyone with access to the Red Line would ever drive to Hollywood. I avoid it (driving there) like the plague. I'd say you should do anything possible to promote people using it, perhaps including a tie-in with MTA or a TAP card discount.	7/19/2017 10:31 AM
646	The parking adjacent to the thater is too expensive. I am a Cinemateque member and we should be able to use the parking at a cheaper rate. Or have a validation system for patrons. It stresses me out having to make a 7:30pm show on a friday. I may be a member and get discounts and privileges but I am paying what I save to other companies. I would rather those funds go towards de cinemateque. You should also take the parking issue into consideration qhen scheduling shows. People that work till 6 are not able to make 730 show if they drive there.	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
647	It's not the Egyptian, it's the whole lack of oversight or planning by the city for the whole Hollywood area and beyond. The fact that they have continued to let it get this bad with no relief shows how incompetent they are. Kudos to you and the Egyptian for trying to gather information as a step in improving this.	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
648	The traffic is out of control. Also, most movie times at Egyptian are also around rush hour. Hard to find parking. Obviously, I wish Egyptian had a validation system like other theaters. I think attendance would go way up. Most of my friends don't want to join because they don't want to be in the filthy Hollywood tourist area or they know how hard it is to find parking.	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
649	I can't take public transportation because there is no viable convenient public transit option near my house	7/19/2017 10:30 AM
650	More affordable (or free) parking will be nice	7/19/2017 10:29 AM
651	The Egyptian is a magical place. It's true it's a little difficult to park there, and we'd probably go more if we knew there was a convenient nearby lot	7/19/2017 10:29 AM

652	Parking situation + general atmosphere around Egyptian often keeps me away from attending movies and events i would like to attend	7/19/2017 10:29 AM
653	It just takes a bit of planning to make it there.	7/19/2017 10:29 AM
654	We would be more willing to take a bus or train but it would take us a lot longer to get there. It's a huge hassle too.	7/19/2017 10:29 AM
655	You should offer a discount for folks who use public transportation or Uber like services to the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 10:28 AM
656	Used to be $10, raised it, makes it expensive to go to a movie even with a AC membership	7/19/2017 10:28 AM
657	offer an Egyptian Theater discount to a parking lot somewhere	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
658	LOVE the parking lot behind the Egyptian! PLEASE don't take it away!	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
659	I live pretty close so I know how to avoid traffic by taking local streets. I never drive down Hollywood Blvd. and always approach the theater south from Willoughby so my responses might not help you much. However, I hate paying 15 for parking and only do so after hopelessly circling the blocks for awhile. The meters are clearly rigged to force you to park in the lots as because of the careful way they set time constrictions (not enough time for a movie or much of anything else).	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
660	It's not that bad and worth the trip, but I'm spoiled by living within 1 mile.	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
661	Change the butter for the popcorn please. It taste rancid and old, thank you.	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
662	Lack of affordable parking (and safety of walking alone in the area) definitely dissuades me from coming to the Egyptian	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
663	Parking is terrible. Always makes things late. Can not think of anyway to fix it. Wish metro didn't take three times longer because have to go from Santa Monica all the way to union and then red line.	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
664	free parking pass at close safe lot	7/19/2017 10:27 AM

666	N/A	7/19/2017 10:27 AM
667	Again: we've got to clean up these streets. I grew up walking distance from the Egyptian - I'm used to the area. But lately the street people issue has become untenable. Makes me sad: we love the old Hollywood buildings.	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
668	Hollywood is pretty gross. I DON'T prefer sanitized mall theatres, but I'm not crazy about having to dodge hustlers and skip over urine and feces in order to get to the Egyptian from parking meters.	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
669	I usually don't have too much of a problem with finding or paying for parking. I was surprised that I had to pay $15 in the Las Palmas lot one night next to the Egyptian. I'm used to paying $10 there.	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
670	If it wasn't for double-screenings, the time it takes to get to the venue and parking costs would not be worth it to me. Traffic congestion and parking are definitely the biggest deterrence. If I do not take off work early on weekdays (well before rush hour), I could never make it there. Public transportation does not work for me. It takes even longer than driving and is uncomfortable, unsanitary and unsafe. I wonder if fundraising could be done to acquire the parking lot behind the Egyptian. It could be used for events and could generate income even during the times when there are no screenings.	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
671	Next year, I have purchased season tickets in the south bay vs. Hollywood. Although not as 'special' and I am sure talent level is reduced, I've had it with the drive and the south bay is a mass transit desert.	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
672	Dig underground and make a subterranean parking lot. That's what the Parisians did since they couldn't touch any of the above-ground historical architecture.	7/19/2017 10:26 AM
673	Parking availability is always a challenge at any time of the day or night.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
674	It is becoming impossible to attend any activities in Hollywood due to the parking and traffic situation.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM

675	Hollywood needs to revisit their parking regulations to simplify them and remove unnecessary signage. Or City planning needs to look at parking in moderate size area and require parking be addressed which may mean surface, under or above ground.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
676	Hollywood & Highland is the safest place to park, but it goes up to a flat fee of $15 after a certain time of night. This prevents me from attending movies and events that will end after the fee goes into effect. The church is a more affordable place to park, but I don't feel safe walking alone. The area is dark and sketchy. Hollywood Blvd is also sketchy, but at least it's well lit and busy. The lots on Las Palmas are conveniently located, but also expensive and feel somewhat unsafe in certain areas of the lots (dark and out of sight of attendants). There aren't any park & ride metro stations near me. To take the metro, I have to go out of my way to find a park & ride(making my travel time even longer), or park a few blocks away on sketchy side streets near camps of homeless people in order to walk to the station. Some of them are friendly, but some are NOT. I've skipped free screenings because I can't afford the parking in general, but I especially can't afford to spend nearly an hour driving from West LA, paying $15-20 park, and then waiting in line for 30min only to be told I can't get in because something is at capacity. I've also skipped paid movies unless I am extremely passionate about the film, enough to spend the $ and my time.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
677	I know the motivation for this survey is to block high rises from wiping out parking lots but it's an opportunity to be leaders who advocate for the transportation system we need. In the end, your theaters will benefit too.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
678	I wish there were a regular train going between Coachella Valley and LA.	7/19/2017 10:25 AM
679	there are many times that I weigh the ordeal of finding parking in my decision to attend an event or not.	7/19/2017 10:24 AM
680	If the public parking lots near the theatre are removed due to additional development it may become too difficult to park conveniently enough to go to the theatre. This is especially a concern as a woman who sometimes attends screenings alone at night. I would not want to park blocks away and walk alone to the theatre at night.	7/19/2017 10:24 AM
681	Parking is the sole reason I don't regularly attend screenings at the Egyptian. I go to the Aero almost every week, sometimes multiple times a week. Because there's parking available around the theater. The Egyptian is an absolute nightmare to get to for anyone with a car.	7/19/2017 10:24 AM
682	The parking situation is expensive enough to keep me from attending on a weekly basis, but I'm comfortable with paying for parking about once a month.	7/19/2017 10:23 AM
683	I just wish there could be validation or something. Every other theater down there validates.	7/19/2017 10:23 AM
684	It was so convenient to use the Red Line when we lived at my girlfriend's place in Los Feliz. We just walked and rode the train. But now we're at my place in Mar Vista for a while and it's just inconvenient getting to Hollywood at any hour and we're always averse to paying for parking.	7/19/2017 10:23 AM
685	I wish the parking lots weren't so creepy and the abundance of tour buses is a huge problem in Hollywood both in the business district and residential areas. I think it's a fun service to offer but should be limited to reputable companies and there should be a limit to the amount of vans/buses on the road with a ban from stopping in the middle of the street.	7/19/2017 10:23 AM
686	Even New York City has parking garages. It would be nice if the city built some public garages when development reaches certain points. I appreciate that the subway is the future but it does not go to where I live. I can't take it to the Egyptian. In 20 years when that might be possible I'll love it. But we need city solutions that address both the future and present conditions of LA.	7/19/2017 10:23 AM
687	I would attend more events at the Egyptian, if the traffic and parking conditions could be greatly improved. The commute time is a big factor in me deciding whether to go or not.	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
688	I wish the Egyptian would have a complimentary parking lot for its patrons.	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
689	Most of the time easier to walk but then not as safe when the movie is done--late at night.	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
690	I wish there was at least a partial validation to use the Egyptians own parking lot.	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
691	I try to avoid Hollywood altogether because of the parking, traffic situation. To much of a hassle and not worth it.	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
692	You guys do a good job with your parking lot. There is going to be more congestion because people need a place to live and more high rises are going on.	7/19/2017 10:22 AM

693	We live in Santa Monica by the Expo line, so in theory it'd be a great way to commute, but it takes way too long + don't like riding metro at night.	7/19/2017 10:22 AM
694	It's not the easiest experience to park near there!	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
695	Metered parking usually isn't an option because the meter expires before the movie will end. So I end up having to pay at least $10 just to park my car. I wish that you guys had more affordable parking or even better, free parking for customers. If you offered free parking, I'd be at the Egyptian almost every weekend.	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
696	Some parkings only accept cash so that turns into finding an ATM that doesn't charge super high fees. Some parkings change their price from one night to the next and there is no clear signage stating prices either.	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
697	0	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
698	I wish we had more surface lots close to the venue.	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
699	NA	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
700	Hollywood needs more affordable parking structures like the ones in Santa Monica or Pasadena. It's time we accommodated the huge tourist industry that supports our city.	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
701	I remember back in the day people could park at the Hollywood and Highland Complex and The Egyptian would validate parking so since that is no longer it's harder to find parking in the area especially during the weekend. If the Egyptian were able to validate for some parking space nearby or have their own lot that would be helpful.	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
702	Validation would be lovely but hey.. I'd rather your focus is on getting great shows together and supporting the theater.	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
703	I know it must be difficult to acquire but parking validation or a parking lot discount would be helpful.	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
704	Parking is too expensive. I sometimes want to go for the free shows but since it's at a first come first service basis, I rather not attend since I'll have to pay for parking and might not get in, I will be paying for parkong for nothing. If parkongwere a bit cheaper I would definitely attend more often, too more events even if I have to pay for it	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
705	making parking free again	7/19/2017 10:21 AM
706	There are less parking lots available.	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
707	Parking is way too expensive!!!	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
708	Arrange for more such showings at the Aero instead of the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
709	I'm sure that a dedicated lot would be cost prohibitive. Maybe the Cinematheque could work something out with Hollywood & Highland that would allow Egyptian patrons to validate parking there?!!	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
710	I can't afford to pay for parking lots and only rarely will. Free or cheap street parking is a hustle, and factors into my decision to attend screenings. The development here in Hollywood is never-ending, but I work in the neighborhood and have to deal with it if/when I drive. At the same time, the Hollywood and Highland Metro stop is pretty unappealing, especially on weekends, as there is a lot of violent energy in the air. Despite this, I prefer to use Metro to get to the Egyptian, but like parking, it unfortunately factors into my decision to attend. Summary: no perfect option!	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
711	We typically always park at Hollywood + Highland with no issues. The rates are affordable with validation, and it is an easy walk to the Egyptian. Honestly we've had more issues street parking in Santa Monica for the Aero. :)	7/19/2017 10:20 AM
712	I wish there was a parking pass for volunteers to park in permit areas, or maybe receive a discount at paid parking lots. Maybe volunteers would receive this pass only after completing a certain number of hours.	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
713	Not sure what else you guys can do. I didn't even realize you had stopped validating for Hollywood & Highland because I haven't tried parking there in years. It was too inconvenient even with validation.	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
714	Unfortunately it's just symptomatic of LA in 2017. But a good cheap parking solution would definitely help!!	7/19/2017 10:19 AM

715	you're good	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
716	There should at least be a discount for patrons of the theater at one of the lots.	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
717	Excessive development in Hollywood is making traffic far worse.	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
718	Parking in Hollywood can be difficult. Not sure what can be done.	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
719	Trying to find affordable, safe parking can be difficult.	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
720	I LOVE the Egyptian. I would happily drive from Altadena for events. But I usually think "Oh god, is it really worth driving through that mess and then searching for parking? Eh, maybe not."	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
721	Maybe offer Uber coupons when ppl purchase tickets?	7/19/2017 10:19 AM
722	NA	7/19/2017 10:18 AM
723	Ok	7/19/2017 10:18 AM
724	I used to go to the Egyptian theater a lot, but the parking situation now factors into my decision to see a movie there. It's usually an extra 20 bucks just to park. That's not worth it for a movie. I'd rather drive all the way out to the Aero theater where I can easily find free street parking.	7/19/2017 10:18 AM
725	Nothing	7/19/2017 10:18 AM
726	PLEASE get a dedicated parking lot that moviegoers can use and not worry about the safety of their car. Another big concern is that parking tickets are so outrageously expensive, it's a deterrent to parking in Hollywood; if you get a ticket, then a nice evening at the movies turns into a very expensive trip.	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
727	If there was a validated parking option or less expensive lots and less frustrating traffic, my attendance would probably be triple what it is currently. Frequently hope for programming I want to see to be at Aero instead, just to avoid going to Hollywood in evening.	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
728	area definitely needs more multi level parking or parking options	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
729	nope	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
730	I wish the metro ran more frequently, like every 10 minutes and that the cost of riding was different for a shorter trip versus a longer trip.	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
731	The traffic, congestion and limited lot and meter parking in the neighborhood surrounding the Egyptian are all genuine issues that should be addressed, but if there is a screening that I am intent on attending, I always find a way to make it work.	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
732	Parking should be free with validation.	7/19/2017 10:17 AM
733	The metro is very convenient, more ppl should take it. I am often the only one or one of a few who rides back from the theater.	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
734	Parking is a ripoff. Oftentimes a night out at the movies that should have been maybe $20-25 bucks becomes $50-60. And that's partly why people don't want to venture out anymore.	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
735	I don't like walking too far to/from the theater late at night. I wish it were closer.	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
736	Metro station at Hollywood and Highland is an excellent alternative for public transportation. In my case I walk to the Egyptian, but most movies I want to see are shown at the Aero Theatre. I wish there were more movies for me at the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
737	Egyptian theatre is conveniently located near many parking structures.	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
738	Nothing else to say	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
739	NA	7/19/2017 10:16 AM
740	There is almost no free parking in Hollywood. That's off putting right there. There is way too much traffic. Metro doesn't run past certain hours, so if someone leaves a club at 2:00, they have to wait HOURS to get a train home.	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
741	The red line service is satisfactory, although not the safest line at night. Parking at Hollywood, unless one is lucky enough to find some spot on the street, is just too expensive	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
742	n/a	7/19/2017 10:15 AM

743	i have driven for years but now transitioning to uber/lyft because looking for parking is a waste of time. even taking such services takes a while because the traffic in hollywood is terrible. build a ton of new buildings without a traffic flow solution. really smart.	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
744	More parking would be better	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
745	The lots that are directly behind the theater are too expensive and not nearly enough spaces. Parking is the worst part of going to the egyptian. Quite often I have to pay twice as much on parking as I have to do on tickets to the movie itself and that is incredibly discouraging. It sometimes makes me skip movies because I don't want to deal with the hassle or the cost.	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
746	I wish Metrolink had late night service.	7/19/2017 10:15 AM
747	Please find a way to keep it affordable! It's the most unexpected cost of the night, the one $$ that after paying for babysitting, dinner, tip, tickets... we end up going less frequently. We love The Egyptian, and until our child is old enough to enjoy more films there, our time and budget is limited for special screenings there.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
748	If you have a program that I want to see, I don't let parking keep me from it, although I won't usually come during the week. Weekends are better, especially Sundays.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
749	Beverly Hills has all kinds of public parking lots that cost on an average of $2 to $4 Dollars for a few hours. It attracts more costumers that spend more money than in Hollywood	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
750	Please don't let parking troubles undermine the last great and purely historic film center in Hollywood proper.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
751	Unless more parking structures are built, cannot see solving this problem.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
752	More traffic personell to help cars move	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
753	If it were not for the difficulty finding free or cheap parking near the theater, I would be going there much more often, at least once a month.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
754	If there were more direct or Express buses, i would take a bus to Hollywood (until the trains are completed), but if I were to take a bus from Redondo Beach, it would take me 1 1/2 to 2 hours ONE WAY.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
755	I'm going to be sad if they put a high rise on that parking lot behind the Egyptian on Selma. It is soooooooooo convenient!	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
756	Parking has never kept me from going. I'm not in love with the venue. It has to be an amazing movie/event to get me to go	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
757	Follow follow follow follow follow the yellow brick road.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
758	Would be nice to have a lot designated for the Egyptian with free/discounted parking for members. Same with the aero.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
759	More bus-only lanes would make taking the bus a better alternative. As of now, there is no time benefit because you sit in the same traffic regardless of if you are on the bus or in your car.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
760	The Egyptian Theater (and the Aero) are two of my absolute favorite theaters in LA. If parking were easier and reasonably priced then I'd visit the Egyptian more often.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
761	It is not great, but it doesn't keep me away.	7/19/2017 10:14 AM
762	I wish it wasn't so frustrating getting to the Egyptian Theatre because it's my favorite of the two American Cinematheque theatres. We stopped renewing our membership because it became increasingly expensive and time consuming just to get there!	7/19/2017 10:13 AM
763	-	7/19/2017 10:13 AM
764	it takes a real effort to get there from the westside and after driving home in rush hour traffic after work, I often opt not to make the drive to Hollywood	7/19/2017 10:13 AM
765	I love movies at the Egyptian; unfortunately safety and lack of affordable parking prevent me from attending more often	7/19/2017 10:13 AM
766	It would be very much in the best interest of the city and the neighborhood businesses to develop expanded parking options - particularly a city-owned structure with consistent pricing and timing considerations - as well as traffic mitigation solutions.	7/19/2017 10:13 AM

767	To avoid the Hollywood parking mess and cost, I usually drive to the Universal redline station and then spend three dollars round-trip to go one stop to Highland station. But that still requires me to drive about 16 miles each way to the Universal or NoHo parking lots!	7/19/2017 10:13 AM
768	Please provide affordable parking.	7/19/2017 10:13 AM
769	Better public transportation is much needed in Hollywood.	7/19/2017 10:13 AM
770	parking behind the theater should be free for those that are handicap	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
771	I love that the Metro is so close, otherwise I would probably never come. The traffic and parking is yucky.	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
772	Get used to it. It will worsen as development increases its pace	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
773	A big part of what has kept me from seeing more films and seminars at the Egyptian Theatre is that I like to see it with friends. I'm the only person I know who doesn't have a car, and all my friends who do say that traffic is so bad in the evenings near the theatre that they won't come. And most of the time, I don't want to go by myself.	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
774	Please don't take away driving lanes for the big bike lane "Road Diet" plan. It happened in my neighborhood and it's a disaster. Gridlock, increased accidents, it's horrible.	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
775	I usually just miss what's at the Egyptian and go to the Aero	7/19/2017 10:12 AM
776	it would be great to have more shuttle bus systems around LA - HBowl, Movies, SHows etc combo shuttles would be great. Also dedicated bus lanes so bus is slightly faster than traffic	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
777	Circling for blocks then parking at unmetered spots south of Sunset on Cherokee is ridiculous. Frustrating to only find parking 3 blocks away at Highland Shopping Center for (unvalidated) $15. We need more reasonably priced parking. I've missed several great shows at the Egyptian Theatre because the prospect of parking was too stressful.	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
778	I would love some kind of validation discount with the parking lots around your theatre.	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
779	I would take the train more, as I do take it to work, but it's ridiculous to have to take a bus to the train, but then I don't feel safe walking back from the train station late at night. It winds up taking twice as long at least; I can drive there in 15 minutes, while it takes me 20 min to walk to the train station and take the train.	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
780	.	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
781	Have to allow extra time to find parking. Nervous about walking between parking and the theater.	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
782	Well... hmmm... it'd be real cool if you could transport the Egyptian to an actual good part of town that I'd want to go to.	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
783	it prevents me from going even when there are events i would really like to attend	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
784	perhaps a lot that offers discount parking for Egyptian patrons?	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
785	I mentioned it above, but for a single woman attending alone SAFETY is my utmost concern, especially at night. Having to walk any distance to/from my car would be terrifying - and I'm not an anxious person, just cautious.	7/19/2017 10:11 AM
786	What the developers are doing to the area adjacent to the Egyptian Theater by building high rise condos/apts and DOING NOTHING FOR THE COMMUNITY except spoiling Hollywood and getting money is a crime.	7/19/2017 10:10 AM
787	N/A	7/19/2017 10:10 AM

789	N/A	7/19/2017 10:10 AM
790	Living in Venice, I go to the Aero a lot more, but I still make the effort to go to the Egyptian, just a lot less often. If there was less traffic and more parking, I'd go more.	7/19/2017 10:10 AM
791	Traffic is worse between 4pm to 7pm on Highland Avenue	7/19/2017 10:10 AM
792	Egyptian needs to accommodate its patrons with a dedicated local parking spot or people will stop attending as often as they do.	7/19/2017 10:10 AM

793	Parking has been the deterrent keeping me from ever attending events at the Egyptian Theater. I'd rather go to the Aero Theater or the New Beverly Cinema since they have ample street parking.	7/19/2017 10:10 AM
794	Good luck.	7/19/2017 10:10 AM
795	I love the Egyptian but parking and grid lock are so bad I don't attend as often as I would.	7/19/2017 10:09 AM
796	Not a fan of the weekend prices behind the theater. Any further parking options, streets, lots, etc... seem to be too sketchy to walk to from at night	7/19/2017 10:09 AM
797	I wish it was more convenient to park but I understand the difficulties. The private lots charge so much and I've had experiences where the attendant has overcharged because there are no other options.	7/19/2017 10:09 AM
798	I love you guys. Keep on being super stars #birthdaybadger	7/19/2017 10:09 AM
799	I love American cinemateque It is coolest retro Hollywood icon and institution	7/19/2017 10:09 AM
800	Love the programming at the theatre and would like to attend more things but it can be a hassle with parking and traffic.	7/19/2017 10:09 AM
801	It can get pretty heavy at times.	7/19/2017 10:09 AM
802	Thanks for doing this research!	7/19/2017 10:09 AM
803	Since I often come along from a great distance (Orange Co.) it is critical I can count on parking behind the theater off Las Palmas, where I don't have to worry about security going to and from my car. I have to know I'll have a place to park after driving for 90 minutes in traffic! I am willing to pay a premium price ($15) for having a safe spot right behind the theater. I'm concerned you mention the surface lots could be impacted by development. I only use Hollywood & Highland when I'm with someone as I don't want to walk down Hollywood Blvd alone at 11:30 p.m.	7/19/2017 10:08 AM
804	I just wanted to say... if this survey is meant to provide evidence and viewer testimonials that will help discourage housing developments that your council is discussing at a meeting, please check yourself. If you can't see that we are in the midst of a housing crisis and that we NEED development, then you are blind. I am willing to put up with traffic during construction if it means making more housing for everyone in this city.	7/19/2017 10:08 AM
806	It would be great if the theater partnered with the nearby lots and offered some kind of deal.	7/19/2017 10:08 AM
807	I love the Egyptian but it is a nightmare drive from Santa Monica. I also stopped my Hollywood Bowl attendance for this reason.	7/19/2017 10:08 AM
808	Public transportation makes getting there easy really. The trains don't run really late, but there's usually a bus available fairly quickly. More people should realize this.	7/19/2017 10:08 AM
809	N/A	7/19/2017 10:08 AM
810	It sucks that there are less and less options for parking in lots that aren't super-expensive (i.e., over $10-15).	7/19/2017 10:07 AM
811	If parking was more readily available and/or guaranteed that I would get a good spot and not have to walk a long ways at night alone after the movie (I'm a woman), I would be more likely to come more often.	7/19/2017 10:07 AM
812	I live in Hollywood 4 blocks from the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 10:07 AM
813	Nothing	7/19/2017 10:06 AM
814	get a bike!	7/19/2017 10:06 AM
815	If the Egyptian offered validated parking at a nearby lot I would attend more frequently.	7/19/2017 10:06 AM
816	I'm always willing to pay the $10 to park in the Las Palmas lot right behind the Egyptian.	7/19/2017 10:06 AM
817	i appreciate that there is parking behind the theatre if i need it. don't want that to go away just so a stupid skyscraper can be built!	7/19/2017 10:06 AM
818	Not enough reasonable parking	7/19/2017 10:05 AM
819	It'd be cool if there were a reasonable lot near by, or if metered parking didn't have rigid restrictions, but this is dream stuff b/c we're talking LA city.	7/19/2017 10:04 AM

820	It used to be much, much easier.	7/19/2017 3:20 AM
